Reading Matter Is Needed For Negro Center
 The Junior Service League is currently working toward the completion of a reading room in the Negro Community Center. In addition to accessories and materials that have already been bought or donated, sofas, chairs, tables, lamps, books and magazines are needed.
 Miss Lucille Caldwell, director of the center, has daily requests from children and adults for good reading matter and feels that the reading room is supplying a real need. Books of reference, fiction, non-fiction, and children's stories are particularly needed. Popular magazines such as Life, Time, Popular Science, Readers' Digest and family magazines are in great demand.
 Persons having discarded items of furniture or books and magazines that they will donate are
