NEW BERN BUSINESS MEN DON'T LIKE DISCRIMINATION

Delegation to Raleigh To Protest Against Railroads' Proposed Action

WANT WATERWAY TOWNS TO HAVE EQUAL FREIGHT RATES

Railway Companies Want To Exclude This Section From Reduction

Following the receipt yesterday morning of a letter from H. B. Branch, secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, in which the writer urged that New Bern send a delegation of citizens to Raleigh on next Tuesday to protest against the discrimination of the railroad companies against the waterway towns in this State, J. Leon Williams, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, issued a call for a special meeting to be held at the organization's rooms last night, at which time a committee would be appointed to represent New Bern at the conference next Tuesday.

This matter is of vast importance to New Bern and the business men of this city are greatly interested in it. The railroads offer to give a reduction of twenty per cent. in freight rates to all the towns in the State except those with water transport facilities. With so much at stake it is no wonder that the meeting, although held on Saturday night was well attended. In the absence of W. B. Blades who is chairman of the Railway and Water Transportation Committee, E. M. Green, chairman of the Terminal Facilities and Service Committee, called the meeting to order and explained its object. W. F. Aberly was elected chairman. Mr. Green said during the course of his talk that this matter was one of the most important ever to come before the Chamber of Commerce and that it was a matter which every business man in the city should be interested in. He said that if this proposed reduction goes into effect and the waterway towns are excluded that it will cause these towns a loss of thousands of dollars each year.

The following committee was appointed to attend the conference at Raleigh next Tuesday morning: Clyde Eby, H. W. Armstrong, W. F. Aberly, W. B. Blades, S. M. Brinson, T. P. Ashford, L. H. Cutler, Sr., A. H. Bangert, J. S. Basnight, Chas. R. Thomas, E. M. Green, J. H. Crawford, L. G. Daniels, C. M. Dockham, John Dunn, Wm. Ellis, Capt. Joe Gaskin, E. B. Hackburn, D. W. Hanks, J. T. Hollister, H. B. Marks, J. S. Miller, E. H. Meadows, Jr., C. L. Spencer, C. B. Hill, M. D. W. Stevenson, L. C. Tolson, W. A. West, T. D. Warren, W. C. Willett, O. L. Wetherington, D. E. Henderson, W. T. W. G. Hill, T. G. Hyman, B. B. Hurst, C. L. Ives, J. A. Jones, W. L. Lewis, W. A. McIntosh, W. D. McIver.

Those who can attend are requested to notify secretary Williams by noon tomorrow or not later than 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Williams had not been able last night to find out at what hour the meeting will be held, but this will be announced Monday so that those who intend attending the conference will know just when it will be necessary for them to leave here in order to reach that city in time.

Wilmington, Washington and Elizabeth City are greatly interested in this matter and there will be large delegations in attendance from each of those places.

NO SPECIAL TRAIN TO THE FIRE-MEN'S TOURNAMENT.

There will be no special train operated between New Bern and Wilmington next Wednesday on account of the horse race wagon races to be held there on that day. There was a movement on foot to get the Atlantic Coast line Railway Company to operate this special train but while in conversation with the general superintendent of the road yesterday afternoon H. E. Royall, who was engaged in getting up a list of those who would patronize the train on this trip, was informed that the train could not be furnished.

WOULD SELL THIRD INTEREST IN BLUE SPRINGS.

W. D. Ipock, part owner of Blue Spring, which has become so well known in the last few weeks on account of the unusual medicinal qualities of the water, was in the city yesterday. The property has been on the market but it has not been possible so far to dispose of it at the price the owners think it should bring. So Mr. Ipock said that he had decided to offer to sell a third interest. He believes that there is a great future before the springs and that they will make a fortune for somebody. He thinks that it would be practicable to pipe the water to New Bern and distribute it from here in large quantities.

PLANNING FOR HORSE RACES ON LABOR DAY.

Preparations are now being made for the races to be held at the Fair grounds on Labor Day. There will be three races, a free for all, a three-minute class, and a 2:28 class. Sixty-five dollars in prizes will be awarded in each of the races. An entrance fee of three dollars will be charged for each horse and entries can be made up until September 1. B. B. Hurst, Wm. Ellis and W. C. Willett have been appointed as racing committee.

BRYAN VERSUS CIRCUS.

