LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Howard, W. N. & N. Ry. Co. operates. Sam'l. Cohn & Son—Fine Veal.

More good rains yesterday and we believe they have been general, which is enough for all present purposes.

Quite a number of New Berne people staying at Morehead, came up to spend the day yesterday.

Good rains all over this section again yesterday, has made corn, cotton and other vegetation wear a healthy appearance. The number of citizens all at Morehead and on the Mount Airy excursion is large enough to give New Berne a homesome appearance the past few days.

Advertisers are again requested to bring in changes early in the morning if they wish them to come out on the following day. This has always been our custom and we cannot guarantee their appearance when not complied with.

Private telegrams from the Republican convention of the third district held yesterday are vague and indefinite. From best information attainable it appears that Cheat-ham got the nomination for Congress and that White's friend is the response to that.

By request of citizens another excursion will be run over the A. & N. C. R. Sunday to Morehead. It will leave New Berne at half past eight o'clock and arrive at Morehead at 9:55. Returning it will leave at eight o'clock. Fare for the round trip when tickets are purchased is $1.00.

Fishing on the Neuse.

Almost at our very doors there is sport alive for all who take to the fishing rod. Early yesterday morning there could be seen a fleet of ten or twelve boats sailing into harbor laden with great heaps of the flabby tripe that had been pulled in with hook and line.

They were principally croakers—big fellows that swung heavily before yielding up their home in the watery deep.

The place where they bite most freely is only about four miles below the city, and when they begin to snap at the hook in earnest the fun begins and it is only a short time before you have all the fish you want.

For good fishing and hunting our waters and lands are the places.

New York Truck Questions by Wire. Messrs. Palmer Rivalton & Co., of New York, telegraphed the following quotations for that city last night.

Flour, will goose, 40c @ 50c. per bushel; Blackberries, 4c @ 7c. per quart; Potatoes, rose, $1.25 @ $1.75. Chill reds, $1.25 @ $1.37.

To the Democratic Voters of Jones County.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive committee of Jones county, held in Trenton, June 25th. It was ordered that the primary conventions will be held at each voting precinct in the county on Saturday July 7th for the purpose of electing Township executive committees and delegates to the County Convention to be held at Trenton July 14th. Let every Democrat be present at his primary convention. T. C. WHITAKER, Chairman, Dem. Ex. Com. Jones Co.

Weak, nursing mothers gain strength and flesh using Johnson's Compound Cod Liver Oil. Rich in fish-liver, pleasant to take and easily digested, giving strength to mother and child.

AT MOREHEAD.

The Sea-Side Social and Political Mecca of North Carolina—The Teachers' Assembly. (Special Correspondent JOURNAL.)

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., June 28. Nothing of special interest has transpired here today. The crowd is large, and are having a fine and very good time, unhampered by useless conventionalities.

The election of officers of the Teachers' Assembly will be held to-morrow.

The Fayetteville Academy band will be here until Monday. May, Yeres, the superintendent of the academy, who came with them, left for his home this morning.

The boatman did a good business yesterday, many of the guests going out for a fish and a sail. The fishing, while possibly not so good as last week, is fair, and a good many Spanish Mackerel and bluefish were caught yesterday.

In the ball room last night the young people were having their usual good time. There is a sameness about all dances, but that does not interfere with their pleasantness at Morehead.

Among the most noted of those now here possibly Colonel Jno. C. Scarborough and Harry Skinner are receiving most attention. The personal of both is strikingly pleasant, and merited count is paid them.

The day and night sessions of the Teachers' Assembly, in Assembly Hall, yesterday were pleasant and instructive, and were moderately well attended.

Coming and Going.

Miss May Hendren went down to Morehead last night to lend additional lustre to the New Berne people already there.

Misses Kate and Mary Boggs, of Catherine Lake, came up from Morehead yesterday morning and returned to their home at Jacksonville.

Mr. R. P. Hanton of Jacksonville was among the passengers from Morehead yesterday returning home.

Capt. Roe and Mr. E. M. Koonce, of Jacksonville spent yesterday in the city on their return from the sea side.

Prof. Joseph Kinsey, principal of the La Grange Female Seminary, is in the city on his way to York where he is to deliver a masonic address. Prof. Kinsey has a fine school, and he is one of the very best educators in the State.

Mr. J. A. Crews of the Wilmington Messenger passed through en route to Morehead City.

Dr. Geo. Blackhall, of Raleigh, who has gained so enviable reputation with the public for his happy manner of introducing people, went down to Morehead last night.

Prof. G. T. Farnold, principal of Fayetteville Academy, passed the city with his presence yesterday. He will have this morning to spend some weeks drinking the pleasant and health-giving waters of Seven Springs.

Hal Ayer, secretary and general boss of the North Carolina Agricultural Association went down to Morehead last night, where he is a general favorite.

That affable gentleman who has been so popular with the elite who yearly congregate at Morehead, Mr. J. E. Halley, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, spent yesterday in the city, and went down to Morehead last night for a few days stay.

Mr. Fred J. Mabon, of the Melhin Printing Company, New York, has been a visitor in New Berne for two days.

