at once time served in the Chinese army, gives it as his opinion that that if the great civilized powers are wise they will try and stop the war between China and Japan as quickly as possible. He argues that if this war lasts long enough to convince China that she must modernize her military system it will not be long before the Yellow of Haywood. Dragon will be the most formidable ensign on the earth.

This New York Herald continues to publish Eastern war news in of Wayne, Japanese and Chinese. Will the Herald please give us a little war news in English? So asked the Rochester, New York Herald. Why tackle New York Herald's enterprise in this way? It is enterprise on the part of the Herald to print ts war news in Chinese and Japanone, but it is not wisdom. Chinese shers are too busy with their irons to read and Japanese residents can read it in English.

ngay in the Sacrod Cup.

After the morning service at the Fourth Baptist church, at Fitth Botton wood streets yesterday morning, the members assembled in a church meeting to hear Deacon J. W. Davis report on his investigation into the workings of the individual communion cup service in the North Baptist church, of Rochester, N. Y. The question of individual communion cup has been agitated in the church for some time, and when a chemical of individual communion cup has been agitated in the church for anish to expected to be published. No combine of the axis of t tary benefits of such a system could possibly arise, and it resolved itself into a question as to whether the innovation could be made without interferring in any way with the solemnity of the service. He told bow the se vice was con-ducted in the Rochester church, alaments from which revenue is to be and to his mind the the sanctity of will be charged for at the rate of 5 was in no way disturbed. He ex hibited a sample of a tray with in-dividual chalices. These trays can be had in almost any material, can each hole 20 to 60 cups. A sip of wine is placed in each cup and the communicant empties a cup and returns to the tray in the same way in which the usual cup is sipped and returned to the deacon.

Deacon Davis made no suggestions and on fairlying the report
