ANNABEL LEE.

It was many and many a year ago,
In a kingdom by the sea,
That a maiden there lived whom you
may know
By the name of Annabel Lee;
And this maiden she lived with no
other thought
Than to love and be loved by me.

I was a child and she was a child,
In this kingdom by the sea,
But we loved with a love that was
more than love,
I and my Annabel Lee;
With a love that the winged seraphs
of heaven
Coveted her and me.

And this was the reason that long ago
In this kingdom by the sea,
A wind blew out of a cloud, chilling
My beautiful Annabel Lee;
So that her high-born kinsman came
And bore her away from me,
To shut her up in a sepulchre
In this kingdom by the sea.

The Angels, not half so happy in heaven,
Went envying her and me;
Yes!—that was the reason (as all
men know,
In this kingdom by the sea)
That the wind came out of a cloud by night
Chilling and killing my Annabel Lee.

But our love it was stronger by far than the love of those who were older than we;
And neither the angels in heaven
above,
Nor the demons down under the sea,
Can ever dissever my soul from the soul
Of the beautiful Annabel Lee.

For the moon never beams, without bringing me dreams
Of the beautiful Annabel Lee;
And the stars never rise, but I feel
the bright eyes
And so all the night tide, I lie down
by the side
Of darling—my darling—my life and
my bride,
In the sepulchre there by the sea—
In the tomb by the sounding sea.
—Edgar A. Poe.

THE SHAKESPEARE CLUB WAS ENTERTAINED

MISSSES SARA STEWART AND LAURA IVES WERE GUESTS.

The Shakespeare Club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Misses Sara Stewart and Laura Ives, at Miss Stewart's beautiful home on Pollock street. The club is now studying Henry IV. Mrs. T. D. Warren, residing in a most interesting manner a synopsis of Scene 1 and 2 of Act 2, and after the usual routine of work had been disposed of, Miss Mollie Heath read a resolution, which was ordered spread upon the minutes, entitled "Appreciation of the services rendered by our Second Vice-President, Miss Lisette Hanff," which disclosed Miss Heath's gift in expressing things both in a humorous and unique way, the reading of which caused unusual merriment, and this was immediately followed by the guests showering Miss Hanff, whose marriage takes place the evening of January 28th, with many beautiful Handkerchiefs; they were tossed from every nook and corner of the room each little handkerchief having attached to it a card bearing an appropriate quotation from Shakespeare.

The bride-to-be, in her naive little way gracefully thanked all for their gifts, and dainty refreshments, consisting of tea, sandwiches and wafers were then served. The members of the Club, on departing, voting the meeting of the most pleasant of the season. Those present were: Mesdames O. H. Guion, Chas. Duffy, Mary Windley, Blandford, B. E. Moore, T. D. Warren, Bonner, Owen Dunn, Chas. Thomas, H. B. Marks, Geo. Henderson, L. L. Dameron, C. D. Bradham, Misses Dita Roberts, Bettie Windley, Myrtle Disoway, Appie Cahoon, Eula Cole, Anna Hanff, Mollie Heath, Lisette Hanff, Nina Basnight, the visiting guests being Mrs. Chas. Ives, Mrs. R. P. Stevens and Miss Guipe.

CITY BEAUTIFUL CLUB HOLDS MONTHLY MEET

MANY IMPORTANT MATTERS WERE DISPOSED OF DURING SESSION.

(By Mrs. Mattie W. Moore.)
The regular monthly meeting of the City Beautiful Club was held Monday, with the chairman, Mrs. T. D. Warren, presiding.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. W. H. Newell, Mrs. Nelson Angell was appointed secretary, pro tem., and read the roll call and minutes of the previous meeting.

Items of expense incident to the Municipal Christmas tree were reported and it was decided that it had proved worth while to have had this tree in spite of the inclement weather which unfortunately storm which brought the tree to an untimely end. At least we have established a precedent here for a public Christmas tree which we hope to continue.

The Club accorded Miss Stewart a rising vote of thanks for her ceaseless activities in getting this project through and, upon motion, it was decided to publicly thank Supt. Hodges of the Water and Light plant and Mr. T. G. Hyman, J. B. Blades and Mayor Bangert for valuable assistance in opportune time.

