

Kiwanis Leaders Conference Held Here Next Tuesday

Annual conference and supper meeting that night. The following persons will be on the program for the conference sessions: J. Maryon Saunders of Chapel Hill, Past Governor of the Carolinas District, speaking on the duties of the presidents-elect; Dan Rader of Graham, Past Lt. Governor of the Fifth Division, speaking on the duties of vice-presidents-elect; Dr. W. P. Richardson of Chapel Hill, also a past Lt. Governor of this Division, speaking on the duties of the secretaries-elect; Guy W. Rawls of Raleigh, the present Division Lt. Governor, speaking on relationships between the Lt. Governor and the local club; and William M. Pugh of Chapel Hill, Past President of the Chapel Hill Club, speaking on the Kiwanis International movement.

Clubs in the Fifth Division include Burlington, Graham, Yanceyville, Haw River, Mebane, Chapel Hill, Durham, Roxboro, Oxford, Henderson, Pittsboro, Raleigh, and the Capital City Club in Raleigh.

Meat and livestock products are the biggest money earners for farmers, largely because of a continuing rise in public demand for beef.

Highlights From Ephesus and Mt. Moriah

By Mrs. Mildred Parker, Phone 9-9797

The traditional turkey dinner will be the menu at Ephesus next Wednesday night. Following dinner a special Thanksgiving service will be held in the Sanctuary of the church. Several special numbers will be rendered by the choir, along with a quartet and solo. An outside quartet is also being invited. An organ will be placed in the church for this service for demonstration purposes.

There will be a special choir practice Thursday night at 7:30 under the direction of Bruce Moody. He urges every choir member to be present for this important meeting.

Lincoln Tigers Ready To Play Pittsboro High

By FLOYD 'Jake' HOGAN

The Lincoln High Tigers will meet Horton High of Pittsboro tomorrow night in the Carrboro Lions Park for the Eastern District Play-Off. Kick-off is set for 8 p.m.

The Tigers have been working very hard this week polishing up on its offense and defense plays for this game. This is the second meeting between the two teams and should prove to be a thriller.

The Eastern "AA" district championship is at stake and realizing this the Tigers have been working doubly hard this week with their drills in order to get ready for this battle.

Coach D. W. Peerman is having trouble again in the quarterback slot. He has been trying all week to groom two of his backs for alternate positions at quarterback.

Coach Peerman is hoping that his team will be able to meet the winner of the Tarboro and Jacksonville game on November 23 in another district play-off.

52 Pupils At Chapel Hill High Listed On Six-Weeks Honor Roll

Thirteen per cent of the student body of Chapel Hill High School made the honor roll for the first six weeks of the school year.

The honor roll is composed of the students making no grade lower than a B- including physical education and drivers education. This list is compiled by the journalism class.

The sophomores head the list with sixteen on the honor roll and next come the seniors with 14. The freshmen and junior each placed eleven on the honor roll.

Mike Alexander, Karen Magnuson, and Pat Hunter, senior, junior and sophomore respectively received all A's.

Up Street

By MARY MacCAULTY

Seen at the Notre Dame-Carolina game, a proud little boy in possession of a torn Irish green jersey.

Little Jerry had made a bar of a packing box, and scrawled a sign on it, "This is the Wild West and this box is the Last Chance Saloon." Another youngster swaggered up, pounded on the bar, and cried, "I'll have a rye." A third, much younger, came up alongside him and squeaked, "I'll have a whole wheat."

Shirtsleeve weather last week had the violets blooming, the bees confused, and the gals wishing they hadn't put away their cotton dresses.
