JACK JOHNSON WILL FIGHT AGAIN SOON

GETTING IN READINESS FOR BATTLE WITH MORAN ON JUNE 27TH.

(By Frank G. Menke.)
NEW YORK, June 12.—This is to remind those who care to be reminded that J. Johnson, an ebony hued punching pugilist, formerly of the U. S. A., and Francis Moran, who comes from Pittsburgh, and who is as nearly white as any one can be who comes from there, are scheduled to stage a fight on June 27th in that gay and giddy Paree.

It will be noted that we said SCHEDULED to stage a FIGHT. That let's us out. Some souls are brave enough to come right out and say that the two persons above mentioned WILL FIGHT. But such a statement, in our opinion, exceeds the extreme limit of poetic license, or whatever license it is that one exceeds when one makes a positive statement with nothing positive to back it up.

Many things may happen during the next few days to bring about a cancellation of this much talked of bout. Who can say that Johnson, during that period, will not be pinched for auto speeding, smoking in the subway, treason, arson, piracy, or sneezing into the face of a Paris policeman? And if one or several of these little things should happen to him "Li' Ahtuh," probably won't get out in time to be among those present on the night of the fight.

And Francis, too, must be considered as a possible—even probable cause—of calling off the match at the eleventh hour. The Pittsburgh gladiator may experience a sudden change of heart and also of foot temperature before the p. m., of June 27th. Wouldn't be surprising. Francis may be a brave soul and all that, but brave as he is, he must feel some qualm as the hour approaches when he must dare what so few have dared—get himself shoved into a ring with this fighting black man.

If Francis' pedals become icy and his courage oozes forth, and that match is called off on that account the real facts will not be given out. We will be told that Francis, during training, busted his left hand, right elbow, nine ribs, and his wishbone, and that he suddenly had become possessed of apendicitis, barber's itch and suspended animation.

But even if Francis doesn't get cold feet, and Ahtuh doesn't get himself pinched, and they do meet in the ring, it doesn't necessarily follow that a FIGHT will take place. Of course, there may be a real fight, but only about two percent of the general public seems to feel that way. Forty-nine per cent of the remaining ninety-eight think the bout will be a frameup, while the other forty-nine think it will be a slaughter with Johnson doing the butchering.

This proposed Johnson-Moran affair has caused about as much discussion as any fight since the big black man grabbed the crown from Jeffries. So many things are to be considered in an attempt to "dope" out the result that the betting fraternity is baffled and up to the present moment we have not heard of any real bet being placed on the outcome of the fight.

Some of the best little ring experts in the country seem to feel that Johnson ought to be a 5 to 1 to 10 to 1 favorite in the betting. Some of Moran's supporters are so confident that he will beat "smoke" that it is said they will be willing to take all the 3 to 1 and even 2 to 1 money, that will be offered at the last minute. The general public, however, is keeping its money in its jeans and no doubt will keep it there.

The possibility of the fight being a frame up is one that is to be considered. And then the question arises: How far has the negro gone back? Is he out of condition and totally unfit to put up a championship fight, as has been reported a half dozen times? Has there been any real improvement in the last year in the ability of Moran, who only a year ago was a second rate "white hope"? Certain it is that if Moran hasn't improved much over what he was a year ago he will have a mighty slim chance against Johnson, even if Johnson has receded a considerable distance from where he was when he fought Jeffries.

Considerable stress is being laid on the fact that Johnson has a fast and giddy life since he became a champion. Yet he was quite as giddy a young blade before he won the championship as he has been since. The fact that it is not generally known is simply because in the days before he became a champion, he was given scarce notice in the newspapers and his personal doings weren't chronicled as far and as wide as they have been since. Of course, Johnson is a bit older than he was in 1910. And age hasn't helped him, nor has his dissipation helped him. But the main question is:

Has Johnson gone so far back in four years and Moran come so far forward in one year that the once-time second rate white fighter has a chance against the black man who, less than four years ago, was called the greatest human fighting machine of the age?
