

Women's News

Wendy Winborne Women's Editor
Lou Ivey Becomes Bride
James Dunn Jr., Saturday

Following the rehearsal on Friday night, the bride's parents entertained at a cake cutting at their home.

Cradle Call

Mark Stuart Owens
A son, Mark Stuart, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. "Peg" Owens of Roosevelt Avenue at Memorial Hospital this morning.

Karen Sue Hite
A daughter, Karen Sue, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Murrell Hite of Carrboro on October 3 at Memorial Hospital.

John Robert Morton
A son, John Robert, was born to Dr. and Mrs. James Robert Morton of 166 Bagley Drive on October 1 at Memorial Hospital.

Norman Craig Coggins
A son, Norman Craig, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lester Coggins of Longview Street on October 4 at Memorial Hospital.

Stephanie Ann Bridges
A daughter, Stephanie Ann, was born to Prof. and Mrs. Leonard Hal Bridges at Memorial Hospital on October 2.

Miss Bertha Pickard and Mrs. J. E. McDonnell spent the weekend in Asheville and the vicinity.

Among those who attended the Pythian homecoming yesterday at Clayton were Mr. and Mrs. George Stansbury, Mr. and Mrs. Romulus Best and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Best.

Miss Lucy M. Cobb of Raleigh is spending a few days here with Mrs. Collier Cobb and Miss Mary Cobb.

Dr. and Mrs. O. David Garvin, Mrs. Edith Brocker and Miss Sarah Malpas attended the wedding of Miss Frances Rice and Dr. Warfield Garson in Sanford Saturday.

Mrs. Romie Pendergraft returned Saturday from a week's visit in Georgetown, South Carolina, with her son, Sergeant W. R. Pendergraft, and the family.

The Taylor Thornes have begun construction on their home in Hidden Hills.

Miss Lois Cox, who is educational director of the Durham City Health Department and a resident of Chapel Hill, was called to Indiana last week because of the death of her mother.

Mrs. Isabelle Carter left yesterday to attend a professional meeting being held in Louisville, Kentucky. She also plans to visit the Ted Franks, former residents of Chapel Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Yancey of Petersburg, Virginia, were here for the game and visited with Miss Margaret Hurlocker and other friends during the weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. David Davis have gone to Tennessee to be with Dr. Davis' father, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Creel and daughter, Catherine, of Wilmington were weekend guests of Mrs. W. G. Pendergrass.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Simmons and daughter Beth of Charlotte spend the weekend here with Mrs. D. A. Groves and Winfred Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Basnight are on a vacation trip to Washington, D. C., by way of Virginia Beach. They will make the return trip through the Shenandoah valley.

Mrs. Harold Meyer is visiting in Meadow, Georgia, with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. George Meyer.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Smith have as their guest Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Herbert, of New Orleans.

Weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. John Graham were Miss Rena Gaham of Washington, D. C., and Dr. Graham's mother of Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reid of Winston-Salem attended the game on Saturday and visited with Dean and Mrs. Fred H. Weaver.

Mrs. Gales P. Perry and daughters, Lynn, Joan and Stephanie, who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Perry, have received their orders and expect a port call to sail to Manila soon to join Captain Perry.

In Honolulu, they saw Mrs. Irene Fussler, a former Chapel Hill resident. They attended a Japanese church in Tokyo where the hymns, although in a different language, are the same as ours.

Martha Pierpont Weds James Robinson

In an evening ceremony held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Chapel of the Cross, Miss Martha Warren Pierpont of Chapel Hill became the bride of James Clack Robinson, Jr., of Ahoskie.

MRS. JAMES CLACK ROBINSON Whitley-Scott Photo

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Warren Pierpont of Chapel Hill, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of Littleton.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and white candles. Two seven-branched candelabra stood before the flower banked altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin, designed with portrait neckline, princess waist-line and long sleeves that ended in points over the hands.

Miss Constance Rust Marple, maid of honor and cousin of the bride, wore a waltz-length dress of Neptune green taffeta with long smooth fitting bodice and off the shoulder neckline.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the wedding in the Carolina Inn ballroom. Among those assisting were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKay, Mr.

sage of cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the groom, wore a waltz-length gown of brown lace over champagne taffeta and a bronze orchid.

