

In The Social Realm

MY MOTHER.

She gave the best years of her life
With joy for me,
And robbed herself, with loving heart,
Unstintingly.

For me with willing hands she toiled
From day to day,
For me she prayed when headstrong youth
Would have its way.

Her gentle arms, my cradle once,
Are weary now;
And time has set the seal of care
Upon her brow.

And, though no other eyes than mine
Their meaning trace,
I read my history in the lines
Of her dear face.

And, 'mid His gems, who showers gifts
As shining sands,
I count her days as pearls that fall
From His kind hands.

WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION MEETS

LADIES OF TABERNACLE CHURCH HOLD INTERESTING SESSION.

(By Mrs. J. B. Phillips.)

Our monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, met as usual at the Lecture Room, at the Presbyterian church the 1st Thursday in the month December 4th.

After the routine business was attended to, we were gratified to hear the report of our delegate (Mrs. Lew Green), to the World's National and State Convention. Having a theme so full of interest and work of such magnitude to report Mrs. Green could barely give us a few touches of this great work.

The World's Convention met in Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 23-29, with 30 foreign countries represented by women of nobility; the World's President of W. C. T. U. Rosalind, Countess of Carlyle, could not be with us, so her charming daughter Lady Aurea Howard, delivered her mother's message at a reception given the world's convention at the Hotel Astor, on the evening of October 25th.

Among the many distinguished personages to meet and greet the World's delegates of W. C. T. U., none left upon the minds of the hearers a more pleasing impression of beautiful young Christian womanhood, than Lady Aurea Howard.

Countess of Carlyle's son, Earl Howard, was also present and in his presentation to the World's Convention paid a high tribute to his mother, Countess of Carlyle, for her work in England for Total Abstinence and the Temperance cause. He also brought us a gift of $1,000 for the World's Work in W. C. T. U.

Our motto for the World's W. C. T. U. is "For God, Home and all Humanity."

Our National President, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, being Vice-president of the World's W. C. T. U., presided over the World's Convention. The National Convention followed the World's at Asbury Park, N. Y., giving us a keener appreciation than ever of the ability of our beloved National President, she is a tribute to Miss Frances E. Willard's intuitive knowledge of humane nature, fitness and noble type of Christian Womanhood.

Miss Willard, a few months prior to her death, realizing her weakened condition, asked Mrs. Stevens to take up this work as a national president, she did so with faith and Christian courage, proving herself such a leader as today receives the homage and love of all the best men and women of the nation.

Two years ago, after a protracted and severe fight in Maine by the liquor men to wrest from her the prohibitory law which she had enjoyed for 50 years, Mrs. Stevens, at that time with clear, far seeing vision issued her famous proclamation for a saloonless Nation, at once marshaling all her forces toward this great campaign for National Constitutional Prohibition. Every delegate from the National Convention inspired by what had been accomplished left for their several States and homes with the determination to rouse the people as never before on this great cause. Only the fear of the editor's lack of space and encroaching on his universal kindness forbids my giving a more detailed account of Mrs. Green's report.

MARRIED

Joseph Godley of Askin, and Miss Essie Ippock of Vanceboro, were married in this city last evening by Justice of the Peace S. R. Street. Mr. and Mrs. Godley left last night for Askin where they will make their home.

A PLAY OF REAL MERIT.

The dramatic treat of the year, "Paid in Full," will be presented at the Masonic Theatre for one night only, December 11th.

"Paid in Full" is the best play ever written by an American dramatist. The story is a profoundly moving one, yet not without its lighter touches, and it is portrayed with an unerring realism that shows the author's thorough comprehension and understanding of the conditions he has thus ably depicted. Through it all runs a vein of sentiment that tugs at the heart with almost irresistible appeal. The acting company is headed by Eiley O'Connor, a Miss not yet out of her teens, but who has won her spurs on Broadway, and she has the support of one of the best acting companies ever in the South, each member being entirely adequate to the requirement of the various roles. The play is too well known to intelligent people to need comment, and the management guarantee a high-class, clean, clever production of this great play. Prices for the engagement are 25c. to $1.00. Seats on sale at Wood Lane Drug Store.

NEW BERN YOUNG LADY TO WED SNOW HILL MAN

MISS LISETTE HANFF'S ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

A delightful social event of the week was given by Misses Anna and Lisette Hanff Friday evening at their home on Pollock street.

An effective color scheme in white and red was attractively carried out in the decoration of the rooms. Lovely chrysanthemums and ferns were used in profusion, while red and white carnations in attractive Japanese baskets filled the house with their beauty and perfume.

After a pleasant hour was spent in social intercourse, booklets, decorated with hearts and horseshoes, were passed and the guests engaged in a most interesting and unique contest "Cupid's Romance of the Age," all questions were answered with words ending in "age."

Much merriment was caused by the contest, at the close of which, three were found to be most successful and by cutting the first prize, a lovely "Cupid," was won by Miss Mollie Heath and the second prize, a "groom" was won by Mrs. Thomas Warren. Suddenly little Miss Lucy Guion Dunn, impersonating "Cupid" came in with a silver basket, on whose handle perched "Dan Cupid."

The basket held gilded nuts, tied with ribbons, which were passed to the guests and when opened were found to contain the following announcement: "Miss Anna Pearce Announces the engagement of her niece, Lisette Bell Hanff to Mr. Thurlow Allen Kearns, January, 1914.

Immediately the guests showered the bride-to-be with their best wishes. Many original toasts, appropriate to the occasion were given. A big heart-shaped box, holding the fortune of each guest was passed, and there was much excitement and fun as each drew forth things characteristic, money for wealth, thimbles for spinsterhood and many other things.

The bridal scheme was carried out in the refreshments. Delicious ices and cake, lovely with hearts and cupids, and heart-shaped mints were served by Misses Charlotte Howard and Elizabeth Ashford.

Among those enjoying this delightful occasion were:

Misses Myrtle Disoway, Bessie Hollister, Sara Congdon, Mollie Heath, Mamie Weeks, Etta Nunn, Eula Cole, Bell, Lenora Greenbaum, Eva Armstrong, Maud Hurley, Appie Cahoon and Fannie Smallwood, Mrs. John Cox, Mrs. Carrie Cole, Mrs. John Suter, Mrs. David Congdon, Mrs. Thomas Warren, Mrs. Fred Richardson, Mrs. Hugh Lovick, Mrs. Hardison, Mrs. Owen Dunn, Mrs. Kate Spencer and Mrs. David Jarvis.

You will appreciate this advice on shoes

$4.00

You hear a lot, these days, about shortage of cattle, high cost of living, and so forth. Of course shortage of cattle affects the leather market. You can't buy "cowhide" shoes, if there's no "cowhide" to make them from, and if there's a scarcity of cattle, there's a scarcity of hides and a scarcity of LEATHER Shoes. You get this point.

HERE'S THE MOST IMPORTANT POINT

The name SELZ on a shoe means they are made of leather throughout, and are guaranteed in a way that leaves no doubt, that they are going to give the wearer better service and longer wear than usually expected, because they are honestly made.

It pays you in dollars and cents as well as comfort of mind and body to insist on SELZ. That's the kind we specialize in, and it gives us pleasure to show them. For men, women and children.
