THE STATE PRESS

"I am going to put on an extra force of constabulary," declares Governor Blease, "and instruct them to keep a close eye on every editor, and if any of them buy refreshments from a blind tiger, either in Charleston or on the Isle of Palms, they have peremptory orders to arrest the person selling the liquor and bind over the one buying it as a witness in a bond not less than $5,000." This is not the clearest or most beautiful English prose we ever read. It does, however, convey the idea that Governor Blease and the South Carolina press are still far apart.—Charlotte Observer.

When a North Carolina paper remarks now that "The good work goes on" we do not know whether they mean that another county has voted bonds for good roads or has organized a branch of the North Carolina Just Freight Rate Association. Between the two, however, it begins to appear that few Tar Heel counties will be left in the unprogressive class.—Charlotte Chronicle.

If honesty, integrity, patience, forbearance, courage, sobriety and morality are not inculcated by home influence and academic training, all laws proposing to do it are unavailing. Begin at mother's knee, but while she is doing her best a-her's night key should not be made to do service all times of the night. When a boy gets old enough to have a night key he wants to do like father. He generally does, unless his mother persuades him not to. In his recent address at the University of North Carolina, Vice President Marshall said: "The unleashed passion of today is for social success at any price. The growing need of today is for cultured men who know and dare to maintain the right." Everlastingly true, but with passion for social success unleashed at home and running amuck in society, what can a boy do but follow suit when everybody is right in the game?—Wilmington Star.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch several days ago carried a story to the effect that prominent men in this State were about to concede the next gubernatorial nomination to Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels. There might have been some private, inside talk about that, but we venture the assertion that there was scarcely one in five hundred who had ever heard of that until the Richmond paper came out with its story. Furthermore, we do not believe that Joe Daniels wants to be governor of North Carolina. What would it profit him to do so? If he is looking for honor and publicity, he already has a place that keeps him in the limelight far more than the governorship of North Carolina could ever do. If he is seeking a place that carries with it a big name, he now has a position that entitles him to a seat around the biggest and most important table in the world. And, there is one thing certain, he is now drawing a salary more than twice the sum he would get as governor of his State.—Greenville Reflector.

The news comes from Washington that, if the president signs the sundry civil service bill now in his hands, the sum of $69,981 will be available for use in erecting a post office building for Kinston. This sum is not all that we wanted, but the appropriation has now been long delayed and the sooner we can get the money and get to work the better we will like it. We are in urgent need of larger quarters for our local post office. Our postal business is growing rapidly and the present local postoffice facilities are entirely inadequate. We do not know how much more red tape they will have to go through with before building operations begin, but the sound of the hammer and the saw on Queen street would sound "mighty good" as dogdays draw nigh.—Kinston Free Press.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY

Whereas: The Great Spirit who doeth all things well has seen fit to visit the home of Brother H. Parkins, Jr., and take away his beloved mother to the Happy Hunting Grounds of the Great Beyond,

Therefore: Be it resolved, that we, members of Chattawka Tribe I.O.R.M., extend to Brother Parkins our deepest sympathy in this, his hour of bereavement.

Resolved, second: That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, also that a copy be sent to Bro. Parkins and a copy be furnished to each newspaper of the city for publication.

NEW BERN'S REPLY.

New Bern Accepts the Evidence and Many Journal Readers Will Profit by It.

Which is the more weighty proof—a few words from a New Bern resident, whom we know and respect, or volumes from strangers in distant towns? There can be only one reply.

Mrs. C. Pennington, 27 East Front St., New Bern, N. C., says: "I suffered intensely from backache, and sharp, shooting pains across my loins. Often was so lame that I could hardly straighten after stooping. I knew that my kidneys were disordered for the secretions were very unnatural. I used just one box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I got from the Bradham Drug Co., and this was sufficient to remove my aches and pains. Doan's Kidney Pills have been of greater benefit to me than any other kidney medicine I have ever taken." (Statement given January 24 1908.)

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

THE BENEFIT LASTED

Mrs. Pennington was interviewed recently and she said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they gave me permanent relief. You may continue to publish my former endorsement of this remedy."

If men had to do housework they would probably live in tents.

TAKE PLENTY OF TIME TO EAT

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers. (Adv.)

A henpecked man is the silent partner of his wife's woes.

We never heard of a rich man who had to advertise for long lost kin.

SORE NIPPLES.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by all dealers. (Adv.)
