JARVIS

Senator Jarvis has kindly sent us the speeches made by him in the Senate, on June 11 and 22, on cotton bagging and the income tax...

Speaking on the 22nd, of June, on the Income Tax, Senator Jarvis said: "The question that we are now discussing is simply and purely a question of taxation..."

The Senator from Ohio says put the burden on Sugar. The Senator from New England says put it on manufactured goods. The Senator from New York, I believe, would say put at least a reasonable portion of it upon coffee and collars that the poor people wear.

Mr. President, my idea is that, in imposing these burdens of taxation, the heaviest burdens should be put upon those best able to bear them, and the least burdens upon those least able to bear them.

Then they ought to be the favored class, because I believe it is this 80 per cent of people in this country, who have been delving in the mine and working in the shop and in the field, on the farm and in the factory, who are creating the wealth of the country, and when the country is threatened it is from this 80 per cent of people without property that the soldiers will come which is to defend the honor and the glory of the country...

property of the country; but at the same time it goes out into the highways and into the byways, and put its great arms around the laboring people, who create the wealth of the country, and undertakes to lift them up into a higher and better life.

I thank God, for one, that the Democratic party to-day is in the hands of those who have the courage to take some of the burdens from the people and put them upon the accumulated wealth of the country, and instead of this bill sounding the death knell of the Democratic party, I believe it is but the first step on ward to a higher prosperity and a more glorious career, if it shall only have the courage to move farther on the line which has been selected.

I believe, instead of our Republican friends in 1897 seeing a Republican President inaugurated, that the standard of Democracy will be advanced still higher, and that our banners will again float over the House of Representatives, the Senate and the White House when the next President shall be inaugurated.

To Grover Cleveland, President of These United States—the Highest Office in the Gift of the People.

DEAR SIR:—In these trying times when the scum of every nation on earth is allowed to settle in our midst and set their heads together to do all manner of devilry and hellishness, to give others an opportunity to plunder and steal, it behooves every law abiding citizen to raise his voice in thunder-tones and exclaim "well done thou good and faithful servant" of the people of the United States.

Sir, in your recent message, calling out the United States troops, you showed no want of determination to uphold the laws of the country. Hence Dabs and his followers were soon convinced there was to be no compromise, no half-way grounds, and the strike was declared off. The people of the South are with you; they appreciate your firmness in carrying out the laws of the land to the letter, even at the point of the bayonet.

How many lives and millions of property might have been saved could this have been done at the beginning of Coxe's march and when the strike began. Notwithstanding the criticism of ex-President Harrison, together with the destruction of property, the loss of life and the failure of the Governor of Illinois to suppress rioting, it was your duty and you did right in calling out the troops to suppress or disperse all unlawful assemblages.

I will admit that it would have been unnecessary for the President to call out the United States troops had the Governor of Illinois suppressed the riot with his State military, which could have easily been done long ago. But the crisis came, something had to be done and the people were depending on Grover Cleveland who stands as firm as the Rock of Gibraltar—or Big Ike, the great American bank-rupt dealer.

Yes, verily, the strike is off, but don't forget that the great slaughter of men's, youths', and boys' clothing and gents furnishing goods is still going on at the Thornton Block in Fayetteville, New Bern, Wilmington and Fayetteville and the surrounding country give us a call. We will convince you that the excitement caused by this grand sale is still unabated.

All diseases of the skin cured, and lost complexion restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap. G. W. Gaskill.
