LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Bradham & Brock Dentist.
W. B. Boyd—Administrator's Notice.

Cherokee Literary Circle's meeting for tonight is postponed until Friday evening, June 8, 1894, on account of the Collegiate Institute party.

Lucy Mitchell, col., was arrested yesterday on the charge of cruelly kicking a child. The case will be tried this morning at 10 o'clock.

In the Y. M. C. A. Hall are a table and plate left from the rose festival, and a couple of plates left on the Disciple picnic as at the JOURNAL office. The owners will please get the same.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Centenary M. E. church will be held at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Hay this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

A good programme is being arranged for the entertainment of the members of the Y. M. C. A., next Friday night. It is exclusively for members of the Association, subscribers, and ladies.

One of our subscribers at Pelletier Mills, Carteret county, Mr. L. F. Pelletier writes us that the fine rains have also reached that section and crops are showing their good effects.

One of the workmen employed in building the new dry kiln for the Sisson Lumber Co., received a severe cut on the hand yesterday. An artery was severed and the blood flowed profusely, but the timely aid of Dr. Duguid prevented any further serious result.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Aman, of Palo Alto, came in last night and had the pleasure of seeing their niece, Miss Viola Provo, one of the pupils of the Collegiate Institute presented with a scholarship in Asheville Female College, which she nobly won by her industry and good deportment during the year.

From reliable authority it is learned that Dr. Geo. E. Blackhall, of Raleigh General Store-keeper and Gauger of the Revenue Department for the Eastern District, will canvass the principal towns in the State in the interest of the Teachers Assembly and the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead.

The face of Thos. Robbins, the polite colored man who for years has run a hackster's stand on Middle street near Radcliff's restaurant will meet his friends no more. He died yesterday morning after about two weeks illness. He was 65 years of age. The funeral will be from St. Peter's church this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

We are informed that the meeting at Pollockville being conducted by Rev. D. H. Petree of this city, is being well attended, and that the interest is growing. There has already been one conversion. Our correspondent also speaks of Wednesday's storm and says that the hail storm in that section was quite severe, some of the stones being nearly as large as a hen egg.

With to-day's issue, "The National Cemetery" by Rev. Edward Bull is concluded. As concise and well written history, it has received approval. His description of the attributes of the grounds was well timed, but he omitted to give credit for the major part of this to the citizens and school of the adjacent Superintendent, Mr. Thos. O'Shea, to whom much of the credit belongs.

New York Truck Connections by Wire.
Messrs Palmer, Hinchey & Co., of New York, telegraphed the following quotations for that city last night:
Potatoes, $3.50 to $4.00. Onions, 80c. to $1.00. Beans, green and black, 75c. to $1.00.

Wash. Potatoes, $3.00 to $4.00. Beans, $1.25. Irish Potatoes, $3.00 to $4.00.

About the Custom House Memorial.

As attested by the signatures of the leading business men of New Berne, with respect to party, they consider the contemplated removal of the Custom House from New Berne an outrage upon the service, and a greater upon the interest of the country.

Every month the office here pays out to the Revenue cutter, and office employees, about $3,400 in cash, the greater part of which goes into the circulating medium of New Berne, making its discontinuance undesirable from a local standpoint.

Under an order from the Department, the salary of the Deputy here has been reduced $180—at Washington to $450—while the man at Hatteras, where salary was $800, but who got $1,300 under Harrison, has been dispensed with.

This "poorly paid and poorly fed" policy of the administration is too close to be economical in a governmental sense. It would be robbing New Berne for the benefit of Wilmington: It would be robbing the government by a large entry of smuggled goods, which would likely ensue as it removes the protection of the Revenue Cutter.

Cause to Feel Grateful.
Considering the general depression all over the country—commonwealth strikes, and general dissatisfaction—Eastern North Carolina, and New Berne especially, should consider itself fortunate, and thankful she has been so little affected by either.

The prosperity and stability of values is attracting the attention of the outside world as one of the most desirable places in the South. Only recently Mr. F. E. Hoge, of Salem, a business man of State reputation, attracted at the Fair by our advantages, together with other good citizens, has moved here.

THE JOURNAL is in constant receipt of letters of enquiry from parties wishing to locate here, and there should be some means of giving proper attention to this correspondence.

The number of handsome buildings put up this year, and the universal verdict of the traveling men attest that business here is far above the average, and that we have been less affected by the money stringency.

Superior Court.
The following are the cases disposed of Thursday:
State vs. Chas. Jones, col. Larceny, Guilty.
State vs. Haywood Guion, col., A. & B. Guilty. Sentenced to county jail for 6 months.