Dr. E. H. Goldberg, accompanied by his mother and sister, went down to Morehead last night.

Mrs. M. M. Marks left for Morehead City last night.

Mr. Mortie Marks arrived from Kinross last night.

Mr. J. W. Stewart returned from the West on a pleasure trip.

Mr. J. O. Royall arrived from Goldsboro on a visit to his parents.

Captain W. W. Carraway, the big-hearted, six-foot representative of the Richmond Dispatch is in the city to the gratification of his many friends here.

Hotel Albert arrivals—G. B. Swift, Balto.; J. D. Bell, N. C.; T. B. Mearns, N. C.; R. A. Page, Richmond, Va.; Jos. Kinsey, La Grange, D. Ballinberger, Goldsboro.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The State Railway Commission has increased the valuation of railroad property $500,000.

It is presumed the law is carried out in Montgomery county. They are to hang eight men there during July, apart from any accidental lynching there may be occasion for.

Santo, the murderer of the French President, has a brother living in America. He left his home at Stamford, Conn., for France immediately on receipt of the news.

Outrages upon females seem to be epidemic. Telegrams daily give accounts of these frightful occurrences all over the country, and the patriot in sack cloth and ashes, and in the bitterness of his soul cries out, "Oh! my Country! What times and what customs!"

The French Chamber of Deputies on Wednesday, elected Cassimir Perier President of the Republic of France to succeed the assassinated and lamented Carnot. The French are an excitable but generous and chivalric people whose kindness to this country has been indignantly appreciated. She is entitled to our sympathy and respect under any and all circumstances.

Druggists will tell you that Johnson's Magnetic Oil always gives satisfaction and is the cheapest. $1.00 size 50 cts.; 50 cts. size 25 cts.

ARRIVAL AT MT. AIRY.

Two Hundred Excursionists at this Beautiful Mountain Town. Mt. Airy, N. C., June 27th.

Excursion train arrived on time last night with 200 excursionists, 70 of them from New Berne. All heard from are delighted.

Yesterday was a day of constant travel for 12 hours. Local showers morning and afternoon made travel pleasant when they came, but during the day we passed over a portion of the route not so favored and it was dry, hot and dusty.

There was just enough rain here yesterday to make things in best possible condition for to-day and it is cool, pleasant and delightful in every way.

Mt. Airy is a pleasant little town of between 1,700 and 1,800 inhabitants. The town itself is 1,500 feet above the sea level and is half a mile from the mountains, about twelve miles distant.

The buildings are of good class, numbers of them of brick, and there appears to be more prosperity and better accommodations and conveniences than one would expect from a place of its size. The residences all have good sized lots when makes the town spread out and adds much to its beauty.

The Centro Inn, the new and leading hotel, kept by Mr. G. W. Bryan, formerly of Wilmington, is a beautiful and substantial brick structure setting well back from the street on a bluff known as Centro Heights and is surrounded by eleven acres of land connected with it laid out in lawn and a fine oak grove. The cupola overlooking it gives a commanding view of the country on every side, the Blue Ridge mountains to the north and west, Pilot mountains to the south and hills on every side. The inn, with its sixty rooms and accommodation for a hundred guests was filled last night and the two other boarding houses were also well supplied.

Vehicles are now standing all around to take visitors to the places of interest. We visit today Mitchell's Peak, the Devil's Den and Fancy Gap. This carries us for several miles into Virginia. The trip takes up the whole day.

CONTINUE TO PAINT UP.

It Not Only Improves in Looks But Greatly Enhances the Value of Property.

The National Bank, which has just undergone a thorough repainting on the exterior, now presents one of the handsomest appearances of any of the business houses in the city. It is finished up in light buff or drab with dark green trimmings and shows up beautifully, especially from across the street where a full view can be obtained.

In other portions of the city there is considerable painting going on but nothing like what should be. The cost is not so great when the preservative qualities of paint are considered.

Every year shows New Berne to a better advantage in business circles as well as looks, but there yet remains a few old places that are really an eyesore, and they are especially so where located on the principle streets or near any good building. They mar and detract to such an extent that the better class of houses are made to appear at a great disadvantage. The owners should either tear them up or sell out to somebody that will.

There stands today some of the most hideous structures right in the best parts of the city and it is an imposition upon the public at large to suffer this injury.

New Berne to Wilmington, N. C.—Special Rates 4th of July.

The W. N. & N. Ry. will sell a round trip ticket from New Berne to Wilmington and return July 4th, good until July 5th inclusive, for $3.10.

J. W. MARVENIS, T. M.

49TH DIVIDEND

The National Bank of New Berne. June 26th, 1894.

The Board of Directors of this Bank have this day declared a semi-annual dividend of 1 per cent free of tax from the earnings of the past six months, payable on and after July 10th, 1894.

G. H. ROBERTS, Cashier.

DR. J. A. GUION.

Sketch of His Life—His Ancestry, for 200 Years Historical Matters Connected Therewith.

Dr. J. A. Guion, N. C., on Wednesday, the 14th day of March, 1894, John Amos Guion, M. D., in the 78th year of his age.

