France Is Now Making Preparations To Declare War On the Austrians

Ambassadors of both Countries are Given Their Passports—This Action Followed France's Failure to Receive Satisfactory Explanation of the Movements of the Austrian Troops from Tyrol Through Switzerland to Alsac Border—One Hundred German Spies Shot at Brussels.

French and Belgians Attack German Army of Invasion

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The Austrian ambassador to France was tonight handed his passports but up to a late hour there had been no declaration of war against Austria. It is reported that the French ambassador to Austria has been instructed to ask for his passports.

THE FRENCH CAVALRY ATTACK GERMAN ARMY.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10.—The French and Belgian cavalry, supported by artillery and mounted infantry, are attacking the German invading army on the north of the river Meuse. They are reported to have pierced the German line, blown up bridges, destroyed railroads and so interfered with transportation that the Germans before Liege are in danger of being cut off from all supplies.

LIEGE HAS NOT BY ANY MEANS FALLEN.

Fighting at Liege, according to the war office, is being confined to long range artillery duels between the forts and the German heavy guns. The German army has not yet entered the city. The German army has not yet entered the city. The German army has not yet entered the city.

GERMANS TOLD TO GET OUT OF BELGIUM.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 10.—The Brussels representative of the official news agency here telegraphs from Goeth that martial law was declared in Belgium Saturday and that all Germans have been ordered to leave the country as soon as possible.

FRENCH GIVE AUSTRIAN AMBASSADOR PASSPORTS.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Late tonight the Austrian ambassador to France was handed his passports but so far war has not been declared against Austria. It is reported here that the French ambassador at Vienna has been instructed to ask for his passports. France's action followed the failure of a receipt of a satisfactory explanation of the movement of the Austrian troops from Tyrol through Switzerland to the Alsac border. A declaration of war has been expected for the past three days but France has been determined not to act until some aggressive move is made upon which a declaration might be based.

ONE HUNDRED GERMAN SPIES ARE ARRESTED.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10.—One hundred German spies who have been arrested throughout Belgium were shot today. Six hundred troops have been apprehended and the indication is that the whole country is covered with spies. Some of these who were taken under arrest were uniformed gendarmes, civic guards and officers of the Belgian army. Many carried revolvers and bombs, the latter supposed to have been intended for the use in blowing up important bridges. They had in their possession letters with counterfeit signatures of the Belgian military and war.

FORWARD MOVEMENT HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO STOP

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10.—via London. It is confirmed that the Germans have ceased their forward movement along the river Ourthe, which joins the Meuse a mile above Liege and a movement north of Liege is expected.

No big engagement between the allied armies and the Germans is expected on Belgium soil, however, until the French and Belgian combined forces take the offensive.

AUSTRIA HAS OFFERED INSULT TO ITALY.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—A special dispatch from Rome declares public opinion there considers the bombardment of Antivari, the sole port of Montenegro, as an offense by Austria against the interests and rights of Italians because of the damage done to the property of an Italian company at that port.

SERBIAN ADVANCE POSTS ARE BEFORE VISEGRAD.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—According to advices received here the Serbian advance posts have arrived before Visegrad Bosnia, to which place the Austrian troops fell back when they retired from the Serbian frontier after losing two officers and twenty men killed.

GERMANS TOLD TO GET OUT OF BELGIUM.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 10.—The Brussels representative of the official news agency here telegraphs from Goeth that martial law was declared in Belgium Saturday and that all Germans have been ordered to leave the country as soon as possible.

The correspondent says that what happened in Belgium during the past several days surpasses the imagination. After war was declared mobs demolished all business places which either belonged to Germans or handled German goods. Every excursion bearing allusion to Germany was removed and any one looking like a German was attacked in the streets or made the object of espionage.

The most improbable anti-German reports were spread, the correspondent says, one of which was that German soldiers had tried to murder General Leman, the Governor of Liege.

Thousands of Germans have left Belgium since Thursday under protection of the American consul for Holland.

FRANCE INVADDED BY THE TEUTON FORCES.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10.—The Germans are proceeding into France chiefly through Ech, a town of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, 10 miles southwest of Luxembourg, where they have cut down trees and dug trenches. They have razed the village of Meud. Wooden platforms 400 yards long for the unloading of horses and other heavy loads have been constructed.

Reports reached here today from many directions, however, of the progress of the German cavalry which are supposed to have cleared considerable territory. The locality of the fighting is not revealed by the military authorities.

