LOCKED IN, ESCAPES IN RAIN-COAT TO WED.

NORFOLK, July 27.—Leaping the window of her room, in which she had been locked and her clothing taken away in an effort to prevent her marriage, Miss Bercena Toy James, in slippers and raincoat, made her way to a friend's home nearby. She telephoned to Mrs. George L. Wadsworth, sister of Lewis Cass Jones, the man of her choice and told of her predicament.

Mrs. Wadsworth, herself a bride of a few months, notified her brother, and immediately set off with some clothing for the young bride-to-be. A motorcycle with a side carriage was brought into use, and in the presence of a few friends, the young couple were married.
