THE SOUTHERN WOMEN HONORED

Monument To Be Erected In Memory Women Of Confederacy Is Finished.

TO BE LASTING TRIBUTE
Represents Elderly Southern Woman Typifying Anxiety Of Early Sixties.

Mr. R. D. W. Connor, secretary of the committee selected by Mr. Ashley Horne to supervise the execution and erection of the memorial to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy, has returned from New York, where, with Mr. J. A. Long, of Roxboro, chairman of the committee, he inspected the completed monument. Mr. Long and Mr. Connor were both delighted with the monument which has been executed by Mr. Augustus Lukeman.

The monument represents an elderly Southern woman of the sixties, whose cultured features show the anxieties and sufferings experienced by the Southern women during the war without, however, having lost their refinement, telling the story of the war, of the deeds of heroism of the Confederate soldiers, to a boy of twelve or fourteen, presumably her grandson, who is kneeling on one knee at her side. In his hands is grasped a sword—the sword of his father, who has fallen in battle. The boy has evidently found the sword and brought it to his grandmother with inquiries about its history. As the grandmother dwells on the bravery and patriotism of the boy's father, the boy himself is inspired with patriotic sentiments, and eagerly, grasps the sword as if he, too, longs to dash away and imitate the deeds of his father in the service of his country. On one side of the monument is a bas-relief representing the women of the South bidding good-bye to the Southern soldiers at the beginning of the war, eager to rush to the battle field, fired with the inspiration received from the southern women; on the other side is a bas-relief representing the southern soldiers, in 1865, wounded, crippled in body by four long years of war, but dauntless in spirit, returning home, welcomed by the love and unflinching devotion of the southern women. The woman in the group is telling the boy the story of four years spanned by these two bas-reliefs.

In the monument, therefore, one reads not only the story of the work and heroism of the southern women during the war, but also the story of their services since the war in preserving the history of fame of the Confederate soldier, in vindicating the cause for which he died, and in teaching to his children lessons of patriotism of which his deeds have been the inspiration.

The figures in the group are heroic in size. They are now in plaster ready to be sent to the foundry to be cast into bronze.

The monument will be completed in bronze about April first and will be unveiled some time in April or May next. It will be erected immediately in front of the new State library building on Morgan street, on the site selected by Colonel Horne himself.—Raleigh Times.

MASS MEETING MONDAY NIGHT

Colonel Dell M. Potter, of Clifton, Ariz., To Speak At Court House.

LARGE ATTENDANCE IS URGED
May Result In New Bern Being On Southern National Highway.

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock a big mass meeting will be held at the Court House at which Colonel Dell M. Potter, of Clifton, Ariz., president of the Southern National Highway Association will deliver an address. It is also possible that Governor Locke Craig will be on hand and assist in the meeting.

T. G. Hyman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday received the following telegram from G. D. Canfield, of Morehead City, who has been in Philadelphia, Pa., for several days in the interest of getting New Bern and Morehead City on the route of the Southern National Highway:

"Colonel Dell M. Potter, of Clifton, Ariz., president of the Southern National Highway Association, has agreed to come to New Bern on Monday night and deliver an address in the interest of the highway. I am trying to get him to go through New Bern to Morehead City with the road. I wish you would arrange for a meeting at night, etc."

Following the receipt of this message Mr. Hyman called a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and an invitation was extended to Governor Locke Craig to come to New Bern tomorrow and assist in this meeting.

Governor Craig is a staunch believer in good roads and it is believed that he will attend this meeting if there is the least possible opportunity for him to get away from his official duties.

Colonel Potter is a speaker of marked ability and every citizen of New Bern is urged to be on hand and hear his address. Eight o'clock is the hour and the Court House is the place.

WINDOW DISPLAY ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION.

In page five of the Journal J. M. Mitchell & Company have something to tell you about these suits. Read what they have to say.

A lazy man does less harm than the active man who stirs up unnecessary trouble.

ARE MAINTAINING ORDER IN THE STRIKE ZONE

Both Company and Strikers Satisfied With Results of Walk-Out—Four Trains Operated—Want Engineers Reinstated

Houston, Texas, Nov. 15.—The first day of the strike of trainmen on the Atlantic division of the Southern Pacific Railroad, between New Orleans and El Paso, ended without disorder and tonight both the officials of the railroad company and the four union organizations involved expressed themselves as satisfied with the day's developments.

