Athens TODAY VAUDEVILLE

Harvey W. Smith and Frank Marino, in "when base meets tenor." Mr. Smith has a surprisingly deep base voice—about the best ever heard on a vaudeville stage in this town. Mr. Marino who is an Italian has an excellent tenor voice. Both received round after round of applause last night.

5 PICTURES 5

Another three reel special feature today.

THE PARASITE

(featuring Arthur Johnson.) This subject is a very interesting one as well as edifying one. It shows how a man and his wife tried to blackmail a wealthy man, and the various plans and schemes they resorted to, only to culminate in complete downfall—a sad story splendidly told.

Bronco Billy and Bad Man

A feature Western drama, with G. M. Anderson.

"Scotland Forever"

A Vitagraph Comedy—a good one too—featuring Hughie Mack, the big fat comedienne—Tomorrow another excellent picture from the exclusive service, "The Rogues of Paris," a powerful detective story in four reels. Matinee daily at 3:45. Shows at night start at 7:45 and 9:15.
