Bluntly But Factually!

Five Cents The Copy

CHAPEL HILL, MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1955

$4.50 The Year By Mail

EIGHT PAGES THIS ISSUE

OPLE

ERSITY STUDENT WAS d with assault in Rert this morning in vith a noisy demonblocked traffic on et at the lower quadgood while at the e post-game exodus rnoon. The defendant with slugging another icting a serious head out him in Memorial ice formed a cordon he disturbance.

CHOOL COACH BOB Cemetery will follow. ts to 'come a cropper' necessary to scout the nieces and nephews. team this season. "I club pretty well," he they're potentially the the district." Mr. to "look out - we N WASN'T ON HAND s overlooked the oc- Baptist Church. store's birthday in couped this morning Lodge No. 408. Well sing him Hapwhen he gets back!" ITIZENS WILL GET A close-up view of a one of the Goodyear ighter-than-air crafts n the afternoon of The Chapel Hill stopsponsored under the the Chapel Hill Tire

HUSBANDS, FIRSTat Duke University of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roosevell Avenue, is take students to reraquate scholarships ,000 for the 1955-36 ar. Miss Husbands is uate of Chapel Hill

AST-TALKING ITINe subscription salesny made a good haul o-house swoop through ity over the weekend. scriptions for one of top news magazines, ely-dressed young wo specially effective apthe males and wooed onto the dotted line game poll approach. D BILL FETZER WERE athletics there. Coach Pittsboro 18 to 6. mean end on the David-

PITALIZED register of patients Hospital includes Brinkhouse, Mrs. Paul L. Burnette, Jesse dwards and Mrs. J. G.

Monday kview Garden Club, he Holy Family, Glen

"Ondine," Playmakers'

Tuesday Health and Welfare ommunity Club, Mrs.

aymond Thompson, arecture, Carroll Hall. Wednesday

BSA, Orange District noir Hall.

Thursday Arts and Crafts, Com-

Mrs. R. B. Sharpe,

Assembly Room. YDC, Graham Me-

otball, Lincoln High vs. Park, Carrboro.

Shepard Jones ad- single-concert admission price.

Mr. Humphreys Dies At Home Last Evening

John W. Humphreys, 53, former manager of the University Laundry, died at his home, 426 West Cameron Avenue, at 10:45 last night following a serious illnes of several weeks.

Funeral service with full Masonic honors will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Chapel Hill Baptist Church with the Reverends Samuel T. Habel, Charles ntire area and quickly Hubbard, and Wade F. Hook, officiating. Burial in Chapel Hill

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. ght's ball game here Edith Betts Humphreys, two broth-The coach at Ox- ers, Luther W. of Raleigh, and Mr. Culton said it Sidney F. of Garner; and several

Born in Wilson on September 2, 1902, he was the son of Wesley C. and Mollie Humphreys. He had lived in Chapel Hill since 1921 and he met some of the was for 24 years the University ers at Saturday's game Laundry manager, retiring in Maryland and they 1945. For the last 10 years he has been a salesmn for Boggs and Company, Inc., of Charlotte.

Mr. Humphreys was a Past Masanniversary of the ter of University Lodge No. 408 of his department store Masons in Chapel Hill, a Shriner, st Saturday. Business Past Patron of Chapter No. 264 of New York, but he'll the Order of the Eastern Star here, time late this week. and a member of the Chapel Hill

Pallbearers for the funeral will Saturday's business, be members of the University

JOHN W. HUMPHREYS

Lincoln Wins Homecoming Over Horton

By "Jake" Hogan

The Lincoln Tigers won their omecoming visitors at fifth victory of the season on Fri-College Saturday. Both day night against Horton High of Captain Joe Farrar put Lincoln team with a weight of in scoring position in the first Ramsey came back and tied the grams at Chapel Hill, it was an sible for 26 faculty members on ball game up by carrying the nounced in a report issued this subjects ranging from cosmic raball one yard to give a 6-6 tie up week by Chancellor Robert B diation to a study in English perin the second quarter.

Winfred Johnson made a 14-yard Most of the 6,221 gifts were financial problems also got help son then came back in the same ment of the economic, health, proquarter to give the Tigers an 18-6 fessional and educational programs victory over Horton, on a 20-yard at Chapel Hill and throughout the dash and pitch-out to Joe Farrar state.

