THURSDAY JUNE 25 1914

There's one consolation during this hot weather and that is: New Bern hot weather and that is: New Bern is not the only place suffering from the heat. All over the country Old Sol is making conditions miserable and in for there are a lot of places where the fact there are a lot of places where the temperature is considerably higher than in this and other states. in this city.

We expect soon to hear that the State Executive Committee has been befriended by some defeated candidate who will offer his legal services to defend them against the attacks of Hon. Charles R. Thomas.

Newspaper editors come into contact with all varieties of free space grafters but about the worst of these is the United States Government. Every day the mails are flooded with "newspaper announcements" from the government which are nothing but ads and yet the newspapers are expected to run them absolutely without a standing the shoool had under its forpenny of renumeration. Notices of civil service examinations, postoffice announcements and the like are being sent out by the thousands each day and many an editor allows them to go in as news when in fact they are not news. We will be glad to see the day when the editors refuse to be buncoed in this way and will compel the government to pay for every line of space

THE CANVASS OF THE VOTE

We would call particular attention to the fact that the tabulated lists of the votes cast in the recent Congressional Preferential Primary in this district do not give the votes in a form by which a calculation can be made from them according to the rules.

The rules require that "if no one of said candidates receive a majority of the votes cast the counting shall continue, and the candidate receiving the fewest number of votes on each count, shall be eliminated from the contest and the choice expressed on the ticket for the candidates in the manner specified on said ballots, and the counting to be continued until some one of the candidates has received a majority of the votes cast in the district at large."

Take the above rule turn to one of the published lists and start to make the calculation according to the above rule in order to find out who was nominated at the ballot box and ought to have find that the calculation cannot be their merits: made according to the rule without and 4th and 5th choices, for each one ed my condition in every way." many on the ticket for Mr. Thomas. It Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. does not say how many for Mr. Hood. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Faison. It does not say in either case and yet, the first thing you would have to do if you went by the rules, after you found out there was no majority for any body on the count of first choice votes would be to eliminate Mr. White, and place all the 2d choice votes that were on his tickets for Mr. Thomas, credit all all that were on his tickets for Mr. Guion, etc., and after all the 2d choice votes had been given to the candidates as subscribed on Mr. White's ballots, if no majority was found the same process would have to be repeated with that one of the remaining five candiates that then bad the fewest number votes and not in one single instant ild you do this with any candidate by the lists as given out fo

IS BEING REBUIL

LARGE FORCE OF MECHANICS ARE NOW EMPLOYED IN THIS WORK

OAK RIDGE, June 24 .- Oak Ridge esents a scene of busy activity I wenty-five or thirty men are at work on the new building, concreting foundation and laying brick. By the end of the present week the brick walls will be up to the second story and ready for carpenters. This building when completed will be 140 feet long and 72. feet wide, and will contain on the first floor, the president's office, the secretary and treasurer's office, the commercial rooms, shorthand and typewriting rooms, five recitation rooms for the literary department, and a study hall to seat 200 students or more at desks. The second floor will contain the auditorium 72 feet by 40 feet, band rooms, library, literary halls, and two small The basement is 40 x 72 ft., and will contain the heating plant, and the lighting plant, and labora-tory. The building will be of solid brick and will be one of the most handalumni and friends of the institution

The following officers have been elected:

President, J. A. Holt; First Vice-President, M. H. Holt; Second Vice President, E. P. Holt; Secretary and Treasurer, T. E. Whitaker.

The management of the school will be directed by the following executive committee:

J. A. Holt, M. H. Holt, E. P. Holt and T. E. Whitaker, all of Oak Ridge, N. C., and R. H. Brooks, A. B. Kimball T. A. Hunter, of Greensboro, N. C.

The school will be non-demonina tional, as heretofore, and no effort mer management.

When the school closed May 7th, steps had not been taken to restore it, but in less than three weeks more than $24,000.00 had been raised to build the above described administration building, and to purchase such land as might be necessary for the greater development of the school property. As the school is non-denominational it had no church back of it and no fraternal organization to give it support, and the ready response of the alumni and friends in so short a time is possibly without parralel. The corporation has taken over all of the dormitory property, and will greatly beaudairy. It is the purpose of the management to open the fall session September 16th.
