

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its success upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not distant when mothers will consider the real friend of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their children, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other harmful poisons down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kitchell, Cooney, Ark.

THE JOURNAL

THE LAW FOR THE WOLVES.

RUDYARD KIPPLING.
Now this is the law of the jungle, as old and as true as the sky. And the wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the wolf that shall break it must die. As the creeper that girdles the tree trunk, the law runneth forward and back; For the strength of the pack is the wolf, and the strength of the wolf is the pack.

Wash daily from nose tip to tail tip; drink deeply but never too deep. And remember the night is for hunting and forget the day is for sleep.

The Jackal may follow the tiger, but, eub when thy whiskers are grown, Remember the wolf is a hunter—go forth and get food of thy own.

Keep peace with the lords of the jungle, the tiger, the panther, the bear; And trouble not fathi the Silent, and mock not the boar in his lair.

When pack meets with pack in the jungle, and neither will go from the trail, Lie down till the hounds have spoken; it may be fair words shall prevail.

When ye fight with a wolf of the pack ye must fight him a one and afar, Lest others take part in the quarrel and the pack is diminished by war.

The lair of the wolf is his refuge, and where he has made him his home. Not even the head wolf may enter, not even the council may come.

The lair of the wolf is his refuge, but where he has digged it too plain, The council shall send him a message, and so he shall change it again.

If ye kill before midnight be silent and wake not the woods with your bay. Lest ye frighten the deer from the crop and thy brothers go empty away.

Ye may kill for yourselves, and your mates, and your cubs as they need and ye can; But kill not for pleasure of killing, and seven times never kill man.

If ye plunder his kill from a weaker, de-vour not all in thy pride, Pack-right is the right of the meaneat; so leave him the head and the hide.

To kill of the pack is the meat of the pack. Ye must eat where it lies; And no one may carry away that meat to his lair, or he dies.

The kill of the wolf is the meat of the wolf. He may do what he will, But till he is given permission, the pack may not eat of that kill.

Lair right is the right of the mother. From all of her year she may claim One haunch of each kill for her litter, and none may deny her the same.

Cub right is the right of the yearling. From all of his pack he may claim Full gorge when the killer has eaten; and none may refuse him the same.

Cave right is the right of the father, to hunt by himself for his own; He is freed from all calls to the pack. He is judged by the council alone.

Because of his age and his cunning, he is judged by his grip and his paw. In all that the law leaveth open the word of the head wolf is law.

Now these are the laws of the jungle, and many and mighty are they; But the head and the hoof of the law and the haunch and hump is—Obey!

Mothers.
One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters, said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, female weakness, and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babies. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weaker to the earth with "weakness" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labor, and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Build Him Up.
Mr. J. B. Lewis, of Atlanta, Ga., had severe dyspepsia. Physicians and all other remedies failed to cure him. He tried Tyler's Dyspepsia Remedy, and afterwards writes: "The first dose gave relief. I recommend it as the best dyspepsia remedy ever discovered. I have gained flesh since using it. I voluntarily recommend it to all sufferers with stomach troubles." For sale by druggists at 50c per bottle.

Johnson's Compound Cod Liver Oil makes rich blood, restores lost vitality, cures dyspepsia, creates flesh, and is palatable and easily taken.
