...from other parts of this state and from other States, speak in the highest terms of something in our town, and it is nothing unusual for some stranger or travelling man to remark that the Athens Theatre is the nicest picture and vaudeville house in the South. A few nights ago a gentleman unknown to the managers, left a note at the box office as he passed out on which was written "I have visited photoplays in six different States, but the pictures seen in your house tonight are the best I have ever seen. I wish you success." It is every day that some one compliments the splendid projection of the pictures at the Athens. How clear and steady, without flicker, they are and no wait between pictures.

When the managers were asked why it was that they could produce such a good picture? they said only because we spare no expense to provide the best of everything that money can buy. We have two of Edison's latest and best machines which produce the best picture on any machine on the market, with a first class operator who knows his business to handle them. We are careful to select, as far as we can, one of the best picture services that can be obtained.

The Athens is one of the most sanitary; it has eight two foot ceiling ventilators and six big windows near the ceiling that carry all the foul and hot air out while the draft from six exit doors and twenty fans bring the cool fresh air in.

Messrs. Lovick and Taylor are giving their patrons the best vaudeville obtainable at present, and as soon as a new theatre in Wilmington is completed that will split Keith's acts with this house. They have a very classy and refined act on now, but next week will be the best ever given in New Bern at the small price of 5, 10 and 15c. Amiks Pennant Winners twelve people; this company is now playing their second week at the Grand, in Raleigh, and have broken all records for this house. The people of New Bern can always depend on seeing the best of everything in pictures and vaudeville at the Athens.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Dolly Hyman Entertains Young Friends.

Miss Dolly Hyman entertained her young friends at a delightful dance last evening, at the stately home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyman, on Pollock street.

Southern smilax, ferns and masses of roses and amaryllis artistically decorated the entire lower floor. The drawing room and dining room, which were thrown open for dancing, made an attractive background for the lovely dancers, with its decorations of green festooning chandeliers, mantles and doorways, with Japanese lanterns hung between. Baskets and vases filled with amaryllis furthered the adornment.

The happy occasion was in honor of Miss Dolly's fourteenth birthday and many beautiful presents were received by her. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Those enjoying the pleasures of the dance were: Misses Esther Marks and Ellen Guion with George Green. Miss May Baxter with Robert Jones. Miss Bertha Hawk with Fred Cohen. Miss Julia Bryan Jones with Seymour Hancock. Misses Catherine Patterson and Kathleen Caton with Charles Ives. Misses Katherine Richardson and Elizabeth Caton with Marshall Speight. Miss Grace Stewart with Herbert Thornton, Miss Elizabeth Ashford with Robert Nixon. Miss Celia Moulton with Sam Ferebee. Miss Lizette Perry with Robert Thornton. Miss Rose Carraway with William Boyd. Miss Catherine Stewart with Everette Morris. Miss Charlotte Howard with Robert Hancock. Miss Madge Decord, of Delaware with Parkhill Jarvis. Miss Mary Bray with Walker Guion. Miss Catherine Boyd with Bryan Duffy. Miss Agnes Fcy with Walter Bray, Jr. Miss Anna Clark with Richard Willard Cantwell, of Wilmington, and Alfred Grenzen of New York.

Today is another BIG FEATURE DAY at the "Star."
"THE FINAL JUDGMENT." (S. AND A.) IN TWO PARTS, 2,000 FEET OF FILM.

A thrilling and sensational drama with a very clever plot, and interesting to the last drop. Full of heart-thrills and sighs, changed occasionally to a hearty laugh. You will like this one "sure."

"AT THE LARIAT'S END." (S. AND A.)
Another good sensational drama of the life in the West, showing expert riding, and dare-devil feats, intermingled with a very pretty love story.

"LOVE'S QUARANTINE." (VITAGRAPH.)
This is a splendid comedy featuring the Vitagraph favorites John Bunny, Flora Finch and Lillian Walker. Cutey is seized with a brilliant idea. The cook is seized with a serious illness. Cutey is then seized by Dot's papa and thrown out the window. The end is great, and a roar the entire picture.