Scarcely from among us into the rest of life, a gentleman, upright, honorable and just, cultivated and accomplished, a citizen of unselfish, prominent and of good report, the last of a family of three brothers, and of three brothers and two sisters of the half blood, who reached the years of manhood and womanhood, a family of distinguished lineage, members of which have been eminent as citizens of New Berne, and elsewhere in North Carolina, for more than a century. It was a pathetic incident that the day of his death was also the 51st anniversary of the marriage of Dr. John A. Guion.

The first of the name of Guion, which in time past was sometimes spelled Guyon of whom we have knowledge, was Louis Guion, a Huguenot refugee, who died, with so many others of his faith, from La Rochelle in France, to escape persecution on account of religion, about the year 1774. La Rochelle was a stronghold and one of the chief cities of the Huguenots. Beautifully situated in the Southwest of France, its history—especially during the time of the so-called religious wars in France, extending with short intervals of peace, over a period of more than a hundred years (1560-1685), is full of interest. In the 17th Century it was besieged by an army of the famous Cardinal Richelieu, and succumbed only after a most heroic defense by its inhabitants.

Louis Guion went first to England with his family, coming afterwards to America, where he arrived in 1687, and settled in New Rochelle, Westchester county, New York. New Rochelle, named in honor of the old home in France, was for many years the principal settlement of the Huguenots in our Northern States. It is the birth-place of many distinguished men, among others of John Jay, at one time President of the Continental Congress, and the first Chief Justice of the United States under the Constitution.

Isaac Guion, son of Louis is said to have been born during the voyage to America, but more probably was born at New Rochelle in 1692. He died at New Rochelle in 1766. His son Isaac (2d) was born at New Rochelle in 1729 and died there in 1784. This Isaac had a son, also Isaac, the grand-father of Dr. John A. Guion, who was born in New Rochelle in March, 1749; he it was, the first of the name who came to North Carolina, where he established himself in the practice of medicine. He married Ferbebe Pugh Williams, who was born at Fort Barnwell in Craven County, 26th of May, 1747. At the time of this marriage she was a widow, Mrs. Lee, and one of her daughters, Nellie Lee, became the wife of John Haywood, Treasurer of the State from 1787 to 1827. Sarah Lee Haywood died in February, 1791, and lies buried in the church yard of Christ Church, New Berne, where was the main aisle of the old Church of Colonial days.

Isaac Guion settled first on White Oak river in Onslow county, from whence he removed with his wife to New Berne. By this marriage there were five children, of whom two, Isaac Lee and Elizabeth Pugh (Mrs. Francis Hawks) were born in Onslow county, and three were natives of New Berne, viz: Ann Maria (Mrs. Hugh Jones), John Williams, the father of Dr. John A. Guion, and Margaret Sarah (Mrs. Andrew Scott).

Isaac Guion with Edward Starkey, and others, represented the county of Onslow in the Provincial Congress that met in Hillsboro, the 21st of August, 1775. This Congress made active preparation for the war of the Revolution, then just at its beginning, and organized the first Continental troops of the North Carolina line, to the 1st Regiment of which (Col. James Moore) Isaac Guion was appointed Surgeon, his commission bearing date 1st September, 1775. On the 11th of December, 1775, he was appointed Commissary of the 9th Regiment of Continentals, of which his relative, John Pugh Williams, was Colonel, and in March, 1777, he was transferred to the 7th Regiment, (Colonel James Hogue), as Paymaster, in which capacity he served until July, 1778, when the regiments of the North Carolina Line were reduced in number and consolidated. It is worthy of note that his cousin of the same name, Isaac Guion of the New Rochelle family, also served as a Continental officer, having been in the New York Line throughout the war of our Revolution, and afterwards in the United States Army.

The Provincial Congress of August, 1775, of which Isaac Guion was a member, was a very able body, and one that legislated wisely and well in very troublous times. Against it Guy, Josiah Martin, from his safe retreat on board the man-of-war "Cruizer," in the Cape Fear River, fulminated his wrathful proclamation of August 8th, 1775, in which he forbade the assembling of the Congress, and denounced it as "one of the black artifices of falsehood and sedition." The Congress returned the compliment by ordering the document to be burned by the public hangman, styling it "a false, scurrilous, malicious and seditious libel."

Gov. Martin was much exercised, too, about this time, on account of the actions of the citizens of New Berne, and in the same proclamation complains of "treasonable proceedings, of an infamous Committee at New Berne, at the head of a body of armed men, in seizing and carrying off six pieces of artillery, the property of the King, that lay behind the Palace at that place, repeated insults and violence offered to His Majesty's Subjects, by these little tyrannical and arbitrary Combinations."

Towards the end of the Revolution Isaac Guion settled in New Berne. In 1789, by act of Assembly, he was appointed a Vestryman—Church warden as he is called in the Act (Chap. 32)—of Christ Church, with Richard Dobbs Spaight, Major John Daves and six others and in the years 1793 and 1795 he represented the town, then entitled to borough representation—in the General Assembly.

In May, 1803, Isaac Guion died, in the 64th year of his age—his wife, Ferbebe, surviving him until February 10th, 1811, when she died in her 65th year. John Williams Guion, father of Dr. J. A. Guion.
