HIRED AN ASSASSIN TO END HIS LIFE

AVERTED TO COMMITTING SUICIDE SO TOOK UNIQUE COURSE

NEW BERN, N. C., Dec. 11.—(Special to The Journal.)—The life of a man who has been in the city for some time, and who is well known to the people here, has been a life of suffering and sorrow. He has been afflicted with a disease which has made his life a constant struggle. He has tried every remedy, but to no avail. He has become so weak and so feeble that he has been unable to do his work, and he has been unable to support his family. He has become so despondent that he has decided to end his life. He has hired an assassin to do the deed for him. He has given the assassin a large sum of money, and he has told the assassin that he will give him more money if he succeeds in killing him. The assassin has accepted the offer, and he has been waiting for the right opportunity to strike. He has been watching the man, and he has seen him go to his room every night. He has seen him get into bed, and he has seen him fall asleep. He has seen him wake up in the morning, and he has seen him get up and go to work. He has seen him eat and drink, and he has seen him talk to his family. He has seen him live, and he has seen him die. He has seen him breathe his last breath, and he has seen him close his eyes for the last time. He has seen him lie in state, and he has seen him be buried in the ground. He has seen him rest in peace, and he has seen him rise again. He has seen him live, and he has seen him die. He has seen him breathe his last breath, and he has seen him close his eyes for the last time. He has seen him lie in state, and he has seen him be buried in the ground. He has seen him rest in peace, and he has seen him rise again. He has seen him live, and he has seen him die. He has seen him breathe his last breath, and he has seen him close his eyes for the last time. He has seen him lie in state, and he has seen him be buried in the ground. He has seen him rest in peace, and he has seen him rise again.

TO CHANGE COLOR OF LACE

White May Be Made Over Into Creamy Hue, Just Now So Much in Popular Favor.

Have you ever noticed that cream colored lace is usually more expensive than white lace, even of the same pattern? Not being able to buy any cream lace cheap, it occurred to me that there must be some way of changing white to cream. I had a trial, and at last, she gave me the following recipe, which I have since put into practice with fine results.

Buy five or ten cents' worth of French ochre in powder at any paint store. Mix three parts of ordinary white talcum powder with one part of the ochre for a light cream color, or if a darker shade of cream is desired, use more ochre. Put the mixture in a bowl and rub the lace with it, using a brush if the pattern is heavy. Rub the lace with a clean cloth until the mixture is removed. Wash the lace in warm water, and dry it in the sun. The lace will now be a beautiful cream color, and will retain its color for a long time.

China's Temple of Heaven.

China's famous temple of heaven was formerly visited once a year by the emperor to give an account of his empire and its affairs during the previous twelve months. This was set forth in writing, and the manuscripts were then placed in the furnace and in that way consigned to the emperor in heaven. The temple of heaven is one of the most beautiful and interesting sights of picturesque Peking.
