CARRBORO Social and Personal

A most interesting meeting of the University Chapter No. 264 O.E.S. was held in a regular meeting on last Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple in Chapel Hill. This occasion was the official visit of Mrs. Elizabeth West, District Deputy Grand Matron of this, the Tenth District and also the official visit of Mr. Guy W. Crutchfield, District Deputy Grand Patron of this district. Much worth while work of the order was accomplished by these two district officers, and a lovely program in their honor was given by the local chapter. A large number of members and visitors were present from other Eastern Star chapters in this area. A most enjoyable social hour followed the meeting.

Hardee of Hillsboro attended funeral services on Monday of this week for their aunt, Mrs. Hattie McLamb, funeral services were held from Colie Bridge Baptist Church near Fayetteville.

BUILDING NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yates, who bought the late C. R. Williams Home on the Old Greensboro Road, are now building a nice new home on this property near the M. H. Jones Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are also planning to build a new home in this area in the near future.

IN ROCKY MOUNT

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lanning, who recently celebrated their twenty fifth wedding anniversary here, are now in Rocky Mount where Mr. Lanning is engaged in road building project.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Mrs. Buddy Thomas, Mrs. Yda Watts, Mrs. Frank Poythress, Mrs. Wade Thrift, Bill Hardee, Austin Watts, all of Carrboro and D. T.

VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Jene Sturdivant, Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Offie Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Neville, Miss Jean Neville, Bob Wright, Leroy Bowden spent a most pleasant vacation this past weekend at Cheraw, S. C. Members of the party stayed over for the races held in Darlington, S. C.

REUNION

A family reunion of the family of Mrs. Dawson Hardee, the Harrelson Reunion, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardee on last Sunday. The day was a most enjoyable one for the fifty members of the family who came for the day from Fayetteville, Hope Mills, Steadman, Tabor City, Norfolk, Va., Hillsboro, and Yanceyville.
