Miss Johnson, Dr. Leach Are Wed

The Chalybeate Springs Baptist Church was the setting Saturday afternoon at four o'clock for the wedding of Miss Frances Hope Johnson and Dr. William Alden Leach. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brogden Johnson of Chalybeate Springs, and Dr. Leach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Leach of Adams, Massachusetts.

The Rev. Truman S. Smith performed the single-ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Edith Hall, organist, and Mrs. Effie Wells, soloist.

The church was decorated for the ceremony with white asters and gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length dress of nylon tulle and chantly lace styled with a Queen Anne collar. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a shell headpiece of lace and miniature orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white feather carnations centered with white bride's roses.

Miss Majorie Ann Keen of Macon, Georgia, maid of honor, wore a waltz-length gown of white chiffon over pale blue taffeta. Her flowers were blue and white feather carnations.

John A Leach of Brooklyn, Connecticut, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Dr. Walter W. Crites, Jr., of Auburn, Maine, and Dr. Ronald M. Heaton of Lincoln, Rhode Island, class mates of the groom.

Assisting at the reception, held at the home of the bride, were Miss Jean Dula, Miss Sue Dell McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Myatt Johnson and Miss Judy Johnson.

For a wedding trip through Virginia and the Poconos, Mrs. Leach wore a costume dress of brown acetate trimmed in white angora, a brown velvet hat and lizard accessories. Her corsage was of white bride's roses.

Mrs. Leach, a graduate of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, was a technician in the Department of Pathology at North Carolina Memorial Hospital for two years prior to her marriage.

Dr. Leach is a graduate of Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, and the Tufts University School of Dental Medicine, Boston, Massachusetts. He is a member of the American Dental Association and Delta Sigma Delta fraternity.

Dr. and Mrs. Leach will make their home in Springfield, Vermont.

Up Street

By MARY MACCAULTY

With the arrival of a new crop of freshmen, looking younger than ever; the town has shaken off the lethargy of summer and become briskly aware of itself again.

Johnny brought me a lovely present that I will always keep. It is a peacock feather that he very carefully transported all the way from Wyoming. The colors are beautiful, gold and emerald with a touch of sapphire blue at the tip. It is almost four feet long and slightly bent.

More proof that America is certainly a wonderful country. Where else would a husky Marine Captain be able to win $32,000 answering questions about food and cooking.

Baby Bonnie Watches Candy and Johnny go off on the school bus with such a longing look.

PENNSYLVANIA BOY

Don Lear, letterman fullback for Carolina who is in line for a starting assignment this season, is from Hatboro, Pennsylvania.

THE LITTLE GIRL WHO GOES TO DANCE SCHOOL

... learns to meet people gracefully. And she is never baffled. Never embarrassed. Because she is taught that social poise which will carry her through life so much more confidently.

Only here, in the stimulating experience of the dance class, will she develop a sense of delightful, individual accomplishment as well as the posture, rhythm, the co-ordination, the poise, that molds a youngster into a better social being—graceful, gracious, self-possessed.

That ease in public appearance. That lovely poise and graceful confidence in meeting new people, new situations—these are some of the rewards for the little girl who goes to dance school. Your daughter has the potentialities. It is only a matter of giving her the opportunity. If she is over three, she is of dance school age. Don't let her miss this chance. Right now, why not call Mrs. Bounds. Talk it over—you'll find the school that offers just the right class for your little girl.

CLASSES BEGIN SEPT. 12th.—BALLROOM CLASSES BEGIN OCTOBER