President W. B. Scott, of the railroad company, announced that besides two continental passenger trains operated today between El Paso, Texas, and New Orleans, passenger service was maintained between Dallas and Beaumont, Houston and Galveston and Houston and Victoria, Texas. No attempt was made to move freight and an embargo has been placed on the receipt of perishable commodities.

President Scott issued a statement to the strikers announcing "that the door was still open" if they cared to return to work.

At the headquarters of the strikers union officials stated that they were in receipt of information that only four trains had been operated on the lines involved since the strike was made effective.

Hope was still felt in many quarters that the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation, which has been enlisted to compose the situation, might secure a resumption of work pending arbitration. Railroad officials have consented to this method of settling the strike. Union officials, however, have refused to say whether they would sanction such an agreement.

Practically 2,500 men are out. Except for the two continental passenger trains, the entire Atlantic system, comprising a network of about 2,400 miles of track was tied up today.

The 67 requests for the men include reinstatement of many engineers and others declared to have been discharged in violation of the contracts, excessive imposition of demerit, requiring of many reports and other information outside of company time, regulations of lay-overs away from home terminals, requests for firemen on engines at certain points and monthly guarantees.

A Proclamation by the Governor

After the harvest is the Day of Thanksgiving. Toil has been rewarded in manifold abundance; the nation triumphs in progress and power. An altruistic awakening has quickened the conscience of our time; it has commanded the men in high places to nobler conceptions of public duty, and inspired the people with the hope and determination for advancement.

Therefore, I, LOCKE CRAIG, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in obedience to the custom established by our fathers, and in accordance with the Proclamation of the President of the United States, do proclaim

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, A HOLIDAY.

I call upon all the people to do no work upon this day; to make this a day of rest and rejoicing, and, in reality, a day of THANKSGIVING.

I earnestly hope that the day will be fully observed by the farmers, merchants, mechanics, manufacturers and by the men, women and children in all ranks and occupations.

I call upon the people to assemble in their places of worship that they may in reverence express to The Almighty their gratitude and faith; that human sympathies may be enlarged and the bonds of brotherhood acknowledged and strengthened.

Let us remember the poor and the unfortunate, and realize that it is more blessed to give than to receive.

We are the heirs of a precious heritage, and let us hope and strive that in this commonwealth righteousness may be exalted, and that to all men may come a full measure of justice, which is "grander than benevolence, more august than charity."

Done in our City of Raleigh, on this the twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and in the one hundred and thirty-eighth year of our American Independence.

By the Governor:
JNO. P. KERR,
Private Secretary.

PROHIBITION FOR ENTIRE NATION

Governor Hodges Says Liquor Traffic Will Soon Be Banished.

FORMER OFFICIAL ALSO SPEAKS
Tells Why He Changed His Convictions In Regard To Saloon.

Columbus, O., Nov. 15.—Predicting that a resolution prohibiting the traffic in intoxicants as beverages in the United States and all territories under its jurisdiction soon would be adopted by Congress and declaring that "if I am then Governor of Kansas I will immediately convene the Legislature in special session if necessary for the purpose of ratifying the amendment," Gov. George H. Hodges, of Kansas, tonight threw the fifteenth biennial convention of the American Anti-Saloon League into an uproar of applause.

Governor Hanna of North Dakota, another speaker, gave statistics to show the prosperity of his State under "prohibition" reign and said the "brewers' year book" showed no consumption in his State of their manufacture in 1911.

The day session was brought to a climax with stirring address by former Gov. M. R. Patterson, of Tennessee, in which he gave reasons for his enlisting with the anti-saloon movement.

"The Anti-Saloon League and I have not always been friends," said Mr. Patterson. "The paths we traveled were wide apart. But the path I traveled turned in its course. It ran to the other and we now find ourselves marching in the same direction, actuated by the same desire to destroy the traffic in liquor and redeem a nation from its course."

"I am neither ashamed nor abashed to stand before this great audience and acknowledge the wrong when I once advocated policies which would have made legal a trade which I have come to look upon as having no rightful place in Christian civilization."

Commenting on one of his own messages to the Tennessee Legislature in which he opposed further legislation to regulate the saloon traffic, Mr. Patterson declared that at that time those were his honest convictions based upon a misguided judgment. Continuing, he said:

"I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts where I have prosecuted crime. I know and have been a participant in its paralyzing and corroding influence in the social and public life of our National Capitol. As the Governor of Tennessee I have seen it a veritable and raging center of storm around which gathered its defenders and assailants, and from which sprang divisions in parties, disputes in families and dissensions in churches."