WAR BULLETINS

DINARD, FRANCE, via London, Aug. 10.—The enterprise of German scouts is amazing. One prisoner of war had ridden over seventy kilometres (about 46 miles) into French territory. Their methods is to ride in small parties towards a rendezvous, where they are joined by other parties with the object of seizing a point where the Meuse may be crossed.

A rather large body of German Uhlans are in the woods north of Dinard but they are already surrounded and their capture is certain. Several cavalry skirmishes between French and German east of Namur show that the Germans have begun to feel their way south.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—In the capture of Mulhouse the French seized a great aeroplane factory operated by a noted German manufacturer. It is announced the list of German victims in France has been increased by the death of several women who became despondent because they were under the necessity of leaving the country.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says that according to dispatches from Vienna the Montenegrins yesterday bombarded the Austrian fortifications of San Toedo and Cattaro without, however, inflicting serious damage.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Prince of Wales left Buckingham Palace this morning to join the battalion of the Grenadier Guards, to which he has been assigned. He is to be stationed at the Warley barracks.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Belgian legation here declared at 10 o'clock this morning in connection with the siege of Liege: "Up to the present everything is alright at Liege. The forts are still holding out."

BRUSSELS, Aug. 10.—In official circles here it was asserted today that there had been no further battle in the vicinity of Liege in the town itself.

JOURNAL'S SUNDAY EXTRA EDITION BIG SUCCESS

THE FIRST SUNDAY EXTRA EDITION ISSUED IN THIS CITY ANOTHER NEXT SUNDAY

For the first time in the history of journalism in the city of New Bern the Journal on Sunday afternoon issued an extra edition of eight pages, giving complete press reports of the great conflict now waging in Europe.

The management of the paper has been contemplating this step for the past three weeks and when at last it was executed it proved to be complete success in every detail. Never before in the history of the city has so many papers been sold on the streets in one day. Everyone wanted one of the Journals' extra edition and the supply of eight hundred papers was completely exhausted.

A delay in the cable service caused the paper not to be on the streets before 5 o'clock. An hour earlier and the reason to believe that three thousand papers would have been sold.

The war in Europe is becoming more serious every day and the newspaper readers are becoming more interested and the Journal readers are anxious to keep up with the very latest details.

As the first issuing of an extra edition on Sunday afternoon met such popular approval the management will continue to issue this extra at least for several weeks and the paper will also be on the streets shortly after 4 o'clock.

REWARD FOR CANNADY.

One Hundred Dollars For His Apprehension

A reward of one hundred dollars has been offered for the apprehension of Clyde Cannady, charged with killing E. W. Sarlandt early Sunday morning and who made his escape a short time after the killing.

Chief of Police C. Lupton spent yesterday in Wilmington searching for the slayer but failed to locate him. The Wilmington Dispatch yesterday afternoon had the following to say in regard to the case:

"Wanted as a murderer, Clyde Cannady, of New Bern, brother of Ross Hoy and Ralph Cannady, of this city, and a former resident of Wilmington, was arrested by the police of New Bern, charged with the killing of E. W. Sarlandt, whose murdered body was found early yesterday morning near the New Bern car barn."

"Chief of Police Lupton was in Wilmington today, thinking Cannady, who has left his home, might have returned to his family here. Early this afternoon he had found no trace of him, and is expected to leave on the afternoon train for New Bern."

CHIEF OF POLICE LUPTON BACK ON THE JOB.

Last Saturday was the day for Chief Lupton's ten days' vacation to begin, and in fact he was off duty that day but when seen yesterday he was back on the job, and stated that he would remain on duty until all parties connected with the murder of E. W. Sarlandt, which was committed early Sunday morning, are either taken in custody or all possible efforts of doing so have been exerted.

YAQUI INDIANS ROB THE AMERICAN OF $50,000 BULLION.

NOGALES, Ariz., August 10.—W. C. Loughlin, an American, has been held up by Yaqui Indians, and robbed of more than $50,000 in gold and silver bullion, according to reports reaching here tonight.

Three other Americans were in Loughlin's party with fifty Mexican soldiers as a guard. The soldiers fled when the Yaquis appeared near La Colorado, Sonora. The Americans have not been harmed.

TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

OPENS ON SEPT. 1ST

THIS DATE DEFINITELY DECIDED UPON AT MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

The operators and owners of the principal tobacco warehouses in Eastern North Carolina met yesterday at Wilson and discussed the situation now existing in regard to the outlook for marketing the crop.