A reception was given by the bride's parents following the wedding in the Carolina Inn ballroom. Among those assisting were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKay, Mr.

and Mrs. J. T. O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. George Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Voorhis, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. A. Williams, and Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride chose a charcoal grey knit suit with charcoal and white striped jacket, black accessories and a white orchid.

Mrs. Robinson attended Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, and was graduated from the University of North Carolina where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority and Phi Beta Kappa honor society.

Mr. Robinson is a graduate of the UNC School of Pharmacy and a past president of Kappa Psi, professional fraternity.

The couple will live in Ahoskie where Mr. Robinson is a pharmacist.

Out-of-Town Guests
Out-of-town guests were Mrs. H. W. Stuart and Mrs. I. A. Dryden, Jr., of Waco, Texas; Mrs. M. M. Marple, Pensacola, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tebbens, Riverside, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. MacKesson, Statesville; Mrs. Horace Robinson, Mrs. Robert Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Read Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Parker, all of Littleton, and Lyn Herndon of Raleigh.

Pre-nuptial parties held this month for Miss Warren were a dinner party, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Voorhis; dessert bridge, Miss Linda Garriss; shower, Miss Eleanor Saunders; afternoon party, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rogers; afternoon party, Mrs. R. W. Madry and Mrs. A. H. A. Williams; dinner party, Mrs. Edgar Jenkins and Mrs. Erolyn Jenkins Blount; luncheon, Mrs. E. L. Mackie and Mrs. Anne Fitzgibbon; and bridesmaids' lunch-

NEWCOMERS

Chapel Hill—Carrboro—Glen Lennox—Rural

LT. B. F. WARNER and his wife, JUNE, are living at 45 Hamilton Road, Glen Lennox. Mrs. Warner, a graduate of Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia, taught in her hometown, Norfolk, before her marriage to Lt. Warner, a native of South Carolina and a graduate of the University at Columbia. Lt. Warner is an instructor in the University's NROTC.

MR. AND MRS. G. A. WHITE, JR., and their five year old son, Miss Constance Marple and Miss Margery Marple. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Padgett were hosts Friday at a luncheon for the wedding party, families and out of town guests.

Mrs. H. W. Stuart and Mrs. I. A. Dryden, Jr., of Waco, Texas, were hostesses at the rehearsal dinner, held Friday at the Carolina Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKay and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Neil entertained at a luncheon on Saturday for the wedding party, families and out of town guests.

GAIL ANDERSON III, moved here recently to 500 Pritchard Avenue. Originally from Taylorsville, they have live recently in Nashville, Tennessee, where Mr. White, who is in charge of education, for the southern division of Newsweek magazine, was engaged in graduate study at Peabody College.

DR. AND MRS. B. L. BAER, residents of 42 Hayes Road, have come here recently from New York. Dr. Baer, a resident at Memorial Hospital is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Herbert R. Baer of Gimghoul Road. Mrs. Baer attended St. John's University in Brooklyn, New York.

MR. AND MRS. M. H. BANKS, who are living in the Stanback home on Dogwood Drive, have two sons, TOM and DAN, who are away in college. Mr. Banks is a retired executive of Standard Oil Company. During the past 20 years the Banks have lived in India, Ceylon, England and more recently in Scarsdale, New York. Mrs. Banks is a niece of Mrs. J. L. Von Glahn.

For Flowers—For Gifts
it's University Florist
"Flowers by Wire World-Wide"
124 E. Franklin Phone 6816

STATESMEN...

humor happens to run... the works of defunct... can add a touch of... delight to your shelves... who may be the only... was reroaked out of the... We have a set of his... in our Old Book Corner... $2.95, and you may find it... reading as you think... recent campagins. Or... the "plumed knight" whose... punched in his neighbor's... book, and who lost the... thereby—his two-vol... "Twenty Years in Congress"... for $4.50 if you hurry... the silver-tongued, barefoot... of Prohibition, who holds... his championship as an un... Presidential candidate... story of his first campaign... First Battle. You can pick... copy for $1.50... nothing like a collection... books to lend distinction... shelves. If you expect to... of a sweat over the next... books like these will... nice background for your... THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP 125 E. Franklin St. Open Till 10 p.m.