Commoner Expected To Draw Big Crowd In Pennsylvania. Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 9.—Expecting an unusual representation of pickpockets when William J. Bryan makes his chautauqua address here on August 28, the borough fathers, at their regular monthly council meeting, have taken decided action. Secretary Williams was directed to ask Superintendent Groome to have the State constabulary here on Bryan day. The occasion is expected to draw a larger crowd than any circus day in the last 25 years.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS A JOURNAL READER.

W. F. Foy came into the Journal office yesterday and did what he has been doing regularly every year for thirty-five years—paid his subscription to the Semi-Weekly Journal. He has been a subscriber to the Journal since its first issue was published in Kinston in 1878. And he didn't say anything about stopping yesterday.

J. M. Reel and H. C. Reel, of Arapahoe, were in the city yesterday taking a civil service examination for position as postmaster at that place.

MUCH BUSINESS IS BEING DONE

LOCAL MERCHANTS GRATIFIED WITH AMOUNT OF PATRONAGE DURING SUMMER.

It is usually the case just at this season that the amount of business done in this section is comparatively small. This condition is due in a measure to the fact that many people are away from home during the summer months. According to reports made by local merchants and business men in New Bern this condition does not prevail here.

Naturally the amount of business is not as large as that which is done during the spring and fall but still it is very gratifying and shows that this is a prosperous section. If there is any one who does not think that business in commercial lines is not large enough to mention, a glance in the stores any Saturday night will quickly disprove this idea.

The farmers will soon begin bringing in their cotton and the money received from this will be put in circulation and local bankers are of the opinion that the financial condition of this section during the approaching fall and winter will be all that can be desired.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDGE PARTY.

Miss Inez Willis Entertains Friends At Virginia Beach.

The following is taken from the Norfolk Virginian Pilot: Miss Inez Willis, of New Bern, N. C., gave a delightful bridge party, Thursday morning from eleven until one o'clock, at the cottage of her sister, Mrs. Rudolph Ulrich at Virginia Beach. There were three tables of auction bridge and fruit punch was served during the game.

The attractive place-cards were views of the beach. At twelve-thirty an ice course was served.

Those playing were: Misses Alice Pender and Elizabeth Howard of Tarboro, N. C.; Dicie Howell, of Scotland Neck, N. C.; Elizabeth Taylor, Richmond; Maria Jones and Katherine Jones, Petersburg; Rosalie Hardwood and Miss Currie, Richmond; Miss Corbitt Henderson, N. C.; Mrs. Ferrell, Wisconsin; and Mrs. Watson, of Petersburg.

WIFE OF LEPER MAY JOIN HIM

INSISTS THAT DOCTORS HAVE MADE A MISTAKE IN DIAGNOSING CASE.

St. Louis, Aug. 9.—George O. Hartman, who was pronounced a leper, was taken yesterday afternoon to the isolation cottage several miles South of the city. While the ambulance was taking him away an attorney employed by Hartman's wife was arguing in the Circuit Court for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent the removal of her husband to the cottage where, until yesterday, the sole occupant was a Chinese leper. She denies that her husband has leprosy. The judge postponed decision.

Dr. Woodruff, City Vaccine Specialist, told Hartman's wife that she could live with him if she so desired. "Only," he said, "if you decide to go with him you will have to stay. You cannot come and go at will, and you cannot leave at any time, even after his death, unless it is certain that you are free from the disease."

Mrs. Hartman did not make an immediate decision.

ORIOLE STAR TO MANAGER CHANGE

DEAL WITH THE BALTIMORE CLUB FOR SERVICES OF MAISEL COMPLETED.

New York, Aug. 9.—Manager Frank Chance of the New York American League Club announces that the deal with the Baltimore Club of the International League for the services of Ed. Maisel has been completed.

The Orioles' star infielder comes to the Yankees in exchange for Bert Daniels, Isias Midkiff and $12,000 in cash. Maisel, who is considered one of the star infielders of the league, has been in great demand among major league clubs this season.

The Chicago Americans, Boston Nationals and New York Americans have all been bidding for him. It was not until yesterday that Chance and Manager Dunn, of the Baltimore Club, finally came to terms.

The new Yankee plays shortstop or third base equally well.

The following drug stores will serve the public today: Bradham's pharmacy, Leinster Duffy's drug store, Pinnix drug store and Kennedy's pharmacy.

NOTED PHYSICIAN DIES OF WOUNDS

Father Of Miss Rosalie Jones, The Suffragette Hiker, Probably Committed Suicide.