On the account of the fact that the transportation facilities now are not up to the standard and that the demand for the weed is not as great before the beginning of the European war, the warehousemen decided to defer the opening of the warehouses until Sept. 1 and the warehouse here will be opened on that date instead of on Aug. 18 as advertised.

A. B. Baifles, who is to operate the local warehouse, attended the meeting and in conversation with a Journal reporter last night he stated that prices in South Carolina were much better now than those existing when the buyers were removed the first of last week and there is every reason to believe that they will become normal by Sept. 1. All of the buyers will be in New Bern when the warehouse is open.

FERDINAND ULRICH DEAD.

The End Came Yesterday Afternoon At 2:30 O'clock.

Meadows Ferdinand Ulrich aged thirty-nine years, died yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his home, No. 5 Burn street after suffering for several months with a complication of diseases.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence this morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. A. Cade assisted by Rev. W. B. Everett and the interment will be made in the Cedar Grove cemetery. The deceased was a member of Chawkesa Tribe No. 114 Red Men and the members of that order will attend the funeral in a body.

MOTOR TRIP ENJOYED.

Sunday Afternoon Excursion To Morehead City.

Although the weather was very inclement Sunday afternoon a good crowd went to Morehead City for the evening, via the motor car. The car was met by the usual line of boats, and a number went over to the surf and took a dip in the Atlantic. All reported the evening being very pleasantly spent.

The car will run again next Sunday afternoon, leaving here at two thirty o'clock, returning leave Morehead City at 9:30.

Porter Charlton's Fate Hangs In Balance.

COMO, ITALY, Aug. 10.—The Court at Como has asked that the trial of Porter Charlton for the murder of his wife here be postponed for a year because important papers in the case are in America.

The Milan court has agreed to the delay.

Charlton's finances are in a deplorable condition. He can't afford a private room and must go to a common prison cell after the end of this month unless friends help. His health is good and he has learned to speak the Italian language.

Mrs. Servado, a widow and an American sends him his dinner every day because her son was Charlton's college chum.

Lawyer Palmieri arrived from New York yesterday and got the Kings' permit to see the prisoner, who fell into his arms crying.

"At last! After a year I see a lawyer. Now I am sure my cause will be heard."

Charlton speaks highly of the kindness of the Italian authorities. Charlton has been in prison in New Jersey and Italy for more than four years.

Miss Mable Williams, left yesterday morning for Norfolk, Va., and Baltimore, Md., where she will spend several weeks visiting friends.

CLYDE CANNADY DEALT THE BLOW SAYS QUARTETT

Four Men Say That He Killed E. W. Sarlandt.

USED PALING FROM FENCE

Whiskey Was The Prime Cause of Brutal Killing Early Last Sunday Morning.

Alex Curtiss and Sid Gautier, white and Edward Jones and C. C. Brown, colored, are being held in Craven county jail until the September term of Craven county Superior Court, the former two being implicated in the murder of E. W. Sarlandt, an account of which appeared in the Sunday afternoon edition of the Journal, and the latter being held as witnesses.

At the coroner's inquest held at the City Hall Sunday night it was brought out that Sarlandt had been killed with paling and that this was wielded by Clyde Cannady who up to the present time remains at large.

A summary of the evidence given at the inquest is to the effect that Sarlandt, Cannady, Curtiss and Gautier were together on Saturday night and that the quartet were loaded to the brim with whiskey. Cannady had a dog along with him and on Crooked street this animal bit Sarlandt who at once began a tirade of cursing. This angered Cannady and he applied an epithet to Sarlandt who returned it. It is said that Cannady then started toward Sarlandt with a knife but was repulsed by the latter. Nearby was a fence and Cannady is said to have pulled a slapping from this and inflicted the fatal blows.

In the meantime someone had telephoned for an officer and policeman Rowe went to the scene. When he arrived, Sarlandt was lying on the ground and Cannady told the officer that he was drunk and that the officer and Gautier had already sent for a transfer to take him home and that it would not be necessary for the officer to lock the man up. Little suspecting that murder had been committed Policeman Rowe returned to his home.

Charlton's fate hangs in balance. The trial of Porter Charlton for the murder of his wife here be postponed for a year because important papers in the case are in America.

THE FRENCH ENGAGE IN A GREAT BATTLE.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—That the French army invading Germany by way of Alsace has engaged in a great battle with the Austrian-German forces in the valley of the Rhine near Neu-Breisach and has been swept back with heavy losses was reported here this evening. The French war department admits heavy losses when their troops occupied Vosges Pass above Colmar.