State vs. Arens Ward, col. Larceny, Guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.
Mary Moore, col., F. & A. Not guilty.
Reuben Wiggins, col., A. & B. Guilty. Sentenced to $10 and costs.

Washington Williams, practicing medicine without license, Guilty.
Green Atkinson, col., aiding a criminal to escape, Not guilty.
Alf Ward, col., convicted of perjury was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

J. T. Harris, col., larceny; was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The motion docket was called, after which court adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning.

Coming and Going.
Mr. W. F. Hallison, who has been for a considerable time at Nashville, Ga., came in on the W. N. & N., train last night and went on immediately by the A. & N. C., train to his home near Croatan, where he expects to remain for the summer.

Mrs. F. W. Underwood, of Newton Grove, N. C., arrived to visit her aunt Mrs. J. H. Benton.
Mrs. S. R. Phillips, who was called away by the death of her sister Mrs. J. H. Granger, of Wilson's Mills, Johnson county, on the 29th ult returned home last night.

SEVEN SPRING CORRESPONDENCE.
Wheat Crops—The Neuse Highlands—A Works Board Free—Fishing.
Farms are in a fine condition, and progressing nicely with good seasons. Notwithstanding the dearth of flour nearly every farmer has a wheat crop in proportion to his other crops.

Mr. T. A. Whitfield is building a hotel about a half a mile above here at the 9th Spring.
The picnic season has opened in full bloom, have already had three or four picnics.

Yesterday being the 4th Sunday Mr. Petree preached a very able sermon at Piney Grove.

We had the pleasure of going to the Highlands of the Neuse last Sunday. It is about two miles above here and is generally known as Limestone because of the lime rock that abounds there. We think one would have to go to western North Carolina to see anything to surpass its beautiful scenery.

Mr. J. H. Fonville the hotel proprietor, has offered a works board free of charge to any man who will show him a place of equal population, where so many pretty young ladies and as many of them can be seen as can be found here on Sunday evenings. Remember this! young men.

It was rather an amusing sight to see, not being used to it, see the people at what they call skinning, that is, holding a large dip net behind a white, and thus entangled the fish. As large rock and shell as we ever saw were caught this way.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES.

Twelve Valuable Prizes, Including Five Scholarships to the Value of $350 Bestowed Upon Institute Pupils.

At 8 p. m., the teachers and pupils and a large number of the friends of the school assembled to witness the presentation of prizes.

The prize for the best paper on "History," given by Mr. Wm. H. Oliver, was won by Linville Hendren. This was a volume of poems. Mr. Oliver himself made the presentation in his address, the key note of which was "Learn Without Learning is Death."

Four of the prizes with a few appropriate remarks, were presented by Professor Hodges himself with timely, approving and encouraging remarks. These were the prizes for greatest improvement in penmanship during the term, given by Prof. Hodges, the one on best reading and the one for punctuality both of which were given by Mr. E. E. Harper; and the one for best composition given by Mr. C. L. Gaskill. A beautiful volume of Standard Poems of other valuable work was the prize in each instance.

The winner of the prize for improvement in penmanship was Miss Clara Green, youngest daughter of Mr. T. A. Green. Honorable mention was made of George Henderson, Jr., Lycurgus Cutler and Miss Sarah Meadows.

In the contest for the prize on best reading Master John Meadows and Miss Emma Patrik were so near equal that a prize was given each.

The prize for punctuality was won by Miss Bessie Parsons.

Harry Allen, with the subject "Agriculture," carried off the prize on composition. Honorable mention was made of the composition by Ernest H. Wood on "Electricity."

The gold medal for the best declamation, which was ably contested for Wednesday night, was won by Miss Hannah Goldstein, whose effort showed unmistakably that she possesses marked elocutionary ability. Her delivery was natural and the impression upon the audience was pleasing in a high degree.

The presentation of the medal was by Mr. C. L. Gaskill.

The judges as to declamation gave honorable mention to Bessie Williams, Emma Patrick and Bertha Tucker.

The prize for the greatest number of headmarks in spelling during the scholastic year, as previously announced, was won by Linville Hendren. The prize was a Webster's dictionary. The presentation was made by Mr. A. H. Powell.

Then came the most valuable prizes of all—five scholarships in different colleges, representing a cash value of $350.00. All the scholarships were given by Prof. Hodges.

The Eastman Business College scholarship, $25.00 was won by W. E. Ward, of South Carolina. This was for the best examination on commercial branches. The scholarship was presented by Rev. Rufus Ford.

