

The Voters Want C. R. Thomas To Represent Them

They Know That He Is A Man Who Does Good Work

HIS PAST RECORD AN ENVIABLE ONE

His Work In Congress Could Not Be Surpassed

No more popular candidate for Congress has ever in the history of the Third District entered the race for nomination as representative to Congress from this district than Hon. Charles R. Thomas, who is again in the race for this office after having faithfully and well served his people for twelve years.

Hon. Charles R. Thomas did so much for the Third District while he was in Congress that the voters know well that he is the man to send back to the next Congress and there is not the slightest doubt but that they will do this.

Yesterday the Journal set forth a few of the many appropriations secured for the district by Mr. Thomas while he was in Congress and also told in a brief way, of his work there.

For the sixth consecutive time Hon. Charles R. Thomas, of Craven county, was re-nominated for Congress yesterday at Goldsboro.

The representative of this district has intrusted to him not only the agricultural interests of the district, but appropriations for rivers and harbors, light-houses, life-saving stations, and many other important matters involving the welfare of his constituents.

It has been the representative for the past ten years of such a constituency and he has been re-nominated for the past ten years of such a constituency (from the National House of Representatives) in an exceedingly high house to Representative Thomas.

CENTENARY'S NEW PASTOR A TIRELESS WORKER

WORKING UP INTEREST IN A NEW BIBLE CLASS

If you meet a man walking down the street with a small red button on the lapel of his coat in the center of which is the letter "W," don't get it into your head that the wearer is a member of some new secret organization or an advocate of some new political creed.

Just after coming to New Bern, Rev. Euclid McWhorter, the new pastor of Centenary Methodist church, decided to organize the Wesleyan Bible Class, a class which is to be composed of two hundred or more of the business men in the city.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE

Given Last Evening by Imperial Orchestra

New Bern should feel proud, and indeed fortunate, in having an orchestra such as the Imperial. Last evening they gave a most enjoyable dance at the Armory, and it is useless to say that every one there thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The voters still know that Hon. Charles R. Thomas is still the strong, forceful man he was at that time and they know that if he is sent back to Congress that he will again do great work there.

DORTCH CAN'T MOVE OFFICE

U. S. Marshal Must Transact His Business in Raleigh.

VISITORS AT WASHINGTON

Two Banks Apply To Enter The Federal Reserve System.

Washington, Jan. 9.—It is pretty well settled that Marshal Webb will be allowed to move his office to Asheville. Mr. Webb will be in Washington Monday when it is understood the order will be signed allowing the office to be moved.

The request of Judge Connor and Marshal Dortch to move the office of marshal from Raleigh to Goldsboro has been denied.

Senator Overman, accompanied by Mrs. Overman and Misses Grace and Katherine, returned to Washington this morning. Miss Grace will continue her studies at Cathedral institute, while Mrs. Overman and Miss Katherine will spend the winter at the Cochran.

Senator Overman called at the department of justice and went over the Hammer papers with Assistant Attorney General Graham.

Additional letters of indorsement were filed in favor of Hammer today. Senator Overman called at the treasury department and told the officials that the people of North Carolina were working to have a regional reserve bank established either at Richmond or Washington which will include North Carolina in its territory.

The Commercial National bank, of Raleigh, the first national of Durham and the Shuford National of Newton have applied to enter the federal reserve system.

GRAVEN COUNTY TEACHERS MEET

Gather At Vanceboro For Their Regular Monthly Meeting.

MORE THAN FIFTY PRESENT

Work In The Public Schools Was Inspected.

The largest session of the Craven county Teachers' Association for this term was held at Vanceboro yesterday. More than fifty teachers of the county were present as well as many visitors from this and other counties.

The first session was held in the school auditorium at 10:30 o'clock. The teachers divided into groups each with a leader assigned, and for two hours critically observed the work of the different grades.

In the afternoon the leaders led in a discussion on the work of the different grades and many valuable points were made and helpful suggestions given.

The Vanceboro school is an excellent one, and the teachers are exceptionally well equipped for their work. The leaders in this observation work were: Miss Mary Summerell, of Dover, First Grade; Miss Emily Spencer, second grade; Miss Pigott, of Fort Barnwell, third and fourth grades; Miss Reba Morton, Bellair, fifth and sixth grades.

This new venture was a marked success, and all the teachers expressed themselves as being greatly helped.

At the afternoon session Supt. Thos. R. Foust, of Guilford county, and Supt. Taylor Atmore, of Pamlico and Supt. H. B. Craven, of New Bern schools, delivered excellent addresses. Mr. G. V. Richardson, School Committeeman of Dover, spoke upon the subject, "Co-operation of Committeemen and Teachers." His address was much enjoyed.

The people of Vanceboro gave the teachers a splendid reception.

A splendid lunch was served the teachers in Howard Hall by the ladies of Vanceboro, and a delightful ride was given by the citizens of the town.

Dr. Turlington and the teachers of the Farm-Life School gave a reception to the teachers, and a visit was made through this institution.

A day of pleasure and profit was spent in Vanceboro yesterday and the teachers, by a rising vote, expressed their appreciation of all the nice things prepared for them by the Vanceboro people.

WELL KNOWN GRAVEN COUNTY FARMER HERE

J. M. WHITFORD, OF ASKINS, FAVORS HON. C. R. THOMAS.

J. M. Whitford, of Askins, one of Craven county's most prominent farmers, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday. Mr. Whitford stated that the general condition of his section of the county just at this time was good and that the citizens there were well pleased.

The subject of the probable selection of a candidate for congress was brought up and when asked as to whom he thought was the favorite of the voters in that section, Mr. Whitford unhesitatingly replied, "Hon. Charles R. Thomas."

Continuing his remarks he said that Hon. Charles R. Thomas' record while he was in Congress was excellent and that the majority of the Democratic voters of that section are heartily in favor of sending him back for another term.