The strong Tigers' line held Hor- $220,000 raised during the year tinguished British neurologist now ton down on two of its pay dirt ending June 30, there were 9,000 on the Harvard Medical School attempts in the second and third alumni listed as dues-paying mem- faculty, will deliver the fourth anquarters. One was held on the one bers of the Alumni Association.

In the homecoming parade.

did a brisk business Saturday morning, selling their revised edition of "Carolina Cooking" in the midst of the downtown Homecoming crowd. Along with their sales talk they offered a sample plate full of goodies from the cookbook to persons who passed by their downtown booth. Shown above-Mrs. James O.

Legion Delegates Back From National Meeting

of the N. C. Department of the American Legion, returned yesterday from a busy 10 days at the Legion's national convention

He headed the Tar Heel deleduring the four days of the regular convention last week and stayed in Miami before and after the convention for meetings of department leaders. Accompanying him to Miami from Chapel Hill were Norman F. "Top" Jackson, Commander of Chapel Hill Post No. Six, and Mrs. Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Heitman. They stayed at the Everglades Hotel, headquarters for the Tar ertson reported the Tar Heel delegation to have been quite active in convention business. of the Foreign Affairs and Americandsm Committees which passthe meeting, he said.

On the last day of the con-

$221,000 Given To University Through Nine Foundations

By Pete Ivey

pall through the line for a 6-0 to give extra and special aid to $50,278.07—by3,558 alumni. The score. A few minutes later, Gene teaching, research and other pro funds made research projects posnual Bryson Memorial Lecture on and the other on the three-yard The $221,034.99 represents contributions to the Business Foun cine. At half-time, Marsha Williams dation, Medical Foundation, Alumwas crowned Miss Lincoln High. ni Annual Giving Campaign, Educational Foundation, Journalism

First Series Concert Oct. 27

Ricci, renown violinist.

The performance will be given and $3.00, he said. Derek Denny-Brown, cert Series Secretary Jimmy Wal can violinist, was known as a child Negative Aspects of Cerebral lorial Hospital Audi- lace urged local persons to pur prodigy when he appeared as so- Motor Function." chase subscriptions for the entire loist with leading orchestras and Dr. Charles W. Hooker, who four performance series and ear in recital beginning at the age of heads the Bryson Lectures Comlize a considerable saving over the eight. Now in his early thirties, no mittee, has announced that the done. — Actually I think it did on sale at Graham Memorial for generation.

The Chapel Hill Concert Series' $5.50, $6.50, and $7.50, depending second season will open a week on the seats desired in the audifrom this Thursday evening (Oct- torium. The price of single ad-Bull's Head Bookshop ober 27) with a recital by Ruggiero mission tickets at the door for the Ober 27) with a recital by Ruggiero mission tickets at the door for the Thursday, in the Clinic Auditor-Ricci concert will be $2.00, $2.50, at 8 o'clock in Memorial Hall. Con. Mr. Ricci, a world-famous Ameri-Brown will speak on "Positive and has been acclaimed as one of the lecture wil be open to the general the boys some good in showing Carolina did not have any candidates seeking national offices in the Legion this year, Mr. Robgation of about 500 Legionaires | North Carolinians were members ed on the most vital business of vention Mr. Robertson cast North Carolina's 54 votes in favor of Addison Wagner of Battle Creek, Michigan, successful candidate for national commander of the veterans' group. Altogether there were more than 15,000 person at the convention.

iodicals. Nine students with serious

Bryson Lecture

Dr. Derek E. Denny-Brown, dis

Set Thursday

Foundation, Law School Founda-

More than 6,000 contributions to-tion. quarter when he carried the ball talling $221,034.99 were given to Total contributions by alumni in ix yards to Pittsboro's one-yard- the University of North Carolina the annual giving campaign (reline. Rufus Bynum, one of Lincoln's at Chapel Hill during 1954-55 gular donations for unrestricted outstanding fullbacks, carried the through nine foundations organized use by alma mater) amounted to drive to give Lincoln a six-point earmarked for specific purposes, margin in the third quarter. John- in special programs for develop-

House.

