LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Shaw & Beasley—Plumbing, etc. B. B. Davenport—For Rent. La Fayette Military School, Fayetteville.

Don't forget the lawn party to-night. The heaviest rain we have had this year fell yesterday. 2.92 inches fell in three hours.

The medical college is holding an adjourned meeting at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, to receive applicants.

The Sunday school of Concord church will have a picnic on Saturday of this week. Rev. H. W. Winfield of New Berne will deliver the address.

If the weather is favorable tonight the King's Daughters will give a lawn party on the Academy green. Refreshments will be served.

Master Alex. Cooper son of D. T. Cooper, of Henderson fell from his bicycle and broke his leg at the hip joint Saturday afternoon.

The usual service at the Episcopal church will be held at 9:15 this morning instead of at 10 as announced on Sunday. As announced elsewhere the expected ordination has been postponed.

Sunday lightning struck the Goldboro cotton storage warehouse setting it on fire. A section of the warehouse was badly damaged and 340 bales of cotton badly burned. 100 bales of the cotton were insured.

The Naval Reserves got into it sure enough last night. That double-quickening is a big success in raising the perspiration. Lieut. Clark has found the key-note when he decided that it takes work to make efficiency.

Mr. J. T. Lee, who has been in the city a week introducing Lightning Grease Emmer, a preparation put up in Wilson, N. C., has established an agency for it at Col. J. V. Jordan's. Mr. Lee works Morehead City next.

The first number of the Evening Star of Wilson has reached us. Mr. Ed. Stallings, brother of our townman Mr. Willie Stallings as the business manager, and S. H. Peacock local editor. Their first issue indicates that they will get out an interesting paper. The items are well gotten up and the clippings are well selected.

The State Naval Battalion will go on its annual cruise about August 11th, to continue a week or ten days. Lieut. Francis Winslow of this city, commanding officer of the Battalion, is making arrangements for an interesting event, and the boys may expect an enjoyable occasion.

The Wayne county Democratic convention was largely attended last Saturday. There was a good deal of enthusiasm and all seemed hopeful of the election this fall. Delegates were appointed to the State, Judicial and Congressional conventions. The convention was a unit for Hon. W. B. Allen for Judge and Solicitor for collector again and so instructed the delegates.

The carpenter who were injured by a scaffold falling with them while at work on Mr. W. H. Gulon's new house last week are getting on pretty well now. Mr. Jones who had two ribs broken is improving, and Mr. Hubank, who received a fracture involving the ankle, is able to begin getting about on crutches. Mr. Hamilton who was only slightly injured is back at work.

Lawn Party. The King's Daughters will give a lawn party tonight on the Academy green if the weather is favorable. Refreshments will be served from 8 to 11 p. m., and everything possible done for the pleasure of those who attend. The public is cordially invited to attend and aid in a worthy cause.

Correction. In our notice in yesterday's issue of "North Carolina's First Printer," it should have been stated that it was John Davis, not William, "who suffered a cruel death on board a British war vessel." His name is properly given in the article in a former issue referred to. Miss Ward of Wilmington, wife of Col. William Davis, was a sister of Mrs. John Frink Smith of New Bern, not of Mr. Smith.

Heavy Water Melons. Mr. Chas. Bray, who had the finest water melons that came to the market last year, is taking the lead again this year. He was up with over a hundred yesterday which he sold to Mr. R. H. Scott. The heaviest of those weighed 65 pounds.

Last year he gathered five from one hill at one time, the heaviest of which weighed 60 1/2 pounds, and the lightest 59 1/2. He had one that weighed 72 1/2 pounds. He has some growing now that he expects to beat any above mentioned. In about two weeks more he will have some weighing at least 75 pounds.

The Jacksonville Explosion. The names of the three colored men who were killed in Jacksonville were Ed Johnson, Sherman Edmonson and Terry McCann. There are hopes of recovery for the fourth man Augustus Diamond, though he is terribly bruised and scalded and may not survive. The Messenger says the boiler in its flight went through the planing mill, over four dwelling houses and into the woods about 500 yards away.

Fire succeeding the explosion would have totally destroyed the mill but for the automatic fire extinguishing sprinklers with which the plant was equipped. A gentleman familiar with saw mills, who came up yesterday after viewing the wreck, in words that he thinks the loss will run close to ten thousand dollars. If the explosion had occurred in the day time when the mill was running the loss of life would have been appalling.

