

OES MEETING

Mrs. George Livas and T. A. Rosemond, Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, respectively, of University Chapter O.E.S. of Chapel Hill invite all members of the order to be present tonight (Thursday) at a special meeting of the chapter when an initiation will take place in the Masonic Temple in Chapel Hill.

Final Count Announced In Elections; Totals Change But Results Same

The final official results of last Saturday's Democratic primary in Orange County weren't known until Tuesday morning when the County Board of Elections met in Hillsboro to canvass the returns. Earlier unofficial returns in a number of state contests were incomplete in several precincts. And the official check of the voting showed some counts to have been inaccurately tabulated in the initial listing. But County Board of Elections Chairman Edwin J. Hamlin said that while the totals in almost every race were changed in the final count, the results in every race were the same. Here's the official tabulation of all voting.

RETURNS TO BASE
Robert Pendergrass, airman 2/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Pendergrass, has returned to his duties at the Harmon Air Force Base, Newfoundland, after a 7-day leave here with his parents and other relatives.

REUNION
The annual family reunion of the Johnson-Crabtree families will be held next Sunday, June 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Lacoek. All members of both these families are asked to bring picnic baskets for the noonday meal to be held on the lawn.

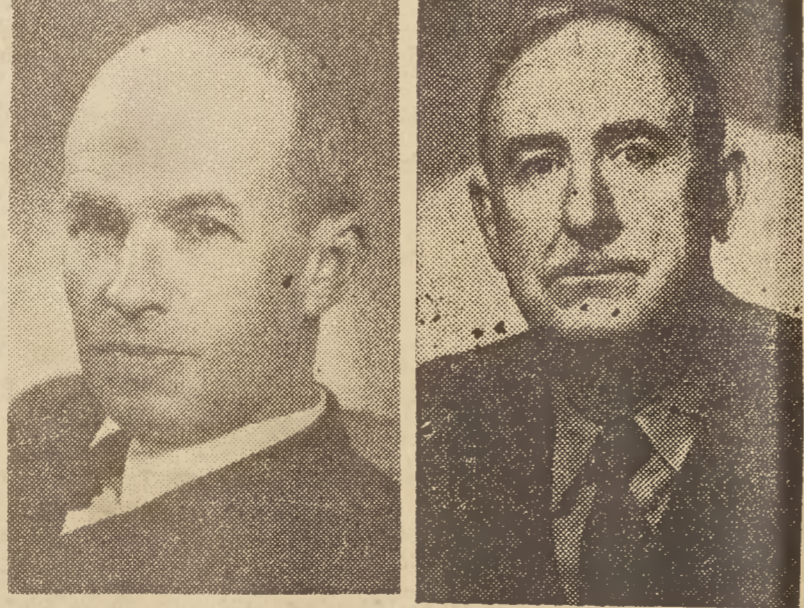

HONORED AT PARTY
On last Wednesday afternoon little Miss Donna Lloyd, who was seven years old on May 27, and her brother, Danny Lloyd, who was one year old on May 26, were honored at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lloyd on High Street, at a joint birthday party on the shady lawn. Mr. Lloyd brought home a nice surprise, a new lawn table and matching benches, all painted a lovely white. Mrs. Lloyd's lovely roses blooming in the yard added to the beauty and made a lovely setting for the party. The lovely birthday cake was cut after pictures of the group were made, and served to the guests along with nuts, mints and candy. Novel hats were given as favors. The following guests attended the party: Joe Tillman, Carol Glosson, Joe Alexander, Comie Puckett, Skeeter and Fred Wright Jr., Lawrence McAdams, Diane, Theresa and Agnes Hines, and the host and hostess, Donna and Danny Lloyd.

