The Tide Of Battle Turns and Germans Were The Victors

The Right Wing Yesterday Turned Back The French Offensive Movement

THEIR ONSLAUGHT WAS VERY GREAT

Report Says That Cossacks Have Reached A Point Near Cracow

REINFORCEMENT SENT TO AID THE FRENCH

Enormous batteries of Germans attempted to break through the wall of steel which has been drawn almost to the vital line of communication. It is admitted by the war office that the fury of the onslaught drove the French from some of their positions. Heavy reinforcements have been sent to aid the French and British who are operating near Douai to gain control of the Belgian railways. If they succeed in this, General Von Kluck cannot possibly maintain his present position. One of the most important developments of the day was the statement that the British troops are now operating with the Belgians in the defense of Antwerp. The British naval guns are of the same type which rendered such effective service against the Boers.

NO FRENCH FORTS HAVE BEEN SILENCED

Paris, Oct. 5—It was officially stated by the Belgian war office tonight that none of their forts had fallen or been silenced by the Germans.

COSSACKS HAVE REACHED A POINT NEAR CRACOW

Petrograd, Oct. 5—Cossacks have reached a point only ten miles from Cracow where the Austrian-German forces are concentrating for a last stand on the frontier, according to dispatches from the front. Cracow has been captured thus clearing every Austrian defense in Galicia except Przemyśl which is being besieged. Bands of Cossacks already are in Hungary preventing the mobilization of the remaining reservists.

THE TWO MONARCHS ARE DIRECTING ARMIES

It is reported that two monarchs, Czar Nicholas and Kaiser Wilhelm are directing the operation of their armies. A dispatch from the front today stated that the Czar had reached the headquarters of the army in the field.

SITUATION AT ANTWERP IS NOT ENCOURAGING

Berlin, Oct. 5—(via wireless via Sayville) The Dutch government is strengthening its forces on the frontier so as to be ready to disarm Belgians who are expected to be driven across the border. The war office says regarding the Antwerp situation, that the forts at Lierre, Waelhem and Koninghoeck have been taken and that thirty guns have also been captured. This makes a breach in the outer ring of forts and permits an attack on the inner circle and the city itself.

AN ENGLISH STEAMER STRIKES SUNKEN MINE

London, Oct. 3—A dispatch from Ostend tonight says that the British steamer Ardmoant which left Dover this morning with a cargo of grain, struck a mine and was sunk. Thirty-five members of the crew were saved.

CZAR CALLS CABINET TO CONFER ON JEWS

Petrograd, Oct. 5—All the ministers were summoned to a conference at Peterhof today by Emperor Nicholas. Important decisions regarding internal policies were reached. These will be announced in due time.

It is probable that these decisions related to the future of the Jews and Poles.

London, Oct. 5—A dispatch to The Times from Copenhagen says the Germans are reported to be building 50 submarines.

The message adds that attempts have been made to smuggle several tank cars of petrol through Austria. Petrol is becoming very scarce in Germany.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY Robinson's Famous Shows to Be Seen in New Bern

"Something out of the ordinary" is a remark that can properly be made of Robinson's famous shows, which will exhibit in New Bern, Sat. Oct. 17.

The big circus has a reputation for producing remarkable surprises in its arena until the public has learned that it can attend an exhibition of the Robinson's famous shows, expecting to see something new and different.

There is an unusual number of features with this show this season. It is difficult to pick the best. Some will like the trained wild beasts' exhibition or horse wonders. Others will enjoy the wonderful equestrianism of the famous Orton family. Major Littlefinger and wife, smallest human adult mites now living, will have their devotees. The wonderful $25,000 Arabian stallion, "White Cloud," highest educated horse in the world, will be talked about for months after. The Aztec Marimba band, and other similar curiosities in the museum department will have vital interest. You will be surprised at the rareness and novelty of many of the exhibits.

WELL PLEASED Is Dr. J. E. Turlington With Present Outlook

While in conversation with a Journal reporter yesterday Dr. J. E. Turlington, superintendent of the County Farm Life school at Vanceboro, stated that he was well pleased with the present outlook for the 1914-15 session. He also stated that many of the students of this institution have never visited the Capital City of the State, and it is his intention now, and preparations are being made to this end, to take the students to the State Fair. They will leave so as to arrive in Raleigh Wednesday night, October the twenty-first. Thursday will be spent taking in the Farm, and other exhibits at the Fair grounds, and Friday they will visit the State Museum and other State buildings.