In addition to the more than

Thursday at the School of Medi-Dr. Thomas Farmer of the UNC Medical School, who arranged Dr. Denny-Brown's visit, said that he will be in Chapel Hill from today through Saturday, participating in conferences and rounds in the > Hospital. The highlight of his visit, the Ross Herman Jennings Bryson Lecture, will be given at 8 p.m., ium on the fourth floor of N. C. Memorial Hospital. Dr. Denny-

> Medical School and Memorial single-concert admission price.

The Series subscriptions are still most brilliant violinsts of this public as well as to visiting physithem they've got to be on their cians.

EARLY DISMISSAL FRIDAY

The Chapel Hill Elementary and High Schools and Glenwood Elementary Schools will be dismissed at noon Friday so that pupils can attend the State Fair. Northside and Lincoln School students will probably be given a holiday at noon tomorrow for this purpose.

Free tickets will be given out just before the 12 o'clock dismissal hour on that day. No lunch will be served in the school cafeteria, and the school busses will leave promptly at 12:05 to take the children

PTA Announces Future Plans

Teaching Philosophy and curriculum plans for the coming year will be discussed by the teachers of each grade in the Chapel Hill Elementary and High Schools with parents at the next meeting of the Chapel Hill PTA.

The program for the November session was announced by A. K. King, Association president, who also announced at Thursday evening's first meeting of the year for the group that at the January meeting a report will probably be presented on the White House Conference by a local person who will attend that conference.

Joe M. Galloway Chairman of the Finance Committee, announced that the Budget Committee will meet this Thursday at 8 o'clock in the High School Library. Parents wishing to present budget requests for specific purposes are invited to attend.

It was finally moved that a High School Council be formed within the PTA, since the problems in he high school are so different from those related to the Elementary School. Mr. King accepted the motion and designated it as the first order of new business to be considered at the November meet-

Through Bus To New York ivow Scheduled

A new bus schedule direct from Chapel Hill to New York City was started today by Carolina Trailways.

The first bus on the 15-hour run left the local union bus station at 4:40 p. m. today and will arrive in New York City at 7:45 tomorrow morning. H. C. Pearce, Bus Station Manager, said the new express schedule, which originates here, cuts off about two hours on previous traveling time from here to New York. Following is the timetable for the daily four-stop New York trip: Leave Chapel Hill 4:40 p.m. arrive Richmond 10:15 p.m., arrive Washington 1 a. m., arrive Baltimore 2:30 a. m., arrive Philadelphia 5:35 a. m., and arrive New York 7:45 a. m.

Another new direct interstate schedule for Chapel Hill that is starting today will be an Atlanta bus. This will be on a new section of an express run from Raleigh to Dallas. The bus will leave Chapel Hill at 7:02 p. m. and arrive in Atlanta at 7 a. m. justice.

words of Coach Bob Culton.

"In the first half they played very poorly," said the coach. "For some reason they seemed overconfident and Graham ran all over them. They snapped back and out-

PLAYER OF WEEK

quarterback for Chapel Hill,

has been named the Wildcats'

Player-of-the-Week, for his performance in last Friday night's contest with Graham. His 55-yard touchdown runback of a punt and field generalship sparked the Wildcats' second-played Graham in the second half half comeback in the game.

toes all the time."

Ruffin Harville, sophomore

CHEST DIVISION HEAR-WIIliam R. Cherry, assistant Cashier of the Bank of Chapel Hill, has been appointed chairman of Community Chest business district solicitation, to be carried out by he Jaycees. Goal of the 1956 joint fund drive is $25,733. The campaign will be staged November 1 to 9.

Leaders Picked

Senior, Junior and Sophomore in effect. clases at Chapel Hill High School are Michael Alexander, President, senior class; Tommy Goodrich, President, junior class; and Ruf-

Campbell, vice - president; Beth Flemming, secretary; and Mary Bahnsen, treasurer. Sarah Cole is the senior associate justice on the Honor Council.

ior class are Tommy Hogan, vice- University. president; Elaini Livas, secretary; The Class of 1916 finished first In the area campaigns New David Schwentker, treasurer, Paul Cheek, social chairman; and Wil-

START ON GYMTORIUM—The basement and foundations for Lincoln High School's long-delayed gymtorium have been started, as shown above in a view looking toward the section of the modernistic building completed in 1951.

