

Weekend In Review—The Community In Picture

POSTOFFICE CHIEF—Master Sergeant James L. "Pepsi" Perry of Carrboro, a clerk in the Chapel Hill postoffice, was in charge of the 30th Division postoffice during the two-weeks training encampment that ended at Fort Bragg this past weekend.

SORTING MAIL—Cpl. Cecil Riley (left) of Route One and a fellow worker from Raleigh are shown sorting mail in the division postoffice during the training period of the National Guard "Old Hickory" division at Fort Bragg. In the background is M/Sgt. James L. Perry, postoffice chief.

IN FINANCE—Cpl. James Rives of Route One was employed in the Division Finance Office during the two weeks training period. Mr. Rives is employed with his brother, Eston Rives, in house construction her.

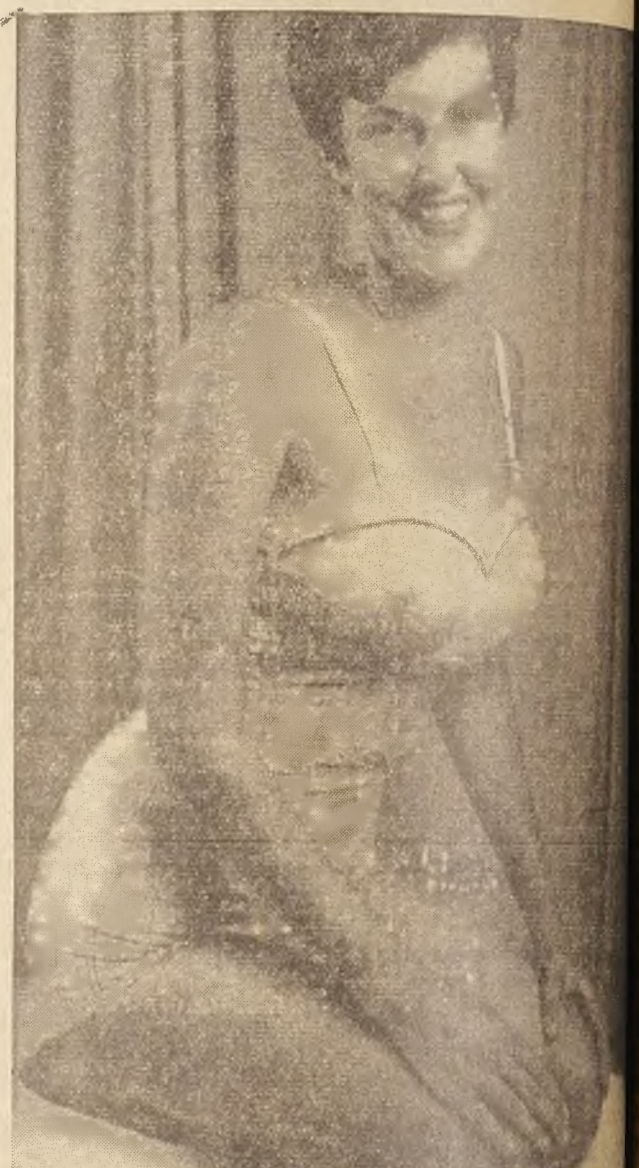

HAULING IN LIMIT—Bill Walston (right) caught the limit of eight bass in his first hour at University Lake the other day. He's shown above displaying his fine catch with Gene Rives, caretaker at the Lake. The fish caught on a Pico Perch lure ranged from two up to four and a half pounds. Mr. Walston, until recently employed at Huggins Hardware store, is now a manufacturer's representative for fishing tackle, associated with Hank Bruns of Newnan, Georgia, internationally known fisherman and outdoor writer. The two cover wholesale outlets in nine southeastern states.