HAD AN INTERESTING CAREER

Unbalanced Mentally For Some Years On Account Of Son's Being In Sanatorium.

New York, Aug. 9.—Dr. Oliver Livingston Jones, a wealthy retired physician and real estate owner and father of Miss Rosalie Jones, the suffragette "hiker" who led the march of the suffragettes into Washington at the time of President Wilson's inauguration, died today from a wound believed to have been self-inflicted.

He was removed from his home, 116 Seventy-second street yesterday to the Polytechnic Hospital with a bullet wound in his head.

A policeman was assigned to duty at the hospital where Dr. Jones was kept a prisoner on a charge of attempting suicide. An operation was performed later in the day, but it was said at the hospital that the physician probably would die.

Dr. Jones who was wealthy, owning real estate in almost every State in the Union had never practiced medicine, although he is an accredited physician. Until two years ago he owned a summer home at Cold Spring Harbor, built 59 years before by Charles H. Jones, and containing more than 100 rooms, with all its timbers of solid hand-hewn oak. Grieving over the condition of a son, Oliver Livingston Jones, Jr., who was confined, in a sanatorium, Dr. Jones disappeared from the Cold Spring Harbor house on August 25, 1909. He was found by a searching party of his neighbors late that night, wandering aimlessly about the country roads, and was taken home. The next morning the big house was discovered in flames. The fire did damage of between $100,000 and $125,000. The house was rebuilt later, and is one of the finest residences on Long Island, but the shock of the experience and the continued worry about the state of his son preyed on the physician's mind and made him almost a nervous wreck.

Just before noon yesterday a citizen rushed up to a policeman patrolling Columbus avenue and told him that he had heard revolver shots while passing 116 West Seventy-second street. Hastening there, the policeman found the house in an uproar, and upon making his way upstairs, found Dr. Jones lying, fully clothed, on the tiled floor of the bathroom in front of the mirror with blood flowing from a gash in his head and a bullet wound above the right ear. Mrs. Jones was hysterical in the next room. Dr. Jones was removed to the hospital unconscious and an operation was performed by Dr. William Sharpe.

Both Dr. Jones and his wife are of old New York families. Part of their land was obtained by royal grant from Great Britain.

Dr. Jones was 63 years old and was a graduate of Bellevue Medical College.

SHOT ANGRY NEGRO.

Frank Aycock Empties Shotgun Into African's Feet.

(Special to the Journal.) Will Tise, colored, went to the home of Frank Aycock, white, and after cursing him threatened his life. Drawing a knife from his pocket the negro started toward Mr. Aycock, whereupon the latter emptied the contents of a shotgun in his ankle and feet. Tise was placed under arrest and after receiving treatment was lodged in jail.

County Commissioner J. D. Williams was in the city yesterday for the purpose of having a physician dress one of his feet, into which he stuck a nail several days ago. The wound is healing rapidly and the attending physician is of the opinion that it will be completely cured within a week or two.

William T. Heritage, formerly of New Bern, has been promoted to the position of foreman of the Monotype machines in the government printing office in Washington.

WILLIAM R. PARKER DEAD.

Grandfather of New Bern Man Passes Beyond.

Goldsboro, Aug. 9.—Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock ex-Sheriff William R. Parker died at the home of Capt. J. E. Peterson on this city.

Deceased was 90 years of age and a prominent figure in Goldsboro. He is survived by two children, Mrs. J. E. Peterson, of Goldsboro, and J. E. Parker of the State Agricultural Department, at Raleigh. The funeral will be conducted from the first Baptist church this afternoon at 3:30 and the interment will be in Willowdale cemetery. He was Goldsboro's oldest citizen and always took a lively interest in all public measures and local questions.

The deceased was a grandfather of J. H. Parker of New Bern, and he left yesterday morning to attend the funeral.

WILL OPERATE A FAST TRAIN

NORFOLK SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY TO GIVE PATRONS BETTER SERVICE.

Beginning August 16 the Norfolk Southern Railway Company will operate a fast freight train, leaving Norfolk every night for Raleigh. On this train will be three package cars which will be dropped at Chocowinity. One of these cars will come to New Bern and the other two will go on to Kinston and Goldsboro, being handled by the passenger train which arrives here shortly after 4 o'clock a. m.

This new train will prove of great benefit to the merchants and manufacturers of New Bern. A few weeks ago the Journal had an editorial setting forth the benefits that such a train would bring. This matter was taken up with the company by E. W. Warren, who is in charge of their local freight warehouse and yesterday he received a letter stating that the train would be put into service on the above named date.

