THE LITTLE GIRL WHO GOES TO DANCE SCHOOL... learns to meet people gracefully. And she is never baffled. Never embarrassed. Because she is taught that social poise which will carry her through life so much more confidently. Only here, in the stimulating experience of the dance class, will she develop a sense of delightful, individual accomplishment as well as the posture, rhythm, the co-ordination, the poise, that molds a youngster into a better social being—graceful, gracious, self-possessed.

Photo Contest Winners Are Announced

After poring over a large field of entries in the News Leader's second two-week Amateur Photo Contest, the judges yesterday announced the winners of the snapshot competition. The third and final contest is now under way and will continue through Monday, September 26, after which time the grand prize cash winners will be selected from out of the individual contest winners. Entries may be left at Foister's Camera Store or mailed to the News Leader, Box 749, Chapel Hill. All entries may be picked up at either of these places at the end of the final contest. Summer vacation scenes—snapshots from all over the country—comprised the overwhelming majority of entries in the second contest. The winners of the $3.00 photo merchandise prizes at Foister's Camera Store were announced as follows: "People" Winner: Roy B. Barham for his photo of Mrs. R. J. Harris checking her handiwork in decorating a bridal couple's auto; honorable mention to Sally Bahnsen of 6 Cobb Terrace and to Mrs. Jeter Lloyd of Route One. In the "Pets" classification the judges named duplicate winners. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter S. Jones Jr., of 211 West Rosemary Street for her dog and cat snapshot entitled "Casual Acquaintance," and to Mrs. Frances Hunt of Route Three for her informal portrait of a child with her dog. In this category honorable mention went to Mrs. William Sprunt of Morgan's Creek Road. Opportunity is still knocking for all amateur photographers in this third and final contest. — You
