

Open House Of Oakview Garden Club Will Feature Christmas Decorations

On next Wednesday from 2 to 10 p.m., the Oakview Garden Club will hold Open House at the home of Mrs. Alfred F. Linde, 9 Roger-son Drive, which will be decorated by Pace of Glen Lennox to demonstrate the Christmas units featured in the December issue of "House Beautiful."

Mr. Raymond Staples of Pace has been chosen as one of the 100 decorators in the entire country to carry these unusually striking de-cors in gold, silver and white, which bring a new note to the whole field of Christmas orna-ments. Cover sheet and feature article richly illustrated in this issue portray the use of these units, which may be either singly or in combination. There are scrolls, "S" curves, bamboo rings, finicals of tissue with gold rope

NEW DE SOTO—Here's the all-new 1955-model De Soto, to be shown for the first time this Wednes-day, Thursday, and Friday at Poe Motor Company. The four-door model is lower, longer, roomier, and has the most powerful engine built by De Soto—the 200 horsepower Fireflite hemispherical combus-tion V-8. Completely new are such features as the full wrap-around windshield, low-silhouette, and "flite control" gear selector mounted on the dash board.

and tassels, folding tissue trees, beautiful native evergreens, yet to and stars of various sizes. All are big in scale and can be folded away for storage.

From the standpoint of garden and craft enthusiasts, these vivid de-cors are doubly interesting as they encourage conservation of our