When the train is in operation it will be possible for a person living in New Bern to telegraph an order to Norfolk as late as 4 o'clock in the afternoon and receive the goods on the following morning, or they can place a package in the freight warehouse here as late as 4 o'clock in the afternoon and it will leave here on the 12:40 train and arrive in Norfolk on the following morning.

WAR! WAR!! WAR!!!

"John Burns At Gettysburg."

A spectacular civil war drama, based on the world famous battle between the union and confederate soldiers. We have made several efforts to secure this great production and have just succeeded. It will be a calamity if you fail to see it. Bring the children and let them see how their fathers and grandfathers displayed bravery. "Get Rich Quick Billington."

Billington has a fine social position but no cash with which to maintain it, so he resorts to the "get rich scheme" and reaps merited punishment. "The Misjudging Of Mr. Hubby."

One of the screamiest comedies released in a long time. Matinee daily at 5 o'clock. Continuous show at night starts at 8 o'clock. Come early and secure a desirable seat. It was impossible to seat the crowd Saturday night on the 1st show. Plenty of fans and ice water. Same admission 5c. and 10c. anywhere in the house.

The special train which will be operated today between this city and Oriental on account of the dedication of the new Methodist church at that place, will leave here immediately after the arrival of the trains from the East and West. Returning the train will leave Oriental about 6 o'clock. Stops will be made at all stations in Pamlico county.

PRELATE OPPOSES WOMAN SUFFRAGE

But Cardinal Gibbons, Interviewed In Chicago, Says It Is Bound To Come.

NO ACTION BY HIS CHURCH

Churchman Thinks Women Had Better Make Good Mothers Than Good Politicians.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Cardinal Gibbons arrived in Chicago yesterday from Baltimore on the way to Milwaukee, where he will preside over the meeting of the Federated Catholic Society. He was met at the station by Archbishop Quigley, Bishop Dunne, of Peoria; Bishop Dennis O'Connell, of Richmond, Va., and Dr. Edward F. Hoban, chancellor of the Diocese of Chicago.

"I'm weary," said the Cardinal after answering the greetings of the prelates. "You see I am growing old—I know it myself, and these trips are a trifle hard on an old man."

"Will your Eminence speak at Milwaukee?" was asked.

"Yes, yes, I will speak."

"On socialism?" was the next query.

"I cannot say. If socialism is mentioned—and the bright blue eyes flashed—"I shall oppose it—I shall most certainly oppose it. This is a meeting of the Federated Catholic Societies, you know, so it may not be necessary to discuss this serious subject."

"And suffrage, will that happen as an incidental topic?"

"Personally I do not believe in women voting. I have always opposed it."

"But the church, of which you are the highest representative in this country?"

"The church has not passed on suffrage. I think it will not do so. It has neither approved nor disapproved. As far as I am concerned, I do not approve of it, but that is my own opinion."

"I believe in citizenship and in patriotism. I think any man who fails to vote fails in his duties as a citizen. But as for women—well, it doesn't just seem right to me. I have old-fashioned ideas, you know, about the woman and the home. Suffrage will come, of course. It seems inevitable."

"I think women had better make good mothers than good politicians; it is more essential to the nation. Let the men make the laws and the woman stay in the home."

"I shall rest in Chicago today at the Archbishop's palace and leave here tomorrow morning for Milwaukee. I hope to return to Baltimore Wednesday."

"BOOZE" WILL BE PLACED IN JAIL

CONFISCATED WHISKEY AND BEER WILL NO LONGER TEMPT THE THIRSTY.

Tomorrow the thousand or more bottles of beer and twenty-five or thirty gallons of whiskey confiscated from the yacht Grace when the vessel was raided by local officers late Thursday afternoon, will be placed in the Craven county jail for safe keeping until the next term of Superior Court.

Some times when whiskey and beer are stored, they have an aggravating habit of "evaporating." Jailer Bayliss has made preparation for the reception of the wet goods to be placed in his care tomorrow and stated yesterday afternoon that when the time came for it to be turned over to the court, every bottle would be accounted for.

The whiskey and beer will be used as evidence in the case of the State vs. George Marshall of Gloucester county, Va., in which the defendant is charged with violating the prohibition law by having more than a specified amount of intoxicants in his possession.

T. D. Warren went down to Morehead City last evening for a short visit.
