To the Sugar Planters of Louisland Get Bounties on Cotton and Every thing Fise made and Lets all

The letter, of which we copy s tion above first appeared in the chmond Dispatch. It well shows the absurdity of the system of giving bounties. If it is right for he government to tax the North Carolina cotton, corn, and track, growers to pay the Louisiana sugar planter two cents a pound on all the sugar he makes, why isn't it right to pay the cotton raises a bounty on every pound of cotton he raises. Isn't cotton low enough for him to need it! And why not for him to need it! And why not extend the principle to every other farm product. And if it is right to pay the bounty to the farmer for what he raises why not to the newspaper publisher for every paper he prints. Lets all get "bounties" and all "flop" together. Sunny Side. September. 21, 1894 My Dear Friends: Will you permit an old man more than three-score.

an old man, more than three-score years and ten, to give you a word of cantion?

The papers say you are going to "flop" from the Democratic party to the Bepublican party. Now, let me entreat you by the memory of the past not to "flop" yet; keep cool, wait, and let's "flop" together. I and all Democrats in this State will "flop with you if these fellows will do for us what you hope and expect them to do for you. But don't trust them "until the goods are delivered.

You propose to leave the Demo-oratic party and join the Republi-can. "For why?" Because the Democrats won't give you a bounty on sugar and you here the Republicans will. And when the bounty on sugar is restored; wait a little fonger; you planters are a generous setthere is nothing mean about you; you will "do as you would be done

Even whem the bounty on sugar Began business is restored, don't "flop," but wait Capital Stock, paid in, for us. I am a lawyer by profession, and some twenty years since Undivided Pofits, Dividends paid, voted all the surplus-beyond a bare support—from the proceeds of a very laborious, if not remunerative practice—to improve that I have built houses bought expensive "machinery" of all sorts to run it; I try to make money on wheat, cats, corn, tobacco, cattle, hogs, sheep, horses, and mules, but it won't do—can't make money. There are thousands and ten thou-sands of farmers in old Virginia now in the same fix. Now, when you get your bounty on sugar. wont' you help us to get a bounty on wheat, corn, oats, tobacco, cattle, sheep, hogs, horses, mules, and assess?

I was about to forget a most important subject for bounty. There are throughout our State a large number of colored friends who are actually too poor to keep a "dog" capital, or, if they do keep one, are compelled to support him on their neighbor's sheep.

Now, will not you rich sugar- JAS. A. BRYAN. planters of Louisiana and your Chas. S. Bryan, generous Republican friends agree Jno. Dunn, to pay a bounty on "dorgs", especially female "dorgs", so that every head of a colored family shall have "THOS. A. GREEN, Pres. C. E. FOY, Cashier, Wm. DUNN, Vice-Pres. H. M. GROVES, Teller at least one "dorg," supported by a bounty voted to them by you and your new allies, and then on frosty November nights, when the fence-rails are blazing, the possum is baking, and the "taters" are roasting, the head of each and every colored family will call around him his little ones, and, pointing to the possum caught by the "dorg"—supported by the bounty of yourselves and friends in pions tones, will exclaim, "Dear children, see what our friends, the sugar planters, and their friends have done for you and me, and remember always to repay their bounty by voting the Republican ticket."

Pardon this disgression. My excuse must be the deep interest I feel in the welfare of the colored brother. Now, back to "our mutton"; Doubtless the cotton-planters of all the Southern States would be delighted with a bounty on cotton surely you will not deny them this?

And then, when all of us have secured our bounties on everything we raise, let's all "flop" together. of But I pray you wait. Our Virginia people are proverbially "slow" and full of old-time cranks and prejudices. One of those is that it is not the square thing for one set of fellows to be taxed to give a bounty to another set of fellows. There is hope for us yet, however, and when the G. O. P. has given us bounties on everything, then we Democrats in the "Old State" will follow you like sheep into the bosom of the aforesaid G. O. P.

of the aforesaid G. O. P.

But rest assured of one thing, we are not going until the bounty is in hand, and if you will take my advice, you will do likewise; but don't be "too previous"; don't "flop" by themselves. You will be lonesome. Let us first secure all our bounties an then "flop" together; it will be so much more dignified and respectable.

er; it will be so much more dignified and respectable.

Now, in all serionsness, what can you gain by going over to the Republican party? Remember the fable of the dog and bone, and take care you do not lose what the Democrats have given you. I am a Democrat from way back." I favor a tax on augar for revenue only—not to protect you—but to yield a revenue; and that is all the protection you will ever get. Hold

Sincerely your friend, R. T. W. Duke.