The Trinity College scholarship, was for the young man making the second highest average for the scholastic year, in scholarship and deportment. John Meadows, son of J. A. Meadows, was the winner. It was presented by Rev. G. G. Hally.

The corresponding prize to this, a scholarship in Asheville Female College, to the young lady making the second highest average in scholarship and deportment was won by Miss Viola Provo, of Palo Alto. Rev. J. T. Lyon made the presentation.

The last two scholarships were the most valuable of all. The one to the young man making the highest average in scholarship and deportment was a scholarship, $75.00 in Washington and Lee University. This was won by Linville H. Hendren and was presented by John Stanly Thomas.

Last and most valuable of all was the scholarship $150.00 in Wesleyan Female Institute, Staunton, Va. This entitles the holder to one year's free tuition in English course, Latin, French, and German; in music, on piano, organ or guitar; and vocal music and art, in this standard institution of learning.

The presentation speeches were of about ten minutes in length, and were not only eloquent and entertaining but abounded in humor and were witty, soundly practical.

Thus ends the work of the New Berne Collegiate Institute for the scholastic year—now closed. In point of numbers attending the school has fallen short of what it should have been. In the character of the work performed, the high standard it has maintained should be a source of pride to all connected with the school and to the citizens of the town.

A party in the Institute building for the pupils will be held at 8 o'clock this evening, and this will be the last gathering.

Col. Geo. L. Cunningham, of Person county, is prominently spoken of as the Democratic nominee for Congress in the 5th District, to run against Thomas Settle, Republican, the present incumbent. Col. Cunningham is very popular among the farmers, is a large planter himself, and by what many properly he termed an "All-Range Democrat." In the full significance of the term, though possibly not Mr. Settle's equal as a speaker, he is a good workman and will keep Mr. Settle sufficiently anxious.

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.

At New Berne, N. C., on Memorial Day, 1894.

The number of persons originally buried in the Cemetery was 591, of whom 49 were soldiers of the "C. S. A." (17 North Carolinians, who were all removed and reinterred in Cedar Grove Cemetery.)

The principal places from which the greater number were removed for final sepulture here, are as below:—From Stanly Hospital, near the city 1966; from Cedar Grove Cemetery 145; from New Berne battle ground and vicinity 141; from Morehead City Cemetery and vicinity 288; from Beaufort Cemetery 221; from Roanoke Island 215; from other places near by 524.

These presents the true number of graves to be 3298. Of the occupants of these graves 2725 were white soldiers, 24 of whom were U. S. commissioned officers—427 were colored troops—130 were citizens—14 were women—2 were children.

Among those designated above as citizens, were clerks, telegraph operators, blacksmiths, carpenters, sutlers, teamsters, laborers, etc. To this list must be added the name of a patriotic citizen and eminent lawyer, Mr. R. F. Lehman, pensioner for whose burial here was secured through an Act of Congress; and that of Hon. David Heaton, who came from Iowa, and was sent to this State in the service of the Treasury Department, and afterward represented the 2d District in Congress. He died in 1879, and his burial was permitted here by reason of his connection during the war.

Our knowledge of the women whose bodies found sepulture here, extends only to a small number. One was the widow of Mr. Lehman, who for a few years survived him, and was laid to rest by his side, through permission of the War Department. A tall and handsome granite monument marks their resting place.

Another was the widow of Congressman Heaton, whose death occurred in Ohio, and who was placed here beside her husband, on a permit from the G. M. G. last October—the last interment. A beautiful marble monument indicates their place of burial. One other may be mentioned—a young lady from Massachusetts, the name of Carrie E. Cutter. She was betrothed to Charles E. Colgate, a member of the 25th Mass. Infantry, who fell at Round Bay, she was not seen after her death to visit his place of burial, having a pre-arrangement that she would not return, and leaving a request that in such an event she might be buried beside him. Overcome with grief, she fell lifeless upon his grave, and accordingly to her request the Sec. of War gave permission that she might be removed here with him. They rest side by side, under the shade of an elm, about midway from front to rear of the enclosure, next the northern wall. Her modest headstone numbered and lettered exactly like that of her lover.

The children buried here, are an infant son of one former Superintendent and an infant daughter of another.