A Citizen of Jones—Not Craven. Mr. P. M. Pearsall, of the law firm of Simmons, Gibbs & Pearsall in this city, saw a JOURNAL reporter yesterday and stated that while he was in New Berne most of the time that Jones county was still the place of his legal residence, and in that county he exercised the usual rights of citizenship, such as voting, etc. That last Saturday he was out at Trenton at the county convention of Jones on that day. He also states that he feels honored at being selected as a delegate from Craven to the State and Judicial conventions, and he thinks the convention probably would not have done so if he had known that he still retains his residence in Jones county. He lived in Jones for 19 years and prefers to still keep his domicile out there.

Mr. Pearsall reports the outlook for Democracy out in Jones county to be very good and very confidently expects to elect the whole ticket in that county this year.

Craven Circuit Sunday School Conference.

The Craven Circuit S. S. Conference, held its annual session at Asbury church, Core Creek, July 13, 1894.

For a busy season, the attendance was quite good. Eight Sunday schools were represented either by delegates or written reports. W. B. Pearce, president of the conference, called the meeting to order. Devotional services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Ormond. Sheriff W. B. Lane, our congenial Sunday school worker and steward at Asbury, extended warm and appropriate words of welcome, to which the president responded earnestly and heartily. After which a few hours were spent hearing reports from schools and discussing methods and plans for successful Sunday school work.

Reports showed about 200 children enrolled with about 40 teachers. Quite an army for the extent of territory embraced, and the most important army yet enrolled in any cause. The attendance is not so good as it should be, averaging about 70 per cent of those enrolled.

About one o'clock conference adjourned for dinner, which was bountifully provided on the grounds by the neighbors about Asbury. After dinner, conference resumed its work and elected delegates to the district conference to convene at Trenton early in August. They elected officers for the ensuing year. O. H. Wetherington was elected president, J. H. Stevenson, vice president. Conference adjourned about 4 p. m., with song 918. D. LANE, Sec'y.

Rev. J. B. Jones of Yesterlyville preached a very able sermon at the Church of Christ Sunday from Paulina. It was a plain and practical discourse and filled with valuable truths. Mr. Jones is a young man, having been in the ministry only about two years. During that time he has met with very flattering success, and show a natural adaptation to evangelistic work, which he will most probably pursue.

Dr. Long's Ordination Postponed. The ordination of Dr. T. B. Long had been postponed until after the 1st of November. T. M. N. GOSMAN.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

The Duties and Pleasures—The Grounds and Arrangements—Their Excellence.

The encampment is going on successfully, and pleasantly. The men appear highly pleased both with grounds and surroundings.

The following are the hours for duties and calls that are being observed: Reveille first call, 5:15 a. m.; assembly 5:30; a. m.; drill, 5:40; assembly, 5:45; reveille, 6:50; mass, 7:10; fatigue, 7:40; sick 7:40; guard mounting, 8:45; assembly 9 a. m.

Mass, 1 p. m.; drill, 4:30; assembly, 4:45; recall 6; dress parade, first call; 6:20 assembly, 6:30; tattoo, 9; taps, 11 p. m. It will thus be seen that the time of the men is well filled in, but there is time for both duty and enjoyment.

Trains at 7 and 10 a. m. and 3:30, 6, 8, 10 and 11:30 p. m., at 5 cents each way given plenty of communication between the hotels and the grounds and add to the pleasure of both the troops and the visitors and citizens of Morehead.

About 550 soldiers are at the encampment. It began with about that number, and since then some of the first to arrive have gone away and some new ones have come in so that an average has been maintained throughout the times.

The troops are provided for in three hundred and ninety-two good and orderly arranged tents, the regular run of them being designed for two men each. They are arranged in streets; each company has its street and each street is named accordingly.

Adjutant General Cameron and the other head officers have their quarters along the shore a little to one side in good view of the drilling ground.

From two flag poles before the Adjutant General's tent flaps the flag of the Union and our State flag rivals in beauty. The latter was designed by General Cameron and is very similar to the old State flag of North Carolina in Confederate days.