The Club hopes to have the long intended Flower Mart and Basket Sale some time in February if the baskets arrive in time. On this occasion you will be able to buy flower bulbs and seeds, as well as cut and growing flowers, and lovely wicker and Japanese baskets of various sizes and shapes at bargain prices.

The chair appointed new committees for the various lots about town under the management of the City Beautiful Club.

Mrs. R. N. Duffy chairman for the erection of a public drinking fountain reported that she had received estimates from several marble firms giving dimensions and prices of such a fountain as is contemplated, but no definite design had, as yet, been accepted. This fountain is to be both ornamental and useful, permitting a place for man and beast to slake their thirst, and to bear out in design emblems of New Bern. This is a big project for the Club to undertake, but it is believed that the club is strong enough to do big things, and there is no lasting public service that outrisks a public drinking fountain that shall be highly ornamental and yet a useful sanitary dispenser of flowing water.

The committee on the business before the club, prior to adjournment was advised.

LECTURE TONIGHT

There will be a stenographic lecture in the Parish House tonight at eight o'clock, after which a silver offering will be taken. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearce, of Jacksonville, passed through the city yesterday enroute to Gastonia for a few weeks' visit.

Miss Minnie Skinner who has been the guest of G. W. Skinner, of this city, left yesterday for Norfolk, returning home.

DELIGHTFUL OYSTER ROAST ON BOARD HOUSE BOAT

MR. FRED ABERLY HOST TO A NUMBER OF FRIENDS.

One of the most delightful events of the season was an oyster roast given last night on board of the house-boat Royal, by Fred Aberly to a number of friends.

The party boarded the craft at the foot of Pollock street and sailed down Neuse river for several miles. During the voyage roasted oysters and their appetizances were served and these were immensely enjoyed.

Mr. Aberly's guests were: Misses Nancy Watson, Bertha Hawk, Edna Watson, Bessie Hawk, Mable Bartling, R. R. Eagle, Carl Bartling, A. T. Willis and H. K. Land; Mrs. and Mrs. J. J. Tolson, Jr., chaperoned the party.

Cretonne Furnishings for the Bedroom

CRETONNE, because of the many beautiful patterns in which it is designed, and its excellent wearing qualities, is made up into a greater number of furnishing accessories than ever before. It will stand much laundering (if the washing is done properly) and it comes in innumerable flowered patterns suitable for the bedroom of man, woman or child.

The best effects are achieved when one starts with plain walls in some attractive tint or in a neutral color, and with sheer white curtains at the windows. Having these, the next thing to do is to select a pattern in cretonne that will harmonize with the wall and be suitable to the person for whom the room is to be prettily furnished.

The windows first are provided with curtains of the cretonne. A box seat is covered with it and provided with two or perhaps three cushions with the same covering. Then one proceeds to make the small convenient belongings that are to be used on the dressing table or chiffonier.

There must be a pin cushion, a glove box and a handkerchief box. There may be other things—a little cabinet for trinkets, a whisk broom holder, a photograph frame, a candle shade, a work basket, a laundry bag, etc., but one must not overlook the pretty cretonne by making the many accessories and putting them in places in the room.

It is best with such furnishings to dress the bed in white and to use a white dresser scarf. Or the bed will look well with a cretonne covering having net or lace spread over it, or one made of sheer fabric so that the colors in the cretonne will just show through.

Men like strong colorings, deep reds and greens, strong blue, gold and bronze. For women softer colors and rich, intricate patterns are chosen, and for young people and children sparsely scattered, familiar field flowers, of the kind they know and love. A ground of the same color as that in the wall (but not necessarily in the same shade) graced with a gay pattern in flowers, or conventional designs, will be sure to be pleasing. The background in cretonnes should be rather light, so that a room will look very cheerful even on a dark, dreary looking day.

Pasteboard boxes are used to make foundations for toilet table accessories. The cretonne is pasted to them. It is not at all difficult to handle. The success and beauty of a room so furnished depends upon the selection of the right pattern and on knowing when to quit. Although the cretonne is used in pretentious houses as a wall covering, instead of paper or frescoing, too much surface covered with gayly colored flowers is tiresome. A bedroom should be dainty and restful.