The ground is laid off in sections of a size to contain each two hundred graves. In these sections the six Eastern States are all represented, the most numerous being Massachusetts, the number being 609, the latter by about 200. The Middle States are represented by N. Y., Pa., Md., and N. J., the first named occupying four sections, nearly 800; and the second about 200. No Southern State has representation except N. C. in those allotted sections are:—Ning, Ohio, N. Y., Ind., Ill., Mich., Wis., Minn., Ia., and Mo., have representation, but none of them to the number of 200, and most of many less, and some only a few. In one section the headstones are lettered "U. S. N.," and the numbers run to 178. In the sections lettered "U. S. C. T.," are, as already stated, 427.

Thus the buried ones are accredited to twenty states in which they enlisted, but every one who knows something of the roving character of our population, and the large foreign element embraced in it, will readily believe every state in the Union to be represented—and an apt Sup't. Shea suggests "every civilized country in the world."

Year by year as Spring returns to cover the earth with living green, and "Unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil," the thoughts of the people are turned to them anew. Though ever born, and to be borne, in perpetual remembrance, on the 30th of May, fixed most by suggestion on Gen. John A. Logan, Commander in Chief of the G. A. R., and constituted a National Holiday by Act of Congress, and christened "Decoration Day," we gather from city, and town, and village, and hamlet to do honor to the memory of our dead, and lay a tribute of gratitude and affection upon their low resting place.

"Then on their faces—so quiet,
Then on their brave hearts—at rest,
Then over hands folded over
Pulseless on soldierly breast."
"Scatter the reddest of roses,
Red was the blood which they gave,
Scatter the fairest of lilies,
Fair was their record, and brave."

And I would that this benison of flowers—bright symbols of the resurrection, in the sweet hope of which we lay our friends to rest, in sleep in dreamless slumber through the intervening years—strewn with tender devotion and watchful care upon the faces of our dead to-day, throughout so large a portion of the national domain, may, in unison with those so recently (10th) bestowed by other hands, on those who once in conflict with us, now sleep in perfect peace, cover and hide forever every vestige of hatred, and all feeling other than of kindness and good-will, that our common country, as a glorious heritage received from our fathers, may go forward in a career of honor and prosperity, till we in our turn shall leave it—unimpaired as to its institutions, and bright with the holy light of freedom—to those who shall come after us.

EDWARD BULL,
Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of John W. Etheridge, deceased, late of Craven county, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the last day of June, 1894, or this notice will be placed in box of recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.
W. B. BOYD,
Administrator.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The Bertie Register, a Third Party paper published at Alexander, Bertie county, has suspended publication.

Gen. Rorer's speech at Richmond on the 30th of May, was carefully and constructed. It is published elsewhere.

General Weaver was nominated for Congress by the North Carolina District Congressional Republican convention at Atlantic on the 29th.

Up to date, one-sixth of the force of the War Department has been disbanded. If the remainder can do the work, some body has laid an easy and gratifying time out.

St. Louis is to have an extraordinary strike if it is not in a large way. Some of the leading politicians of the West are here.

Boston, since the passing of John E. Russell, has been dropping back in the procession, but a great rally is expected and the spilling of blood will be the portion of the town to the 1st of August.

Charles H. Depue should add to the motto "The Sun shines for all" the motto of David Ben-Gurion "If he wishes to be truthful."
The Comptroller of the currency has declared the 4th of July to be a legal holiday, making a 50 per cent. discount provision.

That Senate which is now in session has shown a disposition to remove its responsibility and its work upon the new paper correspondents.

A government clerk at Washington, whose duty it was to supply copies of the demand he wanted to see printed, some. As long as the old money is in circulation his hands, and those of the government, are being filled with it. He will have more for anything more which he can get.

The 5 cent note which was issued by the Treasury Department in 1874, and which has greatly reduced in value, will be printed in 1894. In some instances the new 5 cent note will be printed, being 20 cents, 25 cents, 50 cents, 75 cents, and 1 dollar.

Given in the name and on behalf of the State of New York, the proposed tax will be substituted. If there is any objection, leaving the amount who would be liable, it is to avoid paying the tax, he should send his name and address to the office of the collector, that the transfer may be made to the tax collector's office.

Wednesday, the 30th of May, there was a serious accident on the Albany and Columbia branch of the South Western Railway near Mason, Ga., in which forty persons were injured severely. On some day there was an accident on the Wisconsin road between St. Paul and Milwaukee, in which 18 people were killed and a number of others seriously wounded.

The horrible plot of negro bands in Florida to outrage a number of white women, reported in yesterday's Journal is among the most cold blooded of these occurrences, which the papers chronicle almost every day. Even though the avowed negro is always quick to participate in the deed, the white abolitionist, brutalist, seems to be on the increase.
