The dog tax for this year has been fixed at the old rate, 50 cents for males and $1.00 for females.

The steamer Defiance and Neuse went off yesterday each loaded with truck to their utmost capacity.

A change has been made in the compensation of the City Marshal. Hereafter he is to receive $10.00 per month salary and half the costs.

Mr. H. V. Allen is putting in electric bells, encaustic tiles and speaking tubes, in Mr. O. H. Guion's future residence on Broad street.

A lawn party will be given by the members of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church on the Academy Green Friday night. Ice cream and other refreshments will be served.

By the new schedule of W. N. & N. R. R. mail from Wilmington is due to arrive here at 11 a. m. instead of at 12 m. An hour saved in time is an advantage to be appreciated. On the return trip the schedule is the same as heretofore.

There will be three Germans at the Atlantic hotel, Morehead City, next week, one on Tuesday, one on Thursday and one on Saturday nights. The one on Saturday is for the benefit of those from New Berne and other near places who find that the most convenient time to attend.

Rev. L. C. Vass, D.D. of Savannah is among those attending Davidson college commencement. His son Lachlan C. Vass, Jr., graduates at that institution this year. Lookie is expected to arrive in New Berne the last of this week for a visit to his relatives here before returning home.

Two new brick stores will soon occupy the site of those wooden ones on South Front street which has been used by Mr. P. M. Draney for many years. The old ones have been torn away and the new ones will be put up at once by Mr. L. H. Cutler. Mr. Draney will occupy one of them. He is now in an adjoining store.

Mr. B. L. Perry spent yesterday in the city. He informs us the visitors at Morehead are being daily augmented, and by the end of the week he expects a good crowd. Col. E. D. Hall of Wilmington, and Judge T. C. Fuller of the U. S. Circuit Court, Denver, Col., are among the late arrivals there. Col. Hall was among those who went down last night.

The signs across the sidewalks are being taken down in accord with the provisions of the ordinance. When the vote on the ordinance was taken, councilmen Ulrich and Crawford voted against it. Those who voted for it were Councilmen Lovick, Reizenstein, McCarthy and Clark. Councilmen Latham and Eubanks were absent.

Mr. Aiky is the extreme western terminus of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad, a beautiful and picturesque country with the magnificent Blue Ridge in view. The place is an object lesson of push and thrift and will be a revelation to those who taking advantage of the four dollar excursion on the 26th will visit it.

Options, each one good for a cake of "Hoe-cake" soap, were being freely distributed in the city yesterday by Messrs. B. O. Barnes and Fred Lawrence, of Washington City, representing the manufacturers, who take this method of conveying the entire public of its merits. They will place a thousand or more in the city, as they intend that every house, large or small, shall have one of the coupons.

WATER WORKS AND FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Reduced Expenses of the latter Will Nearly Pay the Rentals for the former.

At a recess meeting held yesterday and at the preceding regular meeting held a little previously, the city council took action on matters relative to the Fire Department which will reduce the expense of the Department about $3,000 per year. This they are enabled to do on account of the service rendered by the water works. The amount saved, it will be noticed, will lack only $700 of paying the water works rentals, and it is fully believed by those familiar with the workings of the department that if the little extra expenses which occasionally had to be met were counted, that the reduction in expenses would entirely offset the rentals.

Hereafter, when a fire alarm is sounded no engine will go out unless a general alarm is given, and then only one will go, and the engineers instead of being on a salary, will be paid only for the time they are actually at work.

The New Berne engine house will be dispensed with and the engine taken around to city headquarters. It is expected to place the hose carriage in some other part of the city to more widely distribute the protection.

There will also be three less horses to keep, and other things work in to count up on the saving.

Fred Douglass, col., Disbarred.

Special Pension Examiner stationed here, C. M. Gilpin, received instructions from the Bureau of Pensions in which he is instructed by Commissioner Wm. Lochren to notify pension agent Frederic Douglass, of New Berne, that he has been disbarred from practice in the Department of the Interior.

As we understand it, this action was the result of information furnished by examiner Gilpin, that said Douglass, col., had been charging his clients fees not allowed by law.