Mrs. Brittain Returns To Local Red Cross Post

back at her desk in the downtown day. office of the local Chapter this Her work there was a round-the-

Mrs. Mabel Brittain, Executive dustrial cities about 15 miles from Secretary of the Chapel Hill Chap- Hartford. Mrs. Brittain was relievter of the American Red Cross, was ed from her duties there on Thurs-morning after nearly eight weeks clock proposition much of the time, of emergency duty in flood-strick- beginning at 6:30 a.m. and often going through until 1 a.m. the next Her return on Saturday at the day. Initially, Mrs. Brittain said, urgent request of J. Temple Gob- the Red Cross' big job was issuing bel, President of the Chapel Hill food and clothing and arranging Chapter, coincided with the dis- emergency housing. The bigger job astrous floods over the weekend of rehabilitation had not been fulat Ansonia and Seymour, twin in- (See MRS. BRITTAIN, Page 8)

Deposit Is No Longer Required For Postoffice Lockbox Keys

At High School | Notices will be posted soon in made for the lockboxes in the post office and turned.

Lockbox patrons of the Post Of- each key over the two free ones. fice need no longer pay an advance This is a charge rather than an deposit for keys, and they may re- advance deposit, and no refund ceive a refund upon request for will be made upon surrender of deposits previously paid on their the lockbox and the return of the keys. A charge of 50 cents will be Notices will be posted soon in made for each regular key not renouncing the new change in poli- The refunds, amounting to 22 Officers recently elected by the cy governing keys. The change is cents per key, are available to lockbox patrons for the keys issued Under the new regulation, the prior to the effective date for the lockbox holder is entitled to two new policy change, from the box keys without an advance deposit rent window. All box keys should being required. The post office be brought to the post office when fin Harville, President, sophomore department will furnish more applying for the refund. If not than two keys upon request, but a called for by Dec. 31, 1955, the re-Other senior officers are Clyde fee of 50 cents will be charged for posit will be declared forfeited.

Alumni Giving Report Issued

The Wildcats will be in good shape as a whole for this week's Clyde Campbell is expected to be ready to play again by the November 4 homecoming game with Henderson.

The Classes of 1916 and 1950 ing gifts to the program raised were the leaders in the third year more than $1,000. Nine other Additional officers in the jun- of Alumni Annual Giving at the classes joined '50 in having 100 or more donors in the third year.

in the amount of money contri- York City led the way with $4,883, buted with a total of $2,714, while followed in the order named by the Class of 1950 ranked first in Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Chapliam Riggsbee, junior associate number of contributors with 175. el Hil, Charlotte, Raleigh, Houston, Eighteen of the 65 classes mak- Durham, Goldsboro, and Washing-

Graham Rolls Over Wildcats 32-12 Excluding North Carolina, New York had the largest number of donors with 243. Virginia was sec-The Chapel Hill High School It was the Wildcats' first defeat; The Graham offense, the only ond with 202, followed by Georgia Wildcats were "overconfident" in in four starts. This Friday they'll single-wing line-up in the con-114, New Jersey 110, South Carotheir 32-to-12 loss to Graham meet another traditional arch ference, kept the Wildcats conlina 108, and Florida 104.

there on Friday night, in the rival, Oxford, in the Lions Park fused until too late in the game. The final figures for the third Four touchdowns were scored by year showed 3,558 contributors for the home team, leaving the score a total of -50,278.07. This represented an increase of 27 per cent in donors and 10 per cent in In the third quarter Ruffin amount of money contributed over Harville returned a punt 55-yards the previous year. R. Mayne Albright, Raleigh attorney and a member of the Class of 1931, served as Chairman for Alumni Annual Giving.

morrow partly cloudy, not so cold. High today 62; low tonight in the upper 30s. High tomorrow in the mid 50s.

Clearing and cold tonight. To-

	High	Low	Rainfal
nursday	76	45	.11
riday	69	57	.38
aturday	. 65	39	.02
ınday	63	38	01

25-0 at halftime. for Chapel Hill's initial score, and in the final frame Gene Smith slipped over from the nine-vard line on a handoff. Harville and Rudy Barker were the outstanding offensive players for Chapel Hill. game. They suffered no serious injuries last Friday night, and Tommy Goodrich, out for the past two weeks, will be back in action again in the backfield, Gray Moody will be playing at his guard slot in the line, too. Co-Captain

RUFFIN HARVILLE