

New Edition Of 'Carolina Cooking' Beady To Go On Sale Next Wednesday

By MRS. MARK HANNA

The Junior Service League has revised and enlarged its popular "Carolina Cooking". First published in 1953 with a second printing in 1954, the book was in such popular demand that the League members voted to continue it.

Instead of a third printing, however, it was decided to revise the present book. By retaining the favorite recipes and adding many exciting new ones the editor has made "Carolina Cooking" a must for every cook, apprentice or accomplished alike.

"Carolina Cooking" will be sold by all members of the Chapel Hill Junior Service League for $1.50 per copy and will also be on sale at several prominent stores in Chapel Hill after next Wednesday. The book may also be ordered directly by writing to Post Office Box 374, Chapel Hill. Mail orders should be accompanied by a 15c additional fee to cover postage and handling.

New Section

An exciting new section which takes all the work out of party giving will be a boon to all readers. "Come to a Party" it's called, and come you will and enjoy yourself if it's an outdoor supper or a fancy himself an outdoor cook children's party. If your husband even he can allow himself to be seen using a cook-book for the "Outdoor Supper Party" was written by a man.

Or were you planning an afternoon tea? Your planning is done for you from how many days before the event you should begin purchasing and mixing filling to the important hint of eating your left-overs so your refrigerator will be clear to hold the plate of sandwiches!

For a "Children's Halloween Party" in addition to "What to Serve" you'll find "What to do"—a question every harried party-giving mother faces. The answer is here and the games are adaptable for any type party. Even decorating hints are included. Two other parties are described in equal detail, charm and informality.

The book also contains sections on pies, casseroles, vegetables, meats, salads, breads and many other gastronomic delights. Because of its popularity in such a football conscious world the section "Football Fanfare" was retained.

Tested Recipes

If you're planning a pre-game lunch or after-game supper this season, don't start until you have read this section. All the recipes in the book have been tested from the standpoints of availability of ingredients, taste appeal and eye appeal. Mrs. William S. Joyner, chairman of the cookbook was assisted by the following league members: Mrs. Ted Danziger, Mrs. Roland Giduz, Mrs. Mark Hanna, Mrs. J. M. Galloway.

The proceeds from the cookbook will enable the Junior Service League to carry on many of its community service projects. Since its organization in 1939 the organization has given young women of Chapel Hill opportunities for community service. Well-baby clinics, community education, a day camp for girls, and sponsorship of the Empty Stocking Fund are continuing projects of the League.

Agricultural exports have increased again this year after showing a seven per cent gain in 1953 over 1953.

Garden Club Speaker To Be Mrs. Hardison

At its first meeting of the new year on Monday afternoon the Chapel Hill Garden Club will hear Mrs. R. L. Hardison speak on "Building and Maintaining a Lawn in Chapel Hill."

The meeting will be held at 3 p.m. in the Institute of Pharmacy auditorium at the corner of Church and West Rosemary Streets. Club President Mrs. Carl Pegg said Mrs. Hardison's talk would introduce a series of programs on horticulture this year. Mrs. Hardison is horticulture chairman for the Club. All persons interested in joining the Club were invited to come to Monday's meeting by Mrs. Pegg.

Mrs. J. W. Umstead, chairman of the plant sale to be staged by the Club on November 4, asked everybody interested in ordering plant shrubbery in a wholesale order through the club to bring their order to the meeting on Monday.

Arts & Crafts Group Has Scuppernong Fete

Members of the Painting Workshop of the Community Club's Arts and Crafts Department met at Tenney Heritage, the home of Mrs. J. Bright Kelly last Thursday, to discuss plans for the coming season, and to enjoy a "Scuppernong" Party under the grape arbor.