Mr. Gilpin, in a very quiet way, has done some good work since he has been here, both for the Department and the country, and it is expected this is but the beginning of wrong doings that he is getting testimony about.

Pollockville Academy Closing.

The closing exercises of Pollockville Academy were held this week.

The exercises by the scholars were held Tuesday night and were creditable to them and their teachers. They consisted of recitations, declamation and music both vocal and instrumental.

The address was delivered Wednesday morning by Gen'l Battle in his usual brilliant and happy vein which captivated and charmed the hearers.

The general spoke about three-quarters of an hour on faith, not as a religious dogma, but as a living principle. He spoke on the several divisions, faith in ourselves; in women in our fellowmen, our country and our God.

The attendance each time was good, and New Berne was fairly represented in both audiences.

Will be Married Tuesday.

Capt. W. S. Simmons, of the Revenue Cutter Winona left on the steamer Neuse yesterday for Moore, Pa., to be present at the marriage of his daughter, Miss Laura W. Simmons which takes place there next Tuesday the 19th inst. The groom is Mr. Fred V. Quackenbush, of Penn Yan, N. Y., whom the local paper of that place speaks of him as a very popular young man.

The amiable bride has many friends in New Berne whose benedictions follow her to her distant home.

Marriage at Free Will Baptist Church.

Mr. Emmett Williams, of the city, and Miss Georgiana Wetherington, of Tuscarora, were united in marriage last night at the Free Will Baptist church, Elder Wilson Lupton, the pastor, officiating. This was the first marriage ever held in that church, it being a new one. A goodly congregation was present and the ceremony passed off very pleasantly, the bridal couple receiving the congratulations of many friends when it was over.

New York Truck Quotations by Wire.

Messrs. Palmer Rivalanburg & Co., of New York, telegraphed the following quotations for that city last night.

Change of Schedule.

Commencing to-day June 13, a slight change of schedule goes into effect on the W. N. & N. R. R.

The freight train leaves Wilmington at 6 a. m., an hour earlier, and is due to arrive here at 11 a. m., on the return leaving here as usual at 3 p. m.

The passenger train leaves here at 8:45 a. m., five minutes later than the former schedule.

Coming and Going.

Miss Julia Thomas of Beaufort, is visiting Mrs. Ed. Perry.

Mrs. Frank Perry, of Wilmington, who came up from that city the previous night, left last night to visit relatives at her former home in Beaufort.

Miss Beulah Fodra, of Beaufort, arrived to visit friends in the city yesterday. She will leave in a few days for the North.

Mr. James C. Roberts, who has been spending a month or two visiting relatives in the city, left yesterday on the steamer Neuse for his home in Rico, Col. Mr. E. W. Rosenthal, brother of Mrs. M. M. Marks, arrived to make New Berne his future home. He takes a situation with O. Marks & Son.

Mr. Shade A. Bolding is in the city stopping at the Fulford House and representing the commission house of Bould & Ryan, Philadelphia. Mr. Bolding is a former New Bernian. He was one of the Academy school boys when Prof. Geo. W. Neal was principal. It has been about ten years since he was in the city before, but numbers of his old chums gladly recognize him and find him the same clever, companionable Shade of other days.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Henry, left to spend the summer with relatives in Brooklyn.

Mr. P. LaMontagne, left for New York on account of the death of his brother Mr. Albert L. LaMontagne. His wife accompanied him. Mr. LaMontagne will return very soon; his wife will remain for the summer.

A New Bern Wedding in the Last Century.

The following account of a wedding in New Bern a hundred years ago, with its description of quaint costumes and observances, and the spirit which seemed to characterize the prolonged festivities, will doubtless interest our readers—the younger members especially. We venture the statement that, if a wedding ceremony of to-day were had to the accompaniment of the fire of artillery, the bride and bridesmaids would be sadly demoralized, and might even beat a rapid retreat.

