BACK of OUR THICK WALLS AND STRONG LOCKS IS THE SAFE PLACE TO HIDE YOUR MONEY PUT YOUR MONEY IN OUR BANK THEN YOU HAVE IT SAFE

If you bury your money some one may SEE you or may find it. You might die without anybody knowing of its whereabouts. If you hide it behind a picture; under the carpet, in a sugar bowl or the coal bin, a burglar can just come and get it. That's the burglars business. Study this picture and you will hid yours in our Bank.

ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S "TREASURE ISLAND."

One of the greatest stories ever written is Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island. There is not a school boy or girl in New Bern who has not read this interesting story and wished that they could see a dramatization of the book.

The Warner Feature Picture Company have succeeded in securing a marvellous adaptation of this great story of adventure and today this three-reel subject will be shown at the Star theatre.

Buried treasure is one of the very foundations of romance. This thrilling Warner's feature follows Stevenson's original story closely and the result is a stirring production depicting the merry life of a private crew and their hunt for buried treasure.

Billy Bones dies of apoplexy at Mrs. Hawkins' inn, leaving a sea chest which contains a map of Treasure Island. John Silver and his private band endeavor to get possession of the map but fail. Mrs. Hawkins and her son John, set sail with Squire Trelawney and Doctor Liversey, to reclaim the treasure.

Silver and all of Flint's old pirate crew manage to get aboard the ship as sailors. Jim Hawkins, the cabin boy, concealed in an apple barrel, overhears Silver plotting to seize the ship and kill the owner. The treasure hunters escape by a small boat to the old stockade and there repel the pirates in a fierce battle. Later, Jim, wandering about the Island, comes across Ben Gunn, half-crazed, who had been left on the island three years before by the pirates. Gunn has found the gold and piled it up in his cave. For a piece of cheese, he reveals it to Dr. Liversey, who then saves Jim's life by offering the useless map to the pirates. They find the old treasure hole by the aid of the map, but the treasure is gone! They turn on Silver and Jim. Silver, at bay, gives Jim a pistol, and they shoot two of the pirates, just as the Doctor and Ben Gunn come to their assistance and the three remaining pirates run for their lives.

The Doctor, Jim and Silver now go to Ben Gunn's cave, where they find the Captain and the Squire and the treasure. "Of all the crew that sailed alive, Not one came back of seventy-five."
