

DIG REWARD OFFERED FOR BROWNIE CAMERA

NEW YORKER WILL PAY $500 RETURN OF CAMERA AND ROLL OF FILM.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Five hundred dollars reward for a Brownie camera and a roll of undeveloped, but exposed film. That is what George O. Jones, who lives at the Buckingham Hotel, offers for a camera and film which he asserts disappeared from his apartment Monday afternoon. On the film were two photographs of a young woman, Mr. Jones says. At the same time a diamond pin and some other jewelry vanished, but he is willing to surrender the jewelry, besides paying the reward, to get the film.

"The young woman has gone to Europe," Mr. Jones said yesterday. "I have no other photographs of her, nor can I get any. It may seem foolish, but those photographs are worth just that much to me."

In an effort to get back the film that he prizes so highly Mr. Jones inserted this advertisement in the "Lost and Found" column:

$500 reward will be paid for return of small Brownie camera containing six undeveloped films, taken June 1, together with diamond pin and other jewelry, from my apartment, at No. 621 Fifth avenue; person may keep jewelry if camera returned with films intact. Communicate with George O. Jones, Buckingham Hotel.

Mr. Jones would not reveal the name of the young woman who posed for the photographs. He said they were taken at a Long Island Club, the young woman posing in his automobile. He declared he had thought of sending notice to all photographers in this city giving a description of the photographs, so that if the film is taken in for development it may be identified.

HIS BRIDE A THIEF HE SECURES DIVORCE

HARVARD GRADUATE SAYS WIFE BROKE PAROLE TO MARRY HIM.

TACOMA, June 16.—Charging that his bride, Hope Granville Bowles, had confessed to him that she was under suspended sentence for larceny committed in Portland and had broken her parole when she married him, Jesse C. Bowles, graduate of Harvard University, told the story of his short wedded life to Judge King Dykeman and obtained a divorce.

Mrs. Bowles was represented by lawyers but was not in the courtroom. Judge Dykeman granted cash alimony of $2,000 to Mrs. Bowles.

The couple were married in Everett on May 19 and started on a honeymoon to Alaska on the steamship Mariposa. On their return a week ago Bowles immediately began divorce proceedings by the service of papers. The complaint was filed yesterday.

Bowles told the court that his marital troubles began immediately after the marriage, when his wife became too friendly with chance acquaintances on the Mariposa. Notwithstanding Bowles' protests she made new acquaintances among the men passengers.

Mrs. Bowles afterward confided to him, he said, that she had been released under a suspended sentence in Portland on a larceny charge, paroled in the custody of her parents at Baker City, Ore., and had broken her parole when she left the State to marry him.

In the answer filed by Mrs. Bowles she denied the allegations. Her attorneys admitted that the couple could not live together. C. D. Bowles, father of the bridegroom, told the court he had investigated the Oregon experiences of young Mrs. Bowles, and her statements to her husband on their honeymoon had been verified.

Jesse C. Bowles is well known in Seattle. He studied at the University of Washington before going to Harvard. He is now in business with his father at Seattle, the firm being the Bowles Company. He was president of his class at the University of Washington.

Mrs. Bowles formerly lived in New York, where Bowles met her. Subsequently her parents moved to Oregon. By letters she and Bowles arranged to meet at Everett and get married. Their families were notified after the ceremony.

WHAT ONE WOMAN HAS TO SAY ABOUT IT—RE-MARRYING AT FORTY-SEVEN

In the July Woman's Home Companion a widow tells why she is going to marry at forty-seven. She opens her article with the following somewhat breezy statement of the facts:

"I am forty-seven years old, and I have been a widow seventeen years. I have wanted to marry again full fifteen years of my widowhood, but I didn't have the courage to do it till about a month ago. Merrimac couldn't be more shocked if the minister's daughter had eloped with an actor. Almost to a woman my neighbors have said: 'Well, Louisa, I suppose you have your reasons, but it does seem strange—at your age—'

"What's the matter with my age?" "I'm just in the prime of life, stronger than either of my daughters when it comes to housework. There's not a gray hair in my head, and my skin is like a girl's. Not that I care to count much, nor that I am vain, but I rather object to their laying me away on a shelf at forty-seven, when, if I follow the example of most of my ancestors, I'll probably live till I'm seventy-seven, thirty years more."

NEW BUNCOMBE CHAIRMAN

J. Walter Haines Will Head Campaign of Democratic Campaign.

ASHEVILLE, June 16.—J. Walter Haines, a well known member of the Asheville bar, yesterday was recommended by the Democratic candidates for offices for the position of chairman of the Buncombe County Executive Committee. Mr. Haines' name will be presented to the committee at its next meeting which will be held here at an early date and in view of the fact that the committee always name the man suggested by the candidates, it is expected that no other name will be presented as the successor to Chairman Louis M. Bourne, who has served since last April. The latter was elected to fill the unexpired term of J. Ed. Swain and he stated to the candidates yesterday that he could not give the necessary time to the office.

The candidates yesterday signed resolutions pledging themselves to refrain from the use of money or any other means except for legitimate expenses in the coming campaign. While preparations were made for waging an aggressive campaign, it will be conducted on a high plane.

DELAWARE DON'T LIKE THE WHIPPING POST

LEGISLATURE WILL HEAR REASONS FOR AND AGAINST IT. SOME OF THE PLEAS.

WILMINGTON, DEL. June 16.—Notwithstanding that the whipping post is fortified behind the arguments of its most influential and representative citizens, including its Governor, members of the State judiciary, police authorities and even the M. E. Preachers' Association, this instrument of corporal punishment is going to be called upon to show cause for its existence at the next session of the Legislature.

Members of the Society of Friends, Socialists and others have united in a campaign looking to the banishment of the whipping post.

The chief argument for retention is that it is an effective crime deterrent.

There is no great physical torture attached to the flogging of a man convicted of robbery or wife-beating—Delaware wife-beaters are included in the case who are whipped upon conviction. They were originally included, but shortly after the Civil War they were exempted. A few years ago, however, wife-beaters became so prevalent that the lash again was prescribed for them.

The physical suffering is not great. The jailers who whip the offenders are humane men and no blood is ever drawn. So far as actual torture goes the flogging are perfunctory. Whippings, however, do appear to humiliate the offender, but they come back in a great many cases for additional doses, so that it would appear that the main argument of those in Delaware today who are firm believers in the post is weakened in every way.

FIRST WHISKEY KILLS HIM

Young Man Dies After Convivial Evening with Friends.

PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—After dropping unconscious in his home last night, Edward Cavanaugh, Jr., twenty one, died early this morning at the Woman's Homeopathic Hospital.

According to the police, Cavanaugh went for a stroll with several friends last night. He never had drunk whiskey before. During the evening he had several drinks.

He returned home, and according to father, was not intoxicated. He went to the cellar to remove a nail from his shoe, and called that he was dying. His father rushed to his aid, but he died a few minutes later.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
