POPE VISITING SLUMS, POOR OF ROME HEAR

STORY CURRENT THAT BENEDICT XV. MAKES MIDNIGHT TOURS OF ETERNAL CITY

Rome, Oct. 22.—The poor of the Eternal City are stirred by a sly tiff, Benedict XV., like a modern Haroun-al-Raschid, is secretly visiting the slums of Rome in order to study at first hand the needs and aspirations of the city's poor.

How much credence can be given to the story it is difficult to tell, but the most circumstantial accounts are given by those who claim to have recognized the Pope on these midnight excursions. They say that there is no mistaking him in the silent priestly bearing of the short statured man with the twitching nostrils and peculiar expression of the eyes, due to drooping eyelids.

On the other hand, it is pointed out that not only would such excursions be entirely contrary to the spirit in

HIS CURE FATAL. LONDON COURT TRIES AMERICAN

O. E. MILLER OF CHICAGO IS ACCUSED OF KILLING GIRL BY GIVING HER DRUG

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Considerable interest has been aroused by the trial at the Old Bailey Police Court of Orlando Edgar Miller, an American, charged with manslaughter, the police alleging that he caused the death of Miss Kate Scott at Miller's Institute at Isleworth last June by the administration of a drug.

William Wilcox, a Home Office expert, today testified as to the dangerous character of the drug and declared that it was unsuitable for Miss Scott's ailment.

Miller, testifying in his own behalf, said he had been given charge of delirium cases in Chicago by the Cook County Hospital and had been very successful in bringing about cures. His method of treatment, he said, had been fully recognized by many physicians in America. He also declared that he came to England from the United States on the invitation of the Duke and Duchess of Manchester.

Miller's Career in Chicago Was Varied One

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Orlando E. Miller was president of St. Luke's Society, an organization which conducted an establishment in which Alderman "Blind Billy" Kent and others lost their lives in a fire in 1902. Miller and his manager were held and subjected to severe censure.

Miller was at various times editor of a small newspaper, an officer of a branch Y. M. C. A., grocer, superintendent of a Sunday school, manufacturer of patent medicine and owner of a sanitarium for the cure of the drug habit. He is not known at the Cook County Hospital. According to the records of the institution, he never was a member of the medical staff.

DEPOT IS BURNED AT WILLIAMSTON

GREENVILLE, Oct. 22.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed the Atlantic Coast Line depot at Williamston. It is learned that the baggage room was well filled with valuables, among them being sample trunks of a hardware salesman valued at a very high price. No particulars have been learned of the fire, as to how it started, nor the exact amount of the damage, though it is understood that the building with its contents is a total loss.

which the occupants of the Vatican have acted since Pius IX. immured himself there, but they would seem to be to a certain extent unnecessary.

As Archbishop of Bologna and previously as the holder of several confidential offices in the Vatican, few men in holy orders had a more intimate acquaintance with the condition of Italy's poor and their needs. But all arguments to this effect are ridiculed by those who declare that they have seen His Holiness on those nightly trips and cannot be mistaken in the identity of the strangely silent visitor.
