'Dingbat Family' At Last Meets Waterloo

BUNCH OF BARNSTORMERS
"CANNED" BY WILMINGTON THEATRE MAN

Several days ago an aggregation of barnstormers arrived in New-Bern and attempted to reproduce the farce comedy, "The Dingbat Family" at the Masonic theatre. After "stinging" a large number of local theatre-goers they departed for pastures new.

"The Dingbat Family" was billed to be presented in Wilmington last Saturday night. However, the play was not put on and the dramatic writer on the Wilmington Star tells in the following article of the reason why:

"Owing to 'domestic' troubles, probably, the 'Dingbat Family,' a musical comedy founded on the subjects of a well known newspaper cartoon feature, booked for appearance at the Academy of Music yesterday, matinee and night, did not appear, the cancellation being announced a few minutes before the curtain was scheduled to rise for the afternoon performance.

"The company arrived in the city yesterday, the scenery, baggage, etc., was transferred to the Academy, and despite the inclemency of the weather, a large matinee audience was seated in the theatre when it was announced by the local management that there would be no performance, either afternoon or evening, and that tickets would be redeemed at the box office.

"Mr. Paul M. Comes, local manager for the Schloss circuit, issued the following statement to the public yesterday afternoon, following the cancellation of the show:

"To the Patrons of Academy
"As manager of the Academy I feel that an explanation is due our patrons for the cancellation of the 'Dingbat Family' for the matinee and night performances on yesterday, the 3rd.

"I was informed by Mr. Jesse Weill, manager of the company, that his leading lady, Miss Skish Renard, was in no condition to take her part in the performance. Mr. I. Weiner, who owns this show, was in such an abusive mood as to so far forget himself that he used violent, profane language to one of the lady members of the chorus.
I was forced to have Mr. Weill order Mr. Weiner from the building.

"In view of the above plain facts I did not feel that it was proper to let this attraction appear before our audience.

"I regret very much the inconvenience and annoyance necessary in order to make refund to the audience.

"Anyone holding tickets to the night performance can have their money refunded by the return of the tickets to Woodall & Shepard's, corner Front and Princess streets.

Very truly yours,
"P. M. COMES,

"Manager Academy of Music."
"Mr. Comes also stated that he had wired Manager Jno. L. Crovo, at Charlotte, the only other Schloss theatre in the State where the 'Dingbats' are booked to appear, to immediately cancel the date there, and to cease the press notices about it."

Court Vindicates Register Mun- den

NO NEGLIGENCE IN ISSUANCE OF MARRIAGE LICENSE TO OWENS' STEP DAUGHTER

Elizabeth City, N. C., Oct. 5.— Register of Deeds J. W. Munden won the damage suit instituted against him by Joseph B. Owens and wife of Per-quimans county for $200 for issuing marriage license to a step daughter.

The case was heard in Superior Court today. Attorney Percy Mc-Mullan of Hertford, represented the plaintiffs and Ward and Thompson and J. K. Wilson represented Mr. Munden.
After the evidence had been heard, Judge Carter instructed the jury to render a verdict in favor of Mr. Munden.

Mr. Munden issued a marriage license to Mr. Owen's step daughter several months ago. She had the written consent of her mother and upon this statement the license was issued.
The plaintiff was suing to recover the fine on the grounds of negligence in issuing the license. The court held that Mr. Munden did not show negligence; but, on the other hand, took the precaution necessary.

Full term of Superior Court which has been in session here for the past two weeks adjourned today at noon.
The jury was discharged yesterday afternoon and this morning's session was spent in hearing special proceedings.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years Standing, Relieved by Cardul.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my condition was more than any one could bear."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardul, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it.
I had not taken but about six bottles I was almost cured. It is a good good than all the other medicine I tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardul. Several are now taking it.
Do you, lady reader, suffer from of the ailments due to womanly troubles, such as headache, backache, nervoussleeplessness, and that everlasting feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardul a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardul to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