Present were Mrs. Kelly's co-chairman, Mrs. Gerald Lawton, Mrs. H. L. Weeks, Mrs. F. H. Highsmith, Mrs. W. P. Pendergraft,

NEW HOPE COMMUNITY NOTES

By Mrs. Marion Wilson Phone 8-3541

Last Thursday night we were glad to welcome back Guyte Cotten, choir director of the New Hope Presbyterian Church choir. Choir members gave a party at the Manse for Guyte and his bride and presented them with a bedspread, Sherbet, cake and candies were served.

At last the shipment of steel bar-joints for the new church has arrived. Folks at New Hope were beginning to worry that the building would not be framed-in by the time bad weather arrived, but now that the steel joists and wood ceiling joists are on hand, work will progress rapidly again.

Sixty-one pioneers and councilors of the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro spent the weekend at Camp New Hope last week.

Mrs. Betty Sharpe has been at Duke Hospital undergoing an operation, but is home recuperating now.

The wedding of Helen Mohler and Bob Strayhorn took place on Saturday afternoon at the Hillsboro Methodist Church. Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Betty Sharpe, associate organist at the New Hope Presbyterian Church, and Dan Windley III, soloist. Kenneth Strayhorn, Mrs. Jerry Strayhorn, Mitchell Lloyd, Jr., Neal Tapp and Kenneth Brown, all of New Hope community took part in the ceremonies.

Mrs. Iowa Johnson, Mrs. S. B. Cameron, Mrs. Roland Woodward, and Mrs. Alfred Linde.

Change Of Community Club Meeting Place Is Announced; Introductory Program Is Set

A change of place is stressed in announcing the first meeting of the Chapel Hill Community Club. Due to projected changes in the Chapel of the Cross Parish House, the meetings this year will be held at the Institute of Pharmacy Building on Church Street. The first general meeting will be Friday, September 30, at 3 p.m. All are urged, however, to come early, in order to exchange greetings and chat with new members.

The program for this meeting will be introduction of the five heads of departments, who will speak briefly of the work and play of their groups. Mrs. D. C. Phillips will present the varied program of the American Home Department. Mrs. Florence Hall Highsmith will introduce the various workshop leaders of the Arts and Crafts Department, while Mrs. W. Carson Ryan will tell of her plans for the International Relations Department. The Literature Department program will be explained by Mrs. J. S. Henninger, and Mrs. Walter Holt will describe projects of great interest to be undertaken by the Health and Welfare Department.

Members will then sign up for the departments in which they wish to be enrolled.

Recognize Chairmen

Chairmen of the following committees will then be recognized: Membership, Mrs. C. C. Shotts; Publicity, Mrs. F. E. Shearin; Hospitality, Mrs. S. B. Cameron and Mrs. J. M. Tilley; Music, Mrs. A. S. Winsor; Contact, Mrs. R. B. Sharpe and Mrs. Frank W. Hanit; Legislation and Citizenship, Mrs. W. W. Cort; Youth Conservation, Mrs.

Bernard Boyd and Mrs. F. Carlisle; Birthday Remembrance, Mrs. Mrs. Alberta Dugan; Year Book, Mrs. G. T. Schwenning; Savings Bonds, Mrs. W. E. Thompson; Stamps for Veterans' Hospitals, Mrs. Collier Cobb; Representative on Community Council, Mrs. Walter Hartung; Finance, Mrs. S. E. Leavitt; Mary Bayley Pratt Fund, Mrs. A. M. Jordan; Ways and Means, Mrs. John Gilbert; Transportation, Mrs. Roland Woodward.

As the Community Club is Chapel Hill's federated club it has state and nation-wide contacts. All members present at the first meeting will be invited to the Eighth District of N. C.'s meeting at Bonlee for luncheon Tuesday, October 4. Transportation will be provided for this trip.

Opportunity For Newcomers

For newcomers to Chapel Hill, membership affords a means of getting acquainted with the good folk of Chapel Hill, and their varied fields of interest. Its working groups build firm and lasting friendships. The object of the club is to promote in every possible way the health, happiness,