"Going through life I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood, blasting their hopes and consigning them to untimely graves. I have seen its forked lightning strike any first born—the child of my young manhood. At last I have felt its foul and stealthy blow as it turned upon me its deadly and shaming wrath—upon me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence."

"I cast aside all pride of opinion and went to the throne of Almighty God. There on bended knees I asked for light and strength and they came."

"The saloon cannot produce one veracious witness in its favor. It stands a convicted felon and must receive the sentence of the law. It must go, never to return and, with the going of the saloon, liquor itself should go."

The program of the convention calls for three sessions tomorrow, the convention concluding its work tomorrow night.

LOCOMOTIVE BROUGHT HERE TO BE REPAIRED.

Locomotive No. 36 of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, and which has been located at Raleigh, was brought to New Bern yesterday and placed in the local shops for repairs.

This locomotive a few days ago ran away on the shifting yard at Raleigh, and, in consequence, is pretty badly damaged.

Most men would be only too glad to be considered land poor.

Be a busy bee. It's always better to sting than to get stung.
We wouldn't mind being awkward enough to fall into a good thing.

END OF HUERTA NEAR AT HAND

Blanquet, After Holding Huerta Prisoner, Secures Promise To Resign.

PRESIDENT IS HOLDING OUT
War Minister Plans Coup D'Etat If Promise Is Not Kept.

Mexico City, Nov. 15.—General Blanquet, minister of war, is preparing for a coup d'etat, in case Huerta does not keep the personal pledge he has given that he will not try to hold on to the presidency.

Army officers have been ordered to take instructions only from the minister of war, and to hold themselves in readiness for immediate action. In now develops that Huerta was practically under arrest at Blanquet's home yesterday, and was allowed to leave only when he promised to quit the office. Blanquet is said to have shown him that an attempt to hold out against the United States was madness.

A special train has been ordered by the Government to be in readiness to go to Vera Cruz either tonight or tomorrow.

Blanquet expects to be chosen President ad interim tomorrow.

Mexico City, Nov. 15.—All efforts on the part of certain of the ministers of General Huerta's cabinet to induce the provisional president to resign, and prevent the new congress from convening, have come to a standstill. None of them now dares to broach to General Huerta the idea of withdrawing in response to the United States' demands.

The sudden change from the attitude of a majority of the ministers yesterday is due to the fact that William Bayard Hale was negotiating with General Carranza on behalf of the United States government. He was enraged when he learned of this phase of the scheme to oust him from the executive seat, and will now listen to no proposal of surrender.

It is said this evening that the optimistic reports were made on their own responsibility without having consulted Huerta.

The members of the diplomatic corps and high government officials believe that attempts to renew the negotiations with Special Envoy John Lind are doomed to failure, and that even if the ministers broached the subject, which is considered extremely unlikely, and the provisional president consented the United States would hardly reopen the subject at this late date. It is in fact, believed that the United States will make a final demand on Huerta tomorrow, and set a time limit for his answer.

A telegram from Vera Cruz says that John Lind transferred his baggage today from the Hotel Terminal to the battleship Louisiana.

FRESH EGGS TAKE TUMBLE IN GOTHAM.

New York, Nov. 15.—Fresh Eggs went down two cents a dozen today in the wholesale market, and the spirits of Mrs. Julian Heath, national president of the Housewives' league, and her co-workers, went up several points.

At a meeting of the egg committee of the league this afternoon it was decided to urge all housewives to hold-out for cheaper eggs until the price reaches thirty cents retail for the storage kind. Members of the league's "egg committee" will scatter around the city Monday on a still hunt for store where No. 1, cold storage eggs are sold. Housewives will be advised of the location of these places. The league will advise the women not to pay more than thirty-two cents a dozen for the eggs.

TWO WEEKS TERM OF COURT BEGINS TOMORROW.

A two weeks term of Craven county Superior Court, for the trial of civil cases will be convened in this city tomorrow morning. There are quite a number of cases on the docket to be disposed of during the session and it is probable that the entire term will be consumed in disposing of these.

One can usually tell by a man's whistle whether things are coming his way or not.