The participants in the merry making have long since passed away. Mrs. Attmore was the grandmother of Dr. Geo. Attmore of Pamlico; the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Carthy, were the parents of the late Mrs. Peter Cutler; Miss Batchelor was afterwards Mrs. Edward Graham, wife of "Counselor" Graham, who was the "Gentleman from New York," then recently settled in New Bern; Mr. Nash was the Hon. Frederick Nash, afterwards Chief Justice of the State; "Parson" Cutting was the Rev. Leonard Cutting, D. D., Rector of Christ Church. The house in which the wedding was celebrated, stood near the foot of Pollock street, and was destroyed in the great fire of 1842. It was a handsome residence, with spacious grounds, and the then rarity of a private fish pond.

"Copy of a letter written by Miss Annamaria Sitgreaves of New Bern, to her sister, Mrs. Attmore, then in Philadelphia, giving a description of the wedding of Miss Sarah Haslen, which occurred on Tuesday, December 8th, 1790 or 1791."

"A large company—the bride was dressed in white lustrous, the habit bound down the sides, with a high collar, and adorned with gauze, a small white chip hat lined with white, a large bow before. Miss Haslen and Miss Batchelor bridesmaids, both in white lustrous and elegant head-dresses,—Ned Kean and Dr. Cutting groomsmen. Old Parson Cutting married them. The handsomest wedding has been in New Bern since I can remember. Mamma, Sister, Brother and I were all there."

The vessel stood at the end of the house, illuminated with a great many candles, and looked very handsome. When the two tea-tables were drawn from the side of the room the guns fired; when the bride was led down stairs to be married the guns began to fire again and continued until they were married. Then we had tea, then danced until supper, then marched up stairs twice, and the drummer and fife playing at the door. A very elegant set supper: two large square cakes, one at the head, the other at the foot,—four pounds each. Mrs. Haslen at the head of the table, Parson Cutting at the foot. Mrs. Carthy at the right hand of her Mamma, Mr. Carthy (the groom) at the left. Our Mamma at the right hand of the Bride—the old lady and Bride insisted on it—Mrs. Cutting at the left of Mr. Carthy.

"As the Bride did not choose to walk a minute, Sister and Mrs. Haslen did. Mrs. Carthy and Dr. Cutting danced together. Mr. Carthy, the groom, and Miss Batchelor danced together. Mr. Kean and Miss Phoebe together. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday they danced at the Old Lady's, Friday at Mr. Tom Haslen's. I did not go Wednesday nor Thursday, but Friday they sent Mr. Nash and a carriage for me, so I went and passed the evening quite agreeably. Miss Haslen and Miss Batchelor sang, Mr. Haslen played on the flute until tea, then we danced. I danced with Mr. Graham that night, Tuesday night with Mr. Nash. This Mr. Graham is a gentleman from New York;—he danced so much like our dear brother Joey, and the Bride so like you that it made Mamma feel quite low spirited."

"The gentlemen had a relish on board the vessel Saturday;—guns were fired all that day,—our brother Joey danced better at the wedding than any one there except Mr. Graham and Mr. Haslen. He danced with the bride at Mr. Haslen's and they cut a most noble figure. I had the honor of dancing with Mr. Howe at the wedding. Miss Sally Vail's nephew, I dined at my brother's with Mr. and Mrs. Carthy, Mrs. Haslen, Miss Haslen, Miss Batchelor, Mr. Graham and Mr. Nash. The two young ladies sang. The Bride was dressed in her second day's suit,—the color a beautiful pink,—her wedding hat. The Old Lady a black satin habit and coat; Miss Batchelor a green Persian habit and coat; Sister a brown satin; I in my flowered muslin and pink coat."

"The Bride dined at her brother's first, then at Mr. Witherspoon's, then at Col. Williams. O my dear, how we all wished you to be at this wedding."

N. C. PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Opening of Their Session at Morganton—Hospitality Entertained by the Citizens.

Special to JOURNAL.]

MORGANTON, N. C. June 13.—The State Press Association met here to-day, and was called to order by vice President Burbank of the Winston-Town City Sentinel.

About fifty of the members were present at the roll call.

This is a beautiful city, situated at the foot of the Blue Ridge mountains, in view of a number of imposing picturesque mountain peaks.

The members of the Association were given a drive over the city this afternoon by the citizens.

To-night they will be given a reception by Mayor Pearson, and there will be a ball afterwards.

