

MRS. M. M. MARKS WAS THE HOSTESS

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS IN HONOR OF MRS. EUSTLER, OF WILSON.

Unusually beautiful in all its details was the delightful auction bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Mortie Marks at her elegant home on Johnson street, in honor of her guest Mrs. Ernest Eustler, of Wilson.

The lower and upstairs floor of this attractive home was aglow with a wealth of cut flowers with a background of long leaf pine and Southern Smilax, which was artistically festooned and garlanded over the house, outlining the doorways and windows.

The yellow color scheme was effectively carried out in drawing room and dining room.

Mrs. Marks received her guests in a handsome taupe brocade and in her own charming manner presented them to the honoree, Mrs. Eustler, who was becomingly gowned in golden brown chiffon over yellow charmeuse, trimmed with fur. Mrs. O. Marks, who received with the hostess wore black crepe meteor.

Chrysanthemums and roses in attractive baskets filled the house with their fragrance. Mrs. Frank Hyman in white embroidered crepe and Mrs. Cecil Gabbett in white charmeuse presided over the perfectly appointed punch table in the dining room which had a handsome cluny lace cloth and was decorated with small silver deposit vases of yellow chrysanthemums linked around the table with a crystal chain, silver candle sticks bearing tapers cast a mellow glow over the effective decorations.

There were twelve tables of bridge and attractive cards bore the guests' names for the game.

An elaborate and delicious two course luncheon was served at six o'clock by Misses Esther Marks, Virginia Soverel, of New Jersey, Bertha Hawk, Ellen Guion, May Baxter, Martha Munger, Julia Bryan Jones and Sophia Hollister. Those invited to meet Mrs. Eustler were:

Mrs. Owen Guion, Mrs. Charles Thomas, Mrs. W. B. Walker, Mrs. William Dunn, Mrs. David Congdon, Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. John Carraway, Mrs. Ralph Hunter Smith, Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. Charles Duffy, Mrs. Robert Nixon, Mrs. Larry Moore, Mrs. David Henry, Mrs. Frank Feldman, Mrs. Thomas Warren, Mrs. Samuel Eaton, Mrs. F. Howard Sawyer, Mrs. Charles Emmert, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. George Stratton, Mrs. J. K. Hollowell, Mrs. Mark Stevenson, Mrs. Richard Duffy, Mrs. Charles Pettit, Mrs. William Hand, Mrs. Guion Dunn, Mrs. K. K. Chapman, Mrs. S. L. Dill, Jr., Mrs. Leifers, Mrs. William Blades, Mrs. Nat Street and Mrs. A. H. Haenisch, of Philadelphia.

Misses Sara Congdon, Harriette Marks, Mary Oliver, Laura Hughes, Margaret Bryan, Myrtle Disoway, Mamie Baxter, Elaine Bennett, of Baltimore, Lenora Greenbaum, Sara Stewart, Mollie Heath, Janet Hollister, Ruth Howland, Jane Stewart, Eulalia Willis and Mr. W. B. Blades and Lieut. Cecil Gabbett.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Given in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse S. Claypoole.

One of the brilliant social events of the Autumn season was the reception last evening given by Mrs. E. H. Claypoole, at her ancestral home, on Broad and Craven streets, in honor of her son, Mr. Jesse Claypoole and his bride, lately returned from their wedding trip.

From nine until eleven o'clock there was a constant stream of callers, eager to offer their congratulations to the happy couple.

Mrs. Claypoole's home was a veritable bower, with its artistic decorations. Great clusters of palms and ferns graced the hall, while Southern smilax festooned the stairway.

The card tray was presented at the door by little Miss Anna Clark in dainty white lingerie frock and the guests were cordially welcomed in the hall by Mr. William Griffin and Miss Margaret Bryan, the latter in a handsome imported black lace gown. A perfect color scheme of white and green was carried out in the parlor where the hostess, in a lovely gown of black crepe de chine, received, assisted by the bride and groom, the bride being charming in her wedding gown of ivory satin trimmed with duchess and rose point lace, Judge and Mrs. Henry R. Bryan, the latter in black silk with point lace, Miss Caroline Claypoole in wisteria crepe de chine and Mr. and Mrs. Felix Harvey, of Kingston, Mrs. Harvey in pale blue charmeuse with rhinestone trimmings.

Mrs. Francis Stringer Duffy in blue chiffon, invited the guests into the gift room which was presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bishop, the latter in pink charmeuse, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hyman, Mrs. Hyman wearing a handsome gown of pink brocade charmeuse. Hundreds of beautiful and useful wedding gifts were displayed attesting the popularity of the young couple. The decorations in this room were yellow and white, the mantle being banked with yellow and white chrysanthemums interspersed with burning tapers in old brass and silver candlesticks. Baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums also adorned the tables.

Mrs. Henry Bryan, Jr., in white marquisette, led the way to the dining room which was a vision of beauty. Its massive mahogany lent itself most effectively to the artistic arrangement of pink Killarney roses, asparagus fern and soft candle light.

The table, with its exquisite Sicilian lace cloth, had as an effective centerpiece, a handsome cut glass vase filled with Killarney roses and asparagus fern, violets also decorated the table while the chandelier, overhanging, was shaded with smilax.

Mrs. Delia Whitford, in black crepe de chine, received here and a delicious ice cream course was served by Misses Mary Nixon, Sara Congdon, Jane Stewart and Harriette Marks, all wearing blue charmeuse.

At eleven o'clock the receiving party were served a dainty collation.

STOLE MONEY FROM SAILORS

Rome, Nov. 14.—Alfonso Calderozo, the former bandmaster of the United States battleship, Utah, who disappeared a few days ago with about $3,000 entrusted to him by sailors of the Utah, Delaware, Vermont and Ohio for the expenses of an excursion to Rome, arrived here today. He explained that not understanding railway regulations he had missed several trains. He had previously admitted to G. A. Griffin, paymaster's clerk of the Utah whom he met at Ventimiglia that he would not be able to fulfil his obligations to the sailors, but today he expressed the hope that he would be able to arrange matters satisfactorily. A number of the sailors are here. Twenty-eight came from Villefranche today and will be received by the Pope tomorrow. It is expected that several hundred will be received by the Pope Sunday.

A dinner will be given tomorrow evening by the American Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page in honor of Rear Admiral Badger and the commanders of the battleships, several of whom are now here.

I Want More Coal

A great many pretty stoves at delightfully low prices are like Oliver Twist—always wanting more. What matters it how pretty a stove is—or how small the price—if it is going to eat so much coal that you have to go into the coal business in order to satisfy it. In buying a stove this is an important thing to look after.

The Tip Top Oak Hot Blast is as pretty a stove as you would wish to see, and this coal feature has been carefully looked after.