Personal Mention

(Phone 8444 For Contributions To This Column)

Miss Bertha Pickard and Mrs. J. E. McDonnell spent the weekend in Asheville and the vicinity. Among those who attended the Pythian homecoming yesterday at Clayton were Mr. and Mrs. George Stansbury, Mr. and Mrs. Romulus Best and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Best. Miss Lucy M. Cobb of Raleigh is spending a few days here with Mrs. Collier Cobb and Miss Mary Cobb. Dr. and Mrs. O. David Garvin, Mrs. Edith Brocker and Miss Sarah Malpas attended the wedding of Miss Frances Rice and Dr. Warfield Garson in Sanford Saturday. Mrs. Romie Pendergraft returned Saturday from a week's visit in Georgetown, South Carolina, with her son, Sergeant W. R. Pendergraft, and the family. The Taylor Thornes have begun construction on their home in Hidden Hills. Miss Lois Cox, who is educational director of the Durham City Health Department and a resident of Chapel Hill, was called to Indiana last week because of the death of her mother. Mrs. Isabelle Carter left yesterday to attend a professional meeting being held in Louisville, Kentucky. She also plans to visit the Ted Franks, former residents of Chapel Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Yancey of Petersburg, Virginia, were here for the game and visited with Miss Margaret Hurlocker and other friends during the weekend. Dr. and Mrs. David Davis have gone to Tennessee to be with Dr. Davis' father, who is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. George Creel and daughter, Catherine, of Wilmington were weekend guests of Mrs. W. G. Pendergrass. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Simmons and daughter Beth of Charlotte spend the weekend here with Mrs. D. A. Groves and Winfred Groves. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Basnight are on a vacation trip to Washington, D. C., by way of Virginia Beach. They will make the return trip through the Shenandoah valley. Mrs. Harold Meyer is visiting in Meadow, Georgia, with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. George Meyer. The Rev. and Mrs. Harry Smith have as their guest Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Herbert, of New Orleans. Weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. John Graham were Miss Rena Gaham of Washington, D. C., and Dr. Graham's mother of Goldsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reid of Winston-Salem attended the game on Saturday and visited with Dean and Mrs. Fred H. Weaver. Mrs. Gales P. Perry and daughters, Lynn, Joan and Stephanie, who are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Perry, have received their orders and expect a port call to sail to Manila soon to join Captain Perry.

Howells Writes About Journey

In a recent letter to the News Leader, Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Howell, who are teaching English this year at Seoul National University, wrote that they had a thrilling trip, highlighted by their visit in Los Angeles with Prof. Howell's mother, brother and sisters. It was their first reunion in 37 years. In Honolulu, they saw Mrs. Irene Fussler, a former Chapel Hill resident. They attended a Japanese church in Tokyo where the hymns, although in a different language, are the same as ours.

Before buying or building a home of your own may we suggest that you consider the many advantages of owning a home in
Cedar Terrace Annex
DO YOU KNOW?
★ That you may select your own lot.
★ Choose your own house plan.
★ Heat your home economically with natural gas.
★ Have your home completely air conditioned.
★ Own your own lovely, modern, two bedroom home...
FOR AS LITTLE AS...
$16,500.
And, we will arrange for you the financing of your new home in Cedar Terrace Annex. Of course, if you wish you may select plans for a larger home at a higher price to suit your own family requirements... but, Cedar Terrace Annex is a restricted residential development and no homes under $16,500 will be built.
Cedar Terrace Annex
★ Is located to the right of the new Durham-Chapel Hill Boulevard...
★ Only 5 minutes drive to the University of North Carolina campus.
★ Less than 10 minutes drive to Duke University and Durham.
★ Building lots average 150 ft. by 150 ft., affording plenty of yard space.
★ All lots are highly elevated on picturesque, rolling terrain.
You'll love the peace and quiet of living in Cedar Terrace Annex, away from the busy streets and heavy, noisy traffic of living in the city. You'll have all the modern facilities enjoyed by city dwellers but, you won't have to pay high city taxes. And, best of all it is a wonderfully ideal place to raise your children.
As you already know more and more people are moving each year to attractive suburban residential developments. So, why don't you come out and take a look at Cedar Terrace Annex?
FOR MORE DETAILED INFORMATION MAY WE URGE YOU RIGHT AWAY TO CONTACT...
Bob Cowan
Building Contractor
Phone Durham 2-2085 or on the project Phone 7-8737