

GOVERNOR TILLMAN ON LYNCHING.

He says he would lead a mob to lynch any man who had ravished either a white or black woman.

COLUMBIA, S. C. June 1.—In reply to Rev. J. J. Hall, of Norfolk, who writes of the slanders against the people of the South being circulated in England by a colored woman, Ida Weller, Governor Tillman wrote the following to-day. Mr. Hall wants to refute the slanders and Governor Tillman's position having been mentioned in the lectures, Mr. Hall wants his true position, in order to reply to the statement in the Christian World. The letter reads as follows: "Rev. J. J. Hall, Norfolk, Va. "MY DEAR SIR: In reply to your letter of May 24th I beg to say that I correctly reported to this extent:

"I said in my canvass two years ago, and I say now that, Governor as I am, I would lead a mob to lynch any man, white or black, who had ravished any woman, white or black.

"I send you a copy of my inaugural address, in which my views as to the sacred obligations of the white people of the South are under are set forth in full. I am on record as having asked the Legislature to give me power to remove any sheriff who allowed a prisoner to be lynched while in his custody.

"I have promptly ordered out the militia to protect prisoners whenever called on by sheriffs. I am opposed to lynch law for anything but rape. That is a crime which, in my opinion, places any man beyond the pale of the law; and puts him below the brutes. The Southern people are not blameless in dealing with the question of lynching, but all our lynchings are not of negroes, and but for the fact that every outbreak of the kind is used as a text by Republican newspapers to slander and misrepresent our people, they would excite no more comment than elsewhere in the United States. I think statistics will show that they occur as often in Western and Northern States as they do in the South.

[Signed] B. R. TILLMAN."

Another Foul Crime and the Usual Consequence.

HOMER, Tenn, June 1.—Yesterday a negro named Frank Ballard, 18 years old, assaulted Miss Birdie Thomas, a highly respected young lady, while she was returning home from a visit to a neighbor's.

The brute failed to accomplish his purpose, and being frightened by the girl's screams, he cut her throat. Just at this time and before he could complete his bloody work, someone appeared and he ran away, leaving the girl in a dying condition. The alarm was promptly given. Armed men took up the trail and ran the miscreant to earth this afternoon. Without wasting any time they hanged him to the limb of a tree and riddled his body with bullets.

It Baffles the Detectives.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 1.—The Detectives are baffled in their efforts to discover who threw the dynamite which partly wrecked E. J. Wall's house.

Every window in Wall's house and in the one adjoining occupied by Rev. Mr. Eakes, was shattered.

Wall says he has an idea as to the identity of his enemy, but refuses to say who it is.

No Sabbath.

Horace Greeley, when traveling in Switzerland some years before his death, wrote the following.

"I could wish you might stand an hour with me, on Sunday morning, in the labor market, in Geneva, and see the troops of dull, tired and saddened-looking laborers, unwashed from the grime and sweat of one week's work of seven days, trudging off sluggishly and wearily, like dumb, driven cattle, to the work of the next week of seven days. "Are these slaves?" you ask. Slaves! Bless you, no. These are free men. These are voters and citizens in a land of universal suffrage, under the freest government on earth, with an advanced and liberal constitution of the last French invention, and with the modern improvements. No blue laws here. They once had blue laws in Geneva, but the have laughed them down long ago.

This which you see is liberty—complete, untrammelled, personal liberty. Every one of these free citizens has a right to work on Sunday if he chooses, and that is what it ends in for him, and that is what it will end in for you if you choose to make the costly experiment. The workingman who may work on Sunday, has got to work on Sunday, when work is wanted. The right to work for each depends upon the law of rest for all.

Think of it, think twice, think of it again, then say if you will barter away your birthright, the American Sabbath, and the universal privilege of rich and poor, for this miserable French delusion, this continental holiday, through which half of the people have to toil that the other may frolic."—Reflector.