MAY ERECT NEW SCHOOL BUILDINGS IN CRAVEN

At a meeting of the county Board of Education which was held yesterday afternoon at one o'clock, much time was spent in the discussion of erecting new school buildings in the county. An investigation was started and a committee appointed to visit the sites for the proposed buildings, which includes one at the Catox school in number two township and one at the Ewell school in number one township.

PEOPLES CONCERT BAND PRACTICES TONIGHT

All members of the Peoples Concert Band are requested to meet at the usual place for practice tonight at 8 o'clock for practice.

BENEVOLENT SOCIETY TO MEET TODAY

The regular meeting of the Benevolent Society will be held at the residence of Mrs. T. G. Hyman this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as matters of importance are to be discussed.

101 WILD WEST SHOW PLEASED NEW BERNIANS

HUNDREDS OF SPECTATORS WITNESSED TWO PERFORMANCES YESTERDAY

In recent years it has been said that the wild and woolly west is a thing of the past; that only in theatres does one see the leather chaps and wide sombreros and that the days when the girls wore buckskin skirts and spurs on their boots are long ago relegated into the past. Anyone who has any such misguided idea as this should by all means see the 101 Ranch Wild West show.

This attraction exhibited in New Bern yesterday afternoon and last night and those who attended, and there were many, were more than pleased with the performance. This show is not a circus it doesn't claim to be. It is a wild West show and it is certainly wild and woolly.

The first event on the day's program was a parade over the principal streets of the city and, as might be imagined, this was viewed by hundreds and won the approval of all. The performance was given in the afternoon and this was well attended. The chief attractions were exhibitions of riding by the cowboys, cowgirls and Indians and these were excellent. Long practice in the saddle has made these performers almost perfect in their work and their exhibitions were thrilling in the extreme. Included in the program was some fancy shooting by the Indians, expert lariat throwing by the cowboys and a representation of the old stage coach days and the dangers encountered by the operators and passengers of these ancient methods of travel.

The riding of the bronchos and the wild steer were two of the features of the performances and in fact it might be said that these were the most thrilling. Last night another large crowd witnessed the performance and the general consensus of opinion was that the show was good and well worth the price of admissions.

MAY ERECT MONUMENT Some Talk of Honoring Late Governor

There is a movement on foot in New Bern to erect a suitable monument over the remains of Governor Nash, one of the first Governors of North Carolina and whose bones now lie in an unmarked grave on the opposite banks of Trent river. After Governor Nash's death his body was placed in a leaden casket and properly interred. During the war between the States the northern troops occupied that section and when one of their officers died and there was no suitable casket to ship his body back home, the leaden casket containing all that was mortal of the late governor was exhumed and the contents thrown out and the casket was used for the northern man. A man who had been a friend to the governor gathered up those and buried them. The subject has recently been brought up and there is considerable talk of erecting a monument over the lonely grave.

KINSTON AS HOST. Methodists Are To Gather In That City.

The Methodists of Kinston will this week be the hosts to the New Bern District Sunday School and Epworth League Conference. The initial session will be held Wednesday morning and the conference will come to a close Thursday evening. Pastors superintendents of Sunday schools, teachers, class workers and Epworth League workers are expected to be present from the 87 Sunday schools, 26 Epworth Leagues and 45 Wesley Bible Classes in the District, to be number of about 200. Most of the 25 ministers in the district are also expected to come to Kinston for the occasion. Officers of the conference are: Rev. J. E. Underwood, presiding elder; M. W. Brabham, field secretary; Rev. B. C. Thompson, Epworth League Secretary; Rev. J. W. Bradley; Rev. H. A. Humble; Rev. J. H. Fritzsche, and C. S. Wallace, members of the Sunday school board.

WEATHER REPORT

General cloudy today, probably local showers. Gentle to moderate northeast winds.

Don't forget to get your Goldfish and globe FREE at Bradham Drug Co.—Either store.

