(Special to the Journal.) Polloksville, Nov. 14 .- The people f this place are very much interested in politics just at this time regardless of the fact that several months will elapse before any of the candidates or offices will begin to "come out." The Polloksville people are heartily in favor of Charles R. Thomas for congressman, A. D. Ward for governor and S. M. Brison for Secretary o

The cotton yield in this section very short and much complaint is being heard from the farmers. The yield all over Jones county is not more than half that of 1912.

Quite a number of new people are coming to this section to make their home. Among these are Wm. F. Foy, of Craven county who has purchased and will remodel the residence of E. B. en county, who has purchased the home of J. H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parks of Olivers have also moved to Polloksville. When so many new people are moving to a new town is a stre thing that they know it is a good place in which to live. Many of the citizens of Polloksville... are interested in the present postoffice squabble at New Bern. While of course it cannot be predicted who will be appointed as the next postmaster in that city, there are many here who think that L. G. Daniels will be the fortunate

H. K. Land, proprietor of the New Bern Daily Journal, was among the business visitors in our town today and spent the day greeting his numerous friends. The Journal is an old standby in Jones county and its arrival every morning is awaited with much anticipation by the numerous subscribers. A revival is now in progress at the Presbyterian church and large crowds are attending the services daily. Rev. Gibbs, of Jacksonville and Rev. Shaw, of Wilmington are in charge of the meeting and they have already had number of conversions.

A movement is on foot here to organize a company to crect and operate a No. one Township, and described hardwood factory to manufacture axe helves, wagon hubs, etc. Must interest is being shown in the movement and it is believed that the project will be put through and the plant in operation at no late date.
