Henny showed the editor two large holls of cotton, one of which was grown and informed him that the prospect was good for a big crop, and it also mentions that W. B. House has a turkey hen which has laid 134 eggs since February 1st, which he thinks beats the record.
State Superintendent of Public Instruction John C. Scarborough, states that nine children out of every ten never attend any private school but are dependent upon the public schools for their education. This shows the need of making the schools as good as and as plentiful as possible and of retarding the time of the school term to as long a period as can be done.
From Monday, July 30th, to August 31st inclusive, Prof. J. Y. Joyner of the Normal and Industrial school, Greensboro, will hold a teacher's institute at Kinston for the public school teachers of Lenoir county. HOT TUBS IN SENATE.
The Members Lost Their Tempers Over the Tariff Bill—The Body Adjourns Because of It.
Special to JOURNAL.
WASHINGTON CRT., July 20.—There was a big fight in the Senate today over the tariff bill; Hill, Voss, and others spoke with much temper.
The Senate adjourned over until Monday to give time for the excited passions to cool off and in order also that the people might be heard from on the question.
Unless there is a pressure brought to bear by the people there is no telling now when the tariff bill will be passed.

At the Y. M. C. A. Hall.
A very enjoyable evening was passed at the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday and the entertainment was largely attended.
The following is the programme rendered:
Orchestra.
Solo—Miss Roberts.
Instrumental Duet—Misses Hughes and Whitford.
Solo with flute—Mrs. Hill and Mr. Nunn.
Orchestra.
Solo—Mr. Stallings.
Recitation—Miss Gray. "The Gambler's Wife."
Male Quartette—Messrs. Stallings, Harper, Clark and Hartfield.
Solo—Mrs. Hill.
Orchestra.
Every rendition was fine but we will refer to the two of those who participated, Mrs. Hill, of Wilson, and Miss Gray, of Washington City.
Mrs. Hill's rendition all with her remarkable fine vocal powers and their perfect culture. Her voice is exceptionally pleasing and she executes the most difficult notes with ease, apparently without effort. She was warmly applauded.
Miss Gray, for one so young, is a singer of more than usual ability. Her rendition is distinct, and her emphasis well placed. She shows plainly that she knows not simply the words but the meaning of what she recites. She certainly puts herself right in the place of the character she impersonates and should she choose to make a specialty of dramatic recitation she could easily take a leading role.

THE FIRST IN NEW BERNE.
The Journal Office Takes the Lead in Utilizing Water Power.
Little but loud was the exclamation when water was turned on the little giant Pelton water motor yesterday to drive the power press on which the JOURNAL is printed.
The little thing, all told, is no larger than a dude's hat, but when the water is turned on the miniature being of iron and steel goes humming and the big press begins to revolve and shuffles off at a rapid pace, turning the papers out as fast as a boy can feed them.
The motor was put in and fitted to the press yesterday in a very few hours by our young townsmen, Mr. C. B. Foy, business manager of the Water Works Co.
When taken from the box in which it was shipped, it had more of the appearance of a toy than a piece of practical machinery, but to prove its merit Mr. Foy offered to apply it to the JOURNAL printing press and trust to results. With all confidence in his mechanical ingenuity he took hold of the job and, contrary to all expectations, it was put up, connected with the water works, and put in operation by noon. Its performance was as steady and near perfect as could be desired.
A number of our business men called around to witness its running, and they pronounced it a success.

Report Neglect of Our Carriers When Sued of It.
Whenever one of our carriers fails to give satisfaction to one of our subscribers we wish to know, that the fault may be remedied. We wish every subscriber to get every paper he pays for and to have it left, if possible, just where he wants it and as early as he wants it. So if there is ever any real cause for complaint let us know for we are more anxious to remedy any laxness in this line than even the subscriber himself.
But on the other hand, we would ask each one when he thinks he has cause for complaint to first investigate at home and see if the failure to get the paper when and where he wants it, is not due to some member of his family's having it; some servant's placing it elsewhere than where he expects to find it, to some neighbor's borrowing or some similar cause.
We will cite two cases that have recently happened which show the need for this. One gentleman whose people are away, told us of a failure to receive his paper. By chance the carrier was seen to have left it and was consequently vindicated from this supposed neglect of duty. The gentleman being questioned, admitted there was a servant about. He did not intend to accuse the boy wrongfully, but he simply thought of the boy as the cause instead of thinking of the servant.
Another gentleman who thought his paper was not delivered until very late in the day, found a neighbor was borrowing, and not returning it until nine or ten o'clock or later.
These instances will suffice. If annoyance arises enquire at home first, and if the cause is not discovered there, let us know and see what we can do in the matter.

