TIMELY ADDRESSES WILL BE MADE DURING THE SESSIONS IN RALEIGH.

RALEIGH, April 24.—The 18th annual convention of the North Carolina Banker's association will be held in Raleigh May 12 to 14.

The association will convene Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, in the hall of the house of representatives at the capitol.

The program for the convention promises to be of interest to all bankers who can avail themselves of the opportunity to attend. Hon John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency; Charles W. Tillett, of Charlotte, and Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, will be the principal speakers. The subjects upon which they will talk are of great interest to the banks of the state at this time.

Reduced rates have been secured on all of the railroads, on the certificate plan.

The Raleigh bankers have provided many social features for those who attend, and as the capital city is known throughout the State for its hospitality, nothing is more certain than that every person who attends the convention will be delighted with the social features.

CANDIDATE COPPAGE TALKS TO VOTERS

My Countrymen:
 As I have formerly announced my candidacy for a legislator and wishing to keep my name fresh in your memory, I am again writing to say the old pot is boiling and I am anxious to secure the crown of honor at your hands.

As I am a young man born of American parents, brought up under the teachings of democracy, even in the days of rebellion and to the present, I am proud to point the honor which my parents have accepted at the hands of so liberal a race and to those willing to place my confidence and work for the good cause, and for such democracy am I appealing for my country and my race, that which so great a people cannot refuse the lifting hand of youth which is the pride of our country. And in the same strain I ask the ladies, old men and our younger generation for their careful thought and kind word. I, in return, promise to watch the future fight for the honor and maintain the cause of love in the good old land of chivalry which we hope all nations would regard.

To the business men keeping in mind our awakening farmers and their dependents, I will legislate to the best of all interest by not leaving the laws of Christianity which teaches, a thing that hurts no one and does some one good, except of it (and a thing that hurts some and does no one good is evil, shun it.) While feeling with joy the outlook for my success I will thank any one to bring to my notice should one of my worthy opponents raise any question that would be detrimental or poison your mind of me, so I can answer in open fold in honor or regret to my sponsors.

With wishes that I could look each man in the face and ask him for his support, I with unbound faith in you, must say I cannot do so, from lack of time and business. Hoping of getting better acquainted, I am,
 D. W. Coppage,
 Vanceboro, N. C. (adv.)