"THE GLADWAY" TO BE FEATURED AT NEXT FAIR

Midway's Title Changed to Something More Appropriate and Will Be Filled with Excellent Shows

THE RACING PROGRAM TO BE ANNOUNCED IN FEW DAYS

Horses From All Over the State Will Be Entered in the Speed Tests. Exhibits

October 27 to 30 will be gala days in New Bern, in fact it will be a gala occasion for all of Eastern North Carolina. On these dates the great Eastern Carolina Fair will be held and it will be an event well worth attending and it is time to begin to get ready to come to this great joy festival. The Fair this year will be larger and better than ever before. The past season has been a remarkable one for crops and the exhibits along this line will surpass anything ever seen here before. All over the eastern part of North Carolina the farmers have planned to bring their very best products of the soil to the Fair and this exhibition will be the ultra. The exhibition in the other departments will be equally as good. Then there will be the midway. However, it will no longer be called the midway. Henceforth it will be known as "The Gladway." On this will be found every kind of amusement from the cane and knife racks to the old plantation show, the mardome and Bosco the snake eater will also be on hand. Right here it might be well to mention that there will be no fakers allowed on the grounds and no visitors need have any fear of being fleeced out of his or her hard earned coin. While particular attention has been paid to "The Gladway," the management has prepared the greatest racing program ever arranged in North Carolina. Fleet footed steeds from all over the country will be on hand and will delight the thousands who will see these speed tests. There will be free attractions galore. There will be a car line running to the grounds and trains every few minutes and there will be something doing every minute in the day. If you are afflicted with bonehead associates and wish to rid yourself of a grouch do as we mentioned before. Begin to get ready to come to the great Eastern Carolina Fair, New Bern, N. C., October 27, 28, 29 and 30.

FOUND PROBABLE CAUSE

Squire Walter Fulford Has An Interesting Case

The case in which George Howard and Joe Bunting, colored, charged with stealing liquor while confined in the county jail, was reopened Saturday before Justice of the Peace Walter Fulford and evidence was introduced by the State which caused Squire Fulford to find probable cause and bind the men over to the next term of Superior Court. This case was taken up several days ago but had to be postponed on account of the fact that a very material witness could not be secured at that time.

NO SESSION OF POLICE COURT YESTERDAY

Yesterday's session of Police Court was not held on account of the 101 Ranch Show. All cases that were to have been disposed of yesterday will be tried this afternoon at two o'clock.

COLD WATER COOLED HER ARDOR OFF

Cora Jones, colored, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Smithtown by Captain A. L. Bryan for being drunk and disorderly, and placed in the county jail, where she proceeded to alarm the neighborhood with boisterous cursing. Jailor Bayliss went to her cell and told her that she would have to cut out the boisterous language, but she refused to do it at first, but after she had been given a good dose of cold water treatment, she was as meek as a lamb.

WANTED SWELL WEDDING

Washington, Oct. 5—Senator Simmons had a novel request from T. C. Wade of Beaufort last night. Mr. Wade wired and asked Mr. Simmons to secure the Senate chamber for noon today for "my friend Hamilton, who is to be married in Washington tomorrow."

Beaufort Man Looked Out for Friend

Washington, Oct. 5—Senator Simmons had a novel request from T. C. Wade of Beaufort last night. Mr. Wade wired and asked Mr. Simmons to secure the Senate chamber for noon today for "my friend Hamilton, who is to be married in Washington tomorrow."

ENJOYING LIFE IN CAPITOL OF NATION

SENATOR AND MRS. F. M. SIMMONS SPENT SUMMER THERE

Washington, Oct. 5—Just as the Washington Congressmen are preparing to go home the North Carolina women who devote part of the year to Washington are getting ready to come back. Only two of the Tar Heel women have remained here all summer with their working husbands. Mrs. Simmons, wife of Senator Simmons, and Mrs. Page, wife of Representative Page, have weathered the summer heat of the Capital to be with Messrs. Simmons and Page.

Mrs. John H. Small, Mrs. Claude Kitchin, Mrs. John M. Faison, Mrs. Edward W. Pou, Mrs. H. L. Godwin, Mrs. Robert L. Doughton, Mrs. E. Y. Webb and Mrs. J. M. Gudge have been in the State for several months.

Mrs. Lee S. Overman and daughters went to Salisbury early in the summer, and with the exception of Miss Grace Overman, are there now.

Senator and Mrs. Simmons have enjoyed immensely their delightful home in Cleveland Park. Instead of putting a lot of money in brick and cement Senator Simmons bought a home that is snug and comfortable but not expensive, and got with it several lots that he and Mrs. Simmons have made beautiful and attractive with flowers, grass and birds.