To Reach The People.
Printers' Ink, a journal devoted to the science of advertising, in an article on what papers to use to reach the people of North Carolina, by Mr. J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, says:
"In the east the Norfolk (Va.) Virginian-Carolinian, the Wilmington Weekly Messenger, the Kinston Free Press and the New Berne JOURNAL (DAILY and WEEKLY) should be used. Each of these papers reaches several goodly small towns and circulates well in the country."
The time for another cheap trip to the mountains is at hand. The six dollar excursion to Asheville next Tuesday will give an opportunity to view some of the finest scenery in the State. Mt. Mitchell the highest mountain we have can be visited, Vanderbilts wonderful mansion and surrounding grounds fitted up in such grandeur as is not approached by any other place of its kind in America if included in the world. There are also other places which make it well worth while to take the trip.
The citizen of whom we made mention in yesterday's JOURNAL, of moving from Pennsylvania brought with him six horses instead of two as we mentioned. He has now another car load of effects on the way. All good citizens are welcome to our State, and the resources in this section for future development untold are therefore making a most desirable field for prospectors and all industrious classes.
The Goldsboro Headlight says the excursion to Asheville next Tuesday is now the all absorbing topic of the day and there is no doubt but what all will have a most enjoyable trip. Mr. Pipkin tells the Headlight that there will be ample seating capacity, and that he will make it his special duty to look after the comfort of ladies and children. An observation car, containing comfortable cane chairs, will be attached, at an extra charge of $1.50 per person. The mountain scenery of Western North Carolina is perfectly grand and here is an opportunity given all to see it at the low fare of $6.00 for the round trip from New Berne.

City Tax Levy.
The Board of city council met in special session and made the tax levy for the year 1894, the same as last year 90 cents on $1.00 valuation, and $1.80 on the poll.
For railroad purposes there was levied a special tax of 90 cents on the $100 valuation and 60 cents on the poll. This was in accordance with an order recently passed by the Board of county commissioners which is as follows:
NORTH CAROLINA
Craven County,
Ordered that there be levied on the real and personal property subject to taxation by the City of New Berne a tax of 90 cents on the $100 valuation; and 60 cents on the poll, for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds issued by the city of New Berne in payments for its subscription to the capital stock of the East Carolina Land Railway company and to create a sinking fund to pay the principal thereof. Ordered further that said taxes be collected by the City Tax collector and by him turned into the city Treasury.
NORTH CAROLINA
Craven County,
I, Jas. W. Biddle, Register of Deed hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of an order of Board of commissioners of Craven County passed by them at their meeting July 9th 1894.
JAS. W. BIDDLE
Reg. Deeds.

HAPPENINGS OF THE DAY.
Uonaco, Ky., had a single shock of earth quake Thursday morning.
Bob Madkins, the negro rapist of Alamance county is to be hung August 10th. The crime was committed May 20th.
The Methodist local ministers conference is now in session at Rutherford College. It began Thursday, and bid fair to be of great interest to all in attendance.
Prendergrast was sane enough when he knew there was no longer any hope for saving his neck. Hanging is the right remedy for such insanity as his.
Hot words in the South Carolina Tillman-Butler campaign came near resulting in a riot Thursday. Friends of each got excited and pistols were drawn but fortunately passed off quietly.
The Trustees of Trinity college have to do their work of electing a successor to President Crowell over again as Prof. Denny, of Vanderbilt University to whom was tendered the position, declines it.
A Silver creek, N. Y., woman who started out to earn $1 for church purposes contracted to shave her husband ten times for the money. In relating her experience she said she was quite successful in her undertaking, cutting only a few flashes in his face, which she "puttied up without much difficulty."
It looks as if Capt. W. H. Kitchen were living up to his declaration that he has abated nothing of his Democratic principles. The reports from his campaign are that he is making Democratic speeches, except as to his treatment of Cleveland; and these reports are borne out by the fact that laudation of him is conspicuously lacking in the Populist papers.—Charlotte Observer.
Mr. H. L. Grant, of Wayne, one of the Republican State executive committee, has called a meeting of the committee at Raleigh on July 30th. An exchange says: Eaves, chairman, did not want a meeting of the committee. Those who desire a committee meeting before the convention want to make a fusion arrangement with the Populists. The fusion idea, it is said, is to elect a mixed legislature and have it elect J. C. Pritchard and Marion Butler U. S. senators.

A State Occasion at Morehead.
The echoes come up from Morehead that the banquet night before last in compliment to the officers of the Colfax was one of the most elegant and successful occasions ever numbered in the history of the far famed Atlantic Hotel. Some very felicitous speeches were made, and among others we have heard the response of Col. J. S. Carr to the toast, "The State Guard," spoken of as one of the happiest of the evening.
Another happy effort on this occasion which we have heard much complimented, was the address of His Excellency Gov. Carr, in responding to the toast, "The Old North State."—News-Observer-Chronicle.