General Johnson Jones introduced the bill for its adoption in the legislature showing the flag as he did so. There were enough old soldiers in the legislature then to recognize the resemblance and adopt it with enthusiasm.

At the firing of the New Berne Naval Reserve cannon, also in front of Gen'l. Cameron's tent—these flags, bright emblem of our State and country, "rise with the rising and fall with the setting of the sun."

The adaptiveness of the encampment grounds to their purpose is a matter of frequent favorable comment. The ground is on an elevation and ranges right along the sound, and so little space is there between the sound and the rail road that the tents reach from the sound about half way to the latter.

The portion where the tents are shaded by the forest trees, all undergrowth and superfluous trees having been removed, and a wide clear space alongside the camping ground gives a fine drilling ground.

Driven pumps over the grounds supply plenty of drinking water, and the sound at the grounds, and the surf, reached by a very short sail gives all the bathing facilities wanted.

The waters also furnishes of their products for the table, as do also truck farms around. Each regiment has its building for dining purposes and cook rooms near.

The camp is a pleasant place; its praises are on the lips of the troops and of the visitors. The desire to make it the State's permanent camping grounds is growing. "So mote it be."

New York Truck Quotations by Wire.

Messrs. Palmer Rivenburg & Co., of New York, telegraphed the following quotations for that city last night.

Potatoes, $1.00 @ $1.25; Muskmelons, $1.00 @ $1.50, baskets 50 @ $1.00.

A special from New York to the Washington Post tells that ere long a move, which is now on foot but has heretofore been kept rather quiet, will be developed looking to the nomination of a Lincoln and Grant ticket in 1896. Ex-Minister Robert Lincoln being the one proposed for the Presidency and Col. Fred D. Grant for Vice President. Young Grant, who is now a little older than his father was at the time he was in command of the union forces, is said to bear a striking resemblance to him. Much is counted upon from the sentimental strength of the ticket. In the meantime it is said there is a probability of Col. Grant's being made the Republican nominee for Governor of New York.

Coming and Going.

Mrs. Sarah K. Hollister, Misses Janet and Sadie Hollister, Miss Mary C. Slover and Miss Mary Gulon left yesterday to spend the summer at Blowing Rock.

Mrs. Howell left to visit relatives in LaGrange.

Rev. G. G. Harley, left for Asheville, to spend about a month; his wife is already there.

Dr. Cyrus Thompson, who came in the day before from Jacksonville where the Third Party convention was being held left yesterday to speak in Alamance county.

Mr. Fred Mhlar who has been spending a few days in the city on business, left for his home, the National Soldiers home of Virginia.

Mr. W. T. Caho returned last night from a business trip.

Miss Alice Smith returned from a visit to friends at Kinston.

Rev. J. W. Mac Namara of Virginia, will conduct the service at the Church of Christ to-morrow night, with a probability of remaining awhile in the city and carrying on a series of meetings.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association will be held at Asheville on the third of September.

When a man asserts that all men are rascals at heart, you may be certain that there is at least one who is a rascal at heart.

It appears from their platform that the Kansas Democrats are still in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and Grovet Cleveland.

A Georgia couple have just been remarried after being divorced twenty-eight years, at the home of a daughter who never saw her father till the day after the second wedding.

No man knows how many friends he has until he is named for a public office, nor the number of his enemies until the votes are counted.

Monday an artillery caisson belonging to a Hotchkiss gun while being moved in Chicago exploded and killed three men outright, fatally injured another, and a number of persons were more or less seriously hurt. Seven horses were killed.

The 192 cartridges in the chest contained 495 pounds of powder. The men were totally blown to pieces. Four of the horses drawing the caisson fell in their tracks, shot through and horribly mangled and three others were blown fifty feet ahead against the trees on the boulevard.

The railroad people and other losers by the strike are beginning to count up their losses and find them appalling. The data are not sufficient as yet to give accurate reports but indications are that the losses of the railroads will foot up from five to eight million dollars. One instance will show the trouble of getting full reports—when the six hundred Pan Handle cars were burned in one blaze, ninety-eight of them were to have been loaded. It will be necessary to learn from shipper's invoices what those cars contained before estimates can be made. It is considered that the loss of commission men will be a million and a half dollars or more. They are making claims against the railroads, and counsel for some of the railroads are drawing up claims for financial redress against the county of Cook and the city of Chicago.
