Hospital Auxiliary

To Hear Dr., Mrs. Wells

Dr. and Mrs. Warner Wells will speak at the first meeting of the Memorial Hospital Auxiliary here this Friday morning.

Mrs. Fletcher Green, Auxiliary President, announced that the meeting will be held at 10:30 in the School of Nursing Auditorium. She invited newcomers in the community to attend the meeting and learn about the Auxiliary's work in the Hospital, noting that Mrs. Raymond Kaighn, Chairman of Volunteer Services and her aides, were anxious to recruit some additional workers.

Dr. and Mrs. Wells will speak on the program on their experiences during their stay in Japan, out of which came Dr. Wells' translation of the "Hiroshima Diary." Mrs. Green will preside and call on committee chairmen for reports on various phases of the Auxiliary's work.

NEW HOPE COMMUNITY NOTES

By Mrs. Marion Wilson Phone 8-3541

Last Friday work began on the new church at New Hope. Sam Blackwood and Ernest Mauer with the help of John Ensign, Winston Strayhorn, Bob Strayhorn and Shelton Nunn started putting the bar-joists in place. On Saturday a work party was held to finish the job of raising the bar-joists. On Monday Sam Blackwood, Ernest Mauer, John Ensign and Bill Barker started putting together the ceiling joists, a complicated business if ever I saw one. With so many helping hands and a cheering squad of helpless women, it looks as though building is really going forward at last.

Up Street

By MARY MacCAULTY

They're paving Barclay Road. Folks living out that way are forced to view this improvement with mixed emotions. The first reaction, "Hurrah, we're out of the mud," is followed closely by, "Who got tar all over the rug?"

A rattled member at the Sales Executives Ladies Night program introduced his wife so, "Gentlemen, I have as my wife, my guest, Ann."

Three little boys had the best time playing hide-and-seek among the loaded baskets in the grocery store last Friday.

BAPTISTS TO MEET

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the Baptist Church at Chapel Hill will be held tomorrow, beginning with a church supper at six o'clock.

Members of the church will bring basket dinners and spread them in the church dining room. All student members will be guests of local church families. At 7:15 all of the 875 members of the church who are present will go up into the auditorium for the annual conference. Dr. Fred Ellis, Chairman of the Board of Deacons and professor of pharmacology in the Medical School, will preside.

LIBRARY EXHIBIT HONORS

The University Library is currently exhibiting materials in honor of the town of Bath, the oldest town in North Carolina, which is celebrating its 250 anniversary this first week of October. In three cases on the main floor the Library is exhibiting books, maps, pictures and clippings concerning the men, events and buildings of old Bath.

NEW PLANETARIUM SHOW

The first of the 1955-56 series of shows at the Morehead Planetarium opens Tuesday night. The initial offering is titled, "Zooming the Solar System."

PASTORS' PARAGRAPHS

Carrboro Methodist Church

The Rev. J. Paul Edwards

HOLY COMMUNION: "I am with you always, even unto the end." Matthew 28:20

"This is my body which is broken for you." 1 Corinthians 11:24

A few years ago at a Barber's Supply convention the publicity agent brought in an unkempt, long haired, dirty drunk. His picture was taken, and then they went to work on him, giving him a shave, hair cut, bought him a new suit and gave him a cane and spats. A couple of days later the manager of the hotel found this same man in a back alley, drunk, unshaven and dirty. He said, "You can clean up on the outside, but you can never make anything out of a man until you clean him up on the inside."

There is only one person who can do that for us, and that is Jesus Christ. He does that for any man who seeks it. Did he not say, "Whosoever will let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow me?"

How can we help bring about this great transformation in our lives? We do it by our thoughts, so is he." Or as someone else has said, "We are not what we think we are, but what we think, we are."