Cleveland Park, so named because President Cleveland owned it, is above his summer home, there is a place above Washington. The Simmons place is not more than three blocks from Red Top. Out of two rough, rolling lots Mrs. Simmons has made one of the prettiest yards in suburban Washington, and by being thoughtful and considerate of the woodpeckers, yellowhammers, and robins has peopled her trees with many interesting birds.

Jews Now Observe Feast of Tabernacle

SUCCOTH BEGAN SUNDAY AND WILL LAST SEVEN DAYS

The Feast of Tabernacles, better known as Succoth, began Sunday and will be observed by all orthodox Jews everywhere. This is the very important season with the Hebrews, the New Year having occurred recently, then Yom Kippur and now the Feast of Tabernacles or of Ingathering. Succoth falls on the 15th day of the month Tishri in the Hebrew calendar and extends over eight days, the last of which is called the "day of solemn assembly."

The Israelite who, in obedience to the Divine command, left his house for the week of festival, and took up his abode in a booth or tabernacle and lived through, as it were, an important epoch of his people's history; thereby replenished the springs of Jewish sentiment. He was also thereby taught to remember that just as Israel in the wilderness was protected by God, so is he being guarded in his earthly pilgrimage. God's love is ever with His children like a protecting cloud.

The second name of the festival, the feast of ingathering, almost explains itself. The holiday comes in the autumn, at a time when the husband men in Palestine had safely garnered the produce of his lands. It was the time of thinking of God as the giver. And so the lesson of gratitude for the blessings he had received and of responsibility for the right to use of them was each year written upon his heart.

WHOSE WHEEL IS IT?

Negro Boy Offered One at Small Price

Sunday night Chief of Police C. Lupton received a message that there was a colored boy at the power house near Ghent park, with a new Iyer Johnson bicycle which he was offering for sale at seven dollars. When the chief arrived at the power house he found the boy in the engine room asleep with the bicycle near him. He at once took him under arrest, and learned that he was Frank Dawson's son, and he said that his father bought the wheel for him a few days ago, but his father stated that he had not bought any wheel and had not seen the boy in three years. The negro was placed in the county jail to remain while investigations are being made as to where he got the bicycle.

A short time ago James Dawson, another son of Frank, was arrested and convicted on a warrant charging him with stealing several rolls of galvanized roofing from a building on West street.

NEW-BORN BABE FOUND BURIED IN BACK YARD

The Remains of Those of Negro Child, and for A Time the Case Was Baffling

MOTHER INTERRED CORPSE IN ORDER TO CONCEAL BIRTH

Police Get On the Trail and Aideo By County Coroner Get A Confession From Her

When the body of a new-born negro babe was found buried on the lot at No. 5 New S. Front St. yesterday morning, the local police and the county officials were sure that they had run upon a deep and foul mystery and at once the wheels of the law were set in motion to unravel this. Policeman Fred P. Rowe was the first one of the officers to view the body, he having been the first to receive news that something unusual was occurring in the neighborhood.

Officer Rowe made an investigation and at once came to the conclusion that Genevieve Washington, a negress who came to New Bern several days ago from Fort Barnwell, was the mother of the child. He questioned her closely but she emphatically denied such communication with Chief of Police C. Lupton and Mayor Banger and they took part in the investigation.

Dr. Walter Watson, the county coroner, was next called in and after going to the scene he found that the child had not been killed, but had died a natural death and that in all probability the mother desired to get rid of its body without expense or notoriety.

The Washington woman was again questioned and as good as admitted that she was the mother. After this confession on the body, which in the meantime had been exhumed, was turned over to her for burial and was taken charge of by an undertaker. The case for a time looked as though it might be one for which someone would have to answer, but finally turned out to be a piece of ignorance on the part of the perpetrator.

Alonzo Rhem Now On Chain Gang

PROPRIETOR OF TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT MAY WORK CRAVEN'S ROADS

Alonzo Rhem, colored, who conducts a tailoring and pressing establishment on lower Craven street, was yesterday taken to the Craven county chain gang to serve a thirty day sentence. Rhem was convicted at Police Court Saturday afternoon on a warrant charging him with doing business without paying the license tax. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the cost in the case and the license tax, but he was unable to raise the cash and was committed to the chain gang. Charlie Bryant, colored, was also sent to the county roads to serve a thirty day sentence for being without visible means of support, and Charlie Bell, colored, was sent to the roads for ten days on a similar charge.