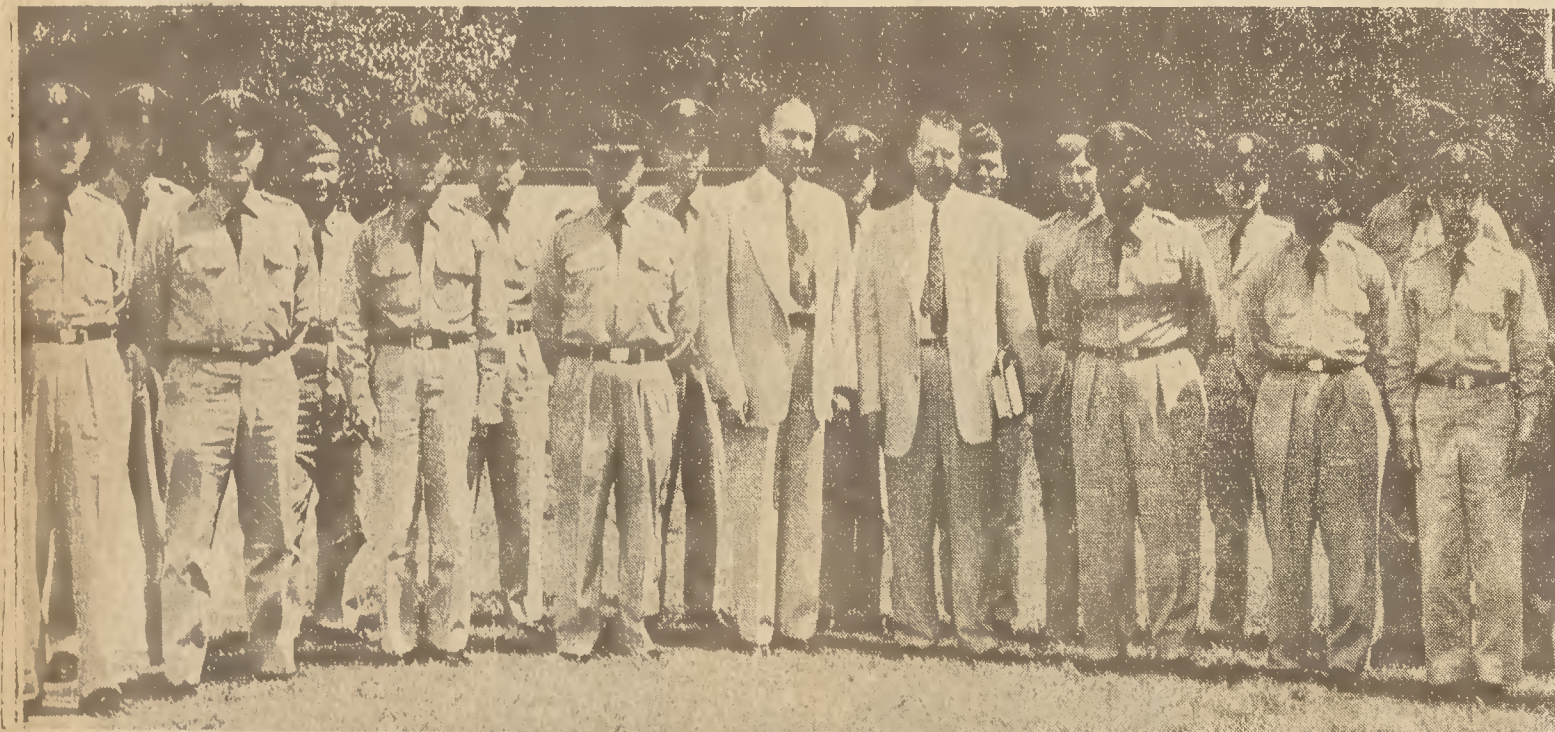

SWIMMING POOL CLOSES—The center of youth activity in the community for the summer—the University's Kessing Pool—closed down last Wednesday afternoon until next year. Several hundred youngsters—and adults too—participated in the daily recreational and instructional swimming program at the pool. Scene above shows a good crowd on closing day.

MELON FEAST FOR GLEN LENNOX—The management of Glen Lennox staged a long-postponed watermelon feast for residents of the apartment development on Thursday afternoon. A hundred or more youngsters and grown-ups alike gathered on Hayes Road as Herbert Hathaway (shown above), maintenance man for the development, cut the melons and passed them out.

REFRESHER—A sight to refresh any soul with an eye for beauty during the between-terms vacation at Carolina coed Joan Atkinson, a mighty attractive senior at the man's College who's been enrolled here during the Summer term.

AT ROTC CONFERENCE—A number of Air Force ROTC instructors representing several North Carolina colleges and universities were recent visitors to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The meeting was a two-day problem conference to discuss problems in ROTC programs that had come about because of recent changes in courses of study at a number of the schools represented. Instructors attending the meeting are shown above, (front row, left to right) Maj. M. White, Duke University; Lt. Roy M. Canfield, Duke; Maj. G. D. Lynn, University of North Carolina; Col. G. J. Smith, UNC; Dr. C. B. Todd, Headquarters, Air Force ROTC, Montgomery, Ala.; J. L. Godfrey, UNC; Lt. C. W. Holloway, Tuskegee Institute; CWO O. M. Robinson, A & T College, Greensboro; Capt. J. G. Barrett, East Carolina; (second row) Maj. H. B. McCullough, N. C. State; Maj. T. A. Wilson, A & T; Maj. J. W. Barnhill, Duke; Maj. J. B. Myers, Duke; Lt. H. R. Selfridge, N. C. State; Lt. R. A. Gray, UNC; Capt. J. M. Crane, East Carolina College; Maj. T. T. Gilchrist, UNC, and Capt. A. J. Lewis, Tuskegee.

READYING FOR SEASON'S START—Members of the Hill High School Wildcats' football squad are in their final practice before the opening game with Sanford there a week Friday. Shown here during a kicking drill are Max Wynn starting out, and Jimmy Harding, behind him.

WOMBLE REUNION—About 100 persons attended yesterday's yearly reunion of the Womble family, held at the Louis Sparrow home in the Mt. Carmel community. Dean D. D. Byran of Wake Forest, a distant relative of the clan who taught at the old three-months Merritt public school in the neighborhood back in 1905, spoke to the gathering on old times there and elsewhere. The silver dollar for having the youngest member of the clan present went to the two-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Argel Womble. Wade Bland of Carrboro, president this past year, was succeeded by London Womble. Mrs. Louis Sparrow was re-elected secretary. Next year's reunion will be held at Wallace Womble's home in Carrboro.

LYONS TOUR AT 'SHAPE'—Shown in front of the Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe headquarters in Paris are members of the J. C. Lyons summer travel tour in Europe. Flanking Lt. Gen. C.V.R. Schuyler in the front row center are Prof. and Mrs. Lyons of Chapel Hill, and their daughter, Elizabeth (the last of Lyons).