A message from 'Howard A. Yandle, "Your Pharmacist"

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK, October 2nd to 8th, has set aside to remind you and ourselves that "Your Pharmacy Works For Better Community Health."

THERE ARE MANY other services we perform, but essentially our training as a Pharmacist, is to provide with proper medicines that help you to get well and keep well.

COMPOUNDING PRESCRIPTIONS important enough to mean the difference between good health and bad, often life and death, requires a great mental concentration to avoid any possible error.

OUR WORKING HOURS are long because our Pharmacy is open on evenings and holidays when others can play. At the end of a long day we may momentarily feel that there surely must be an easier way to earn our daily bread.

BUT THERE IS really nothing else we would rather be than a Pharmacist, and we thank you for the privilege of being able to serve.

EACH NIGHT we have the comforting thought that, because we are a Pharmacist, we can help folks like you to enjoy a better life.

Miss Andrews To Be Married

Plans for the wedding of Miss Anzenette Hackney Andrews of Chapel Hill and Preston Lloyd McKnight of Carrboro this Sunday at 4 p.m. were announced today. The Rev. Charles Hubbard will officiate at the ceremony to be held in the University Methodist Church.

Miss Andrews is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Raymond Andrews of the Durham Road, Chapel Hill. Mr. McKnight is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston McKnight of Carrboro.

Miss Carla Smith will attend as maid of honor, and bridesmaids will be Miss Betty Wright and Miss Margaret Andrews, cousins of the bride, and Miss Carolyn Davis. Music will be presented by Miss Mae Marshbanks, organist, and Mrs. Tom Nichols, soloist, of Greensboro.

Mr. McKnight will have as best man, his father. Ushers will be Ronnie McKnight, brother of the groom; Henry Andrews, brother of the bride; and Dan Dollar.

The parents of the bride will entertain members of the wedding party, the immediate families and out of town guests at a reception, following the wedding, in the church parlor.

A cake cutting for the wedding party will be held after the rehearsal on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Auburn Wright in Dogwood Acres.

Recent bridal courtesies for Miss Andrews were a miscellaneous shower held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Crabtree on University Lake Road and a crystal, silver and linen shower given Saturday evening by Mrs. Everett Andrews and Miss Margaret Andrews.
