

Mother Of Eighteen Children.
 "I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all Dealers.

WILD WEST SHOW AS LIVE AS EVER
OLD SHOW MAN GIVES OUT INTERESTING DOPE.

"Did you notice," remarked the old circus man, "that when the Buffalo Bill Show retired from the strenuous game of trying to amuse a jaded public, astute showmen and academic public prints sympathetically discoursed on the 'passing of the Wild West idea,' and the 'decadence of the cowboy?' It sounded all right, and seemed to have plenty of basis in fact for such a thing as the failure of the Cody show seemed beyond the range of things probable or possible; but the truth of the matter is, the Wild West idea is very much alive, and there are more shows giving this peculiar kind of entertainment at the present time than ever before in the history of tent amusements. Even the biggest circuses in the United States has recognized the potency of the Wild West as a drawing card and has added a Wild West annex to its performance.
 "The 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which exhibits in New Bern, Monday, October 5, is the best proof in the world that this form of strenuous entertainment is popular and will continue to be. This show was started in a very modest way about seven years ago. In fact it was organized as a special feature of the Jamestown fair, with no expectation of turning it into a traveling exhibition.
 "Its success, however, was so pronounced that it was equipped for 'the road,' and since that time it has been successfully touring the country, constantly adding to its importance and reputation and giving its owners, Miller Brothers & Arlington, a very satisfactory annual profit.

 "There is nothing the matter with the Wild West idea. It is simply a question of giving the public what it wants, and that is what the management of the 101 Ranch Show is trying to do."

NEW BERN MURDERER TO SERVE TIME IN LENOIR

Sarlandt, a planter, was Monday night brought to Kinston to serve two years on the roads of Lenoir county. His sentence was originally five years, but was reduced by the court. Curtis is a rather nice looking boy. He was an accomplice, together with Gantler, an aged man, in the murder of Sarlandt by Kennedy, whose wife is now with relatives here.
