Miss Mendenhall, Mr. Hopkins Wed In Friday Ceremony Here

In an Friday afternoon ceremony held here in the home of the bride's grandmother and aunt, Miss Alexandra Ray Mendenhall of Memphis, Tennessee, became the bride of John Alden Hopkins, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins of Boston, Massachusetts.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alexander Mendenhall of Memphis. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. Percy Albright Mendenhall and a niece of Mrs. Blake Deans Applewhite of McCauley Street, Chapel Hill.

The Rev. Vance Barron performed the ceremony which was held in the living room, decorated for the occasion with bronze daisy chrysanthemums and greenery.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue silk afternoon dress fashioned with boat neckline and a matching velvet hat. She carried a nosegay of carnations centered with an orchid.

Attending as matron of honor, Mrs. James D. LeGwin, Jr., of Chapel Hill wore a black velvet dress and red roses. Miss Estelle Stratford Mendenhall of Memphis, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a taffeta dress and red roses. William Gray of Washington, D.C., uncle of the bridegroom, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mendenhall wore gray lace over pink satin. Her flowers were orchids. Mrs. William Gray, aunt of the bridegroom, wore a dress of pink silk shantung and orchids.

The bride, who attended the University of Tennessee, has a civil service position with the government in Memphis. The bridegroom, who is stationed near Washington, D.C. is a Petty Officer, third class, in the Navy. The couple will be at home in the Washington area after January 1.

Immediately after the wedding a private reception was held at which the bride and groom were toasted with champagne. Following the reception the wedding supper and cake cutting were held for members of the bridal party and the immediate family.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Fuller of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. LeGwin and Jere LeGwin of Wilmington and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wood of High Point.
