

Wildcats Fight To 13-13 Tie In Close Contest With Oxford

Battling back in the final quarter of the game, Chapel Hill fought Oxford to a 13-13 tie here Friday evening.

The locals started out with the advantage of a quick first quarter score set up by an Oxford fumble near midfield. Ruffin Harville, Tommy Goodrich, and Gene Smith led the 45-yard march and Jimmy Turner scored from the five-yard marker. Goodrich converted to make the score 7-0 at the quarter's end.

PLAYER-OF-WEEK — Guard Ross Jervis has been named Player-of-the-Week of the Chapel Hill High Wildcats' team for his defensive performance in Friday evening's game with Oxford. Jervis was in on most tackles during the hard-fought game and provided good interference for Chapel Hill backs.

Coach Bob Culton, who knew the Oxford aggregation as its coach last year, said he thought the visitors played their best game of the season, while Chapel Hill did not play well at all in letting up after taking the lead.

Friday evening the Wildcats will meet Roxboro there.

With the first and second place teams in the conference—Roxboro

30-Year-Old Violinist Began Concert Career At Age Eight

Rugiero Ricci, world-famous young American violinist, will play here Thursday at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall, as the first attraction on the Chapel Hill Concert Series this year.

Known originally as a child prodigy when he appeared as soloist with leading orchestras and in recital, beginning at the age of eight, Mr. Ricci, now in his early thirties, has been acclaimed as one of the most brilliant violinists of our generation.

A warm and friendly person, as well as a top rank artist, Mr. Ricci was a favorite visitor at army bases and hospitals during his years in the Air Force. He has likewise been immensely effective as an unofficial good will envoy for the United States in his recent concert tours of Europe and Latin America.

His annual European tours take him to the major music centers where he has concertized with every leading orchestra. In his recital here Thursday, Mr. Ricci will play his famous Guarnerius

Study Is Begun On Protection In Fire Zone

Methods of offering fire protection to residents of the Greater Chapel Hill Fire District were being studied today by the newly-created three-man Fire District Commission.

Chairman E. A. Cameron of this body met today with William T. Hobbs, fire insurance man and a member of the commission, to further investigate the matter and later this week they plan to meet with state authorities. The Commission, the other member of which is E. G. Merritt, held its first regular business meeting last week, and, according to Mr. Cameron, expects to move quickly towards the setting up of fire protection methods in the suburban district. "We're just as anxious as anybody in the district to get some fire protection set up," said Mr. Cameron.

After further investigation, the commission will recommend what equipment should be purchased and the system of fire protection to be set up to the county commissioners, Mr. Cameron explained.

Garden Ramblings

—AROUND CHAPEL HILL—
By William J. Brown

This week without any apology, the column is a list of spring-flowering bulb varieties. The descriptions are stolen from the catalog — and I could not do better myself. I can claim however that I have seen the following bulbs flowering in Chapel Hill gardens and on their performance here they can be recommended, if you have not already grown them yourselves.

The Daffodils, in most cases is shortened into a cup. So in the catalog we have listed, Trumpet and Large-Cupped Daffodils. The following are recommended: Trumpet Daffodils - Beersheba, a large all-white daffodil; Mount Hood, large, creamy-white with frilly-edged trumpet; King Alfred—an old favorite golden yellow daffodil; Mrs. R.O. Backhouse—one of the two "Pink Daffodils" with white petals and apricot pink trumpet.

The Large Copper Daffodils recommended include Fortune—with large yellow petals and orange cup; Selma Lagerlof—with snow-white petals and yellow cup with orange rim. There are many other forms of daffodils. You may wish to grow the Triandrus Hybrids that carry two or three flowers to the stem. We have seen Thalia which is a pure white flower. The Poets Narcissus are old favorites too and "Actaea" is still one of the best. We cannot complete the list without mentioning one of the cluster-flowered poet narcissi—"Geranium." It is both beautiful and scented.

FRIDAY BAKE SALE