Mann-Patterson Plans For Wedding Announced
The wedding of Miss Sandra Beck Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newton Mann of Carrboro, and Robert Benjamin Patterson of Chapel Hill, son of Mrs. E. B. Patterson and the late Mr. Patterson, will take place in the Carrboro Methodist Church on Friday morning, June 4, at 11:00 o'clock, with the Rev. G. W. Crutchfield officiating. Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. W. R. Campbell, organist, with an aunt of the bride and a cousin, Miss Margaret West, as soloists. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, and Miss Jane Stanford will attend as maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Jean Stanford and Miss Merle Hackney. Major A. K. Patterson of Rialto, Calif., will be best man for his brother, and Eddie and Ronnie Mann, brothers of the bride-elect, Tom Maultsby and Bo Abernathy will serve as ushers. On Thursday evening following the rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Mann, parents of the bride-elect, will entertain at a cake-cutting for the bridal party at their home on Oak Street. All friends of the couple are invited to attend the ceremony.

CIRCLE HONORS MEMBER
A most interesting meeting of the Foy Johnson Farmer Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Carrboro Baptist Church was held on last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. E. B. Riggsbee in Carrboro. The meeting at this time was given especially to honor Mrs. Joseph E. Webb, a member of the class who is leaving soon with her three children, twins Jane and Jodie, age five, and Patricia, 12, to make their home in Clayton, Ga., while Lt. Col. Joseph E. Webb is with the armed forces in Korea. The class feels that Mrs. Webb, who joined the class last September, has been an inspiration and help, and presented her with a silver bread tray as a gift. Home-made ice cream and cake was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. F. Burnett, to the 21 members and one visitor present for the party.

WMS HOLDS ROUNDTABLE
A supper meeting of the "Round Table," sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Carrboro Baptist Church, was held on Monday evening of this week at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. B. Todd in Carrboro with 24 members present. A most interesting book review of books chosen by the society in different study courses followed the supper hour. The meeting was a most enjoyable one for all present.

POPULAR PICNIC SPOT
The Sparrows' swimming pool in Carrboro is proving to be a most popular picnic gathering place these hot days. Many classes from both the Chapel Hill and Carrboro schools are holding their closing picnic parties each day this week at the pool, and on last Wednesday the two seventh grades from the Hillsboro School, a total of 55 students, together with their teachers, came over for a full day of swimming and brought along weiners to be roasted on the plentiful outdoor ovens provided by the pool.

WIN GUGGENHEIMS—Two members of the University faculty, Dr. Robert A. Pratt (left) and Dr. Howard O. Odum (right), have won Guggenheim Foundation Fellowships which will enable them to complete several works for publication. Dr. Odum is chairman of the Sociology Department and Dr. Pratt is a member of the English Department.

officials, also all the fixings for outdoor cooking. The large groups and all boys and girls report a wonderful time was enjoyed by all.

CHURCH HOMECOMING

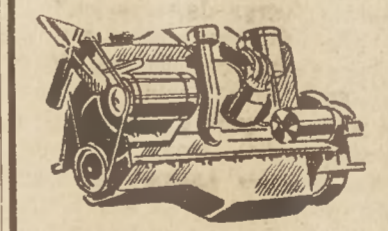

On next Sunday, June 10, the Carrboro Methodist Church will celebrate homecoming services at the church. It is hoped that many former members, visitors and friends of the church will be present for these services, which will begin at the regular Sunday School hour. The pastor of the church, the Rev. G. W. Crutchfield, will preach at the eleven o'clock morning hour of worship, and this will be followed by a picnic dinner on the church grounds. The afternoon service will feature a singing program, given by various groups of singers. The homecoming committee has engaged several singing groups, including the boy's choir from the Carrboro School.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

The annual Daily Vacation Bible School will begin at the Carrboro Baptist Church on Wednesday, June 16, and will continue each day from 9 until 11 o'clock through June 25. The following faculty has been announced by the church for the Bible School: Mrs. Richard Callaway, principal, who will be assisted by the following superintendents of each department: Mrs. Ben Grantham, nursery department; Mrs. Lloyd Senter, beginners; Mrs. Carl Ellington, primaries; Mrs. Clarence Cole, juniors; and Mrs. H. C. Riggsbee, intermediates. Mrs. M. M. Watts will lead the singing, and Miss Roxada Harward will be the pianist for the school, with Miss LaVerne Riddle serving as secretary.