To-morrow the public Institutions will be visited, and at night a Banquet will be given the Editors.

They are being most hospitably entertained by the good people of Morganton, and are having a most pleasant time.

Petition.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of City Councilmen of the city of New Berne.

The undersigned would respectfully request that the ordinance in reference to signs across the sidewalk be so modified as to permit those already erected in accordance with former ordinances; provision being made for securing the safe fastening of the same by an inspection by properly authorized officers and that a special meeting be called to consider this petition.

The above petition was circulated yesterday exclusively among the business houses of the city.

The name of nearly every business man in the city whose business calls for a sign across the sidewalk is attached to the petition.

The number of the signatures is fifty-seven. This expression of sentiment against the ordinance is a strong one and should lead to its repeal. Making it a duty as it is, of some city employee to see at regular intervals of a few months, that all signs are securely fastened, will remedy whatever apprehension may be felt of their falling.

What Next?

First a big nonsensical scare about Mad Dogs! Who has seen a genuine case of rabies in the city of New Berne, and where was it known? Muzzle your dogs and make them run mad if you can. Now it's take down all of your signs. What next, gentlemen? We are ready to obey. S. B. W.

COVE CORRESPONDENCE.

Millinery Store Opened—Good Truck Shipments.

Miss Julia E. Charlton, our most efficient postmistress and school teacher is visiting her brother in New Berne this week.

We have recently had some additions to the commercial capacity of our little town. Miss Fannie Woolen, of near Fort Barwell, has opened a millinery store. We hope she will meet with sufficient success to justify her remaining with us. And I don't see why she should not, as there is not any other store of the kind here.

We had the largest shipment of potatoes to-day, (Tuesday) that we have had any day this season, about 700 bbls of potatoes, and 200 packages of beans. The average production of potatoes per acre is about 50 barrels. Some of our farmers dug part of their crop two weeks ago. Those they let remain until now they find to have about doubled in quantity and quality.

Mrs. Nena Kornegay, of Dover is visiting her sister Mrs. J. E. Waters.

Quite a number of our young ladies will attend the commencement exercises of Trenton High school this Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Hattie White is spending a few days in Beaufort visiting Mrs. G. W. Richardson. We regret Mr. Richardson's business was of such a nature as to cause him to move to Beaufort. "Ross" has many friends in Craven, and he is a Democrat of "first water."

Johnnie Charlton late of this place now in Beaufort is back visiting—we can not mention the name.

Liquor Dealers Convention at Wilmington.

For this occasion the W. N. & N. Ry., will sell round trip tickets, New Berne to Wilmington and return for $8.10. Tickets will be sold June 19th and 20th, good to return until June 23rd.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The sugar production of Louisiana has increased 86 per cent during the last five years.

France is said to be at the height of her power, so far as her war strength is concerned.

Justice White recently appointed to the supreme bench, was a judge in Louisiana at the age of 28.

No man will ever amount to much who labors under the impression that somebody else is always in his way.

It is difficult to make a hen-pecked husband or an unsuccessful lover believe that women are crushed down and kept out of their rights.

The North Carolina, and other Southern States white boys at Trinity college, Durham, let a western Indian walk away with them for the disclaimer's honor in the Sophomore Class. He took their ornamental scalp, and left their heads sore, and worst of all his name is Maytubby.

The Masons will celebrate St. John's day at Oxford, N. C., on the 22nd of this month. The Grand Lodge meets there at that time. The Oxford Orphan Asylum is situated at that place, and is the property of the Masons of North Carolina. This ought to be the rallying ground for Masonry in the State. They ought to be fully acquainted with their property—see how it is being conducted and what it is doing. The Orphan Asylum is one of the greatest factors in the State to do good in the best way, to those who without its beneficent influence, would bring dishonor instead of credit.

"Abandon all hope ye who enter here."

This should be the motto of some Clothing shops. When you enter some you "abandon all hope" of getting your money's worth, or if you are not fitted or dissatisfied you can "abandon all hope" of getting them exchanged or of getting your money back. We don't do business that way. Our plan is to try and give you your dollars worth and any garment that is not satisfactory can be exchanged or the money refunded if brought back within a reasonable time, only.
