mittee, and Tammy Lefler (third), Senior Crew Leader for the Ship. The ceremonies were held Thursday evening at a dance for the Scouts and their dates, held in the Hillel House. News Leader Photo

Sea Scout Ship Is Chartered Here; Sponsored By Lutheran Brotherhood

Charter presentation ceremonies for the newly-organized Chapel Hill Sea Scout Ship were held Thursday evening at a dance in the Hillel House. About 50 members of the senior scouting group and their dates attended the occasion, at which Bill Alexander, representing the Orange District of Boy Scouts, presented the Ship's charter to Joe Augustine, Committee Chairman for the sponsoring Lutheran Brotherhood. Mr. Augustine in turn gave the charter to Chief J. A. Watson, Skipper of the Ship. Members of the group at present are Tammy Lefler, senior crew leader; Haywood Pendergrass, crew leader; Ross Jervis, yeoman; and Anthony Ballenger, Don Loomis, Les Haentzchel, Ronnie Vick, Jimmy Jamerson, and Reggie Head. A number of others have submitted applications to join, according to Mr. Watson, who is on the staff of the Naval ROTC Unit here. The Ship's Adult Committee includes, in addition to Mr. Augustine, Carl Blyth, Thomas Hoenig, F. C. Hammerness, Charles Napier, Mark Burnham, and Bill Kiser. Finish Basic Training Chief Watson, in receiving the charter, praised the members of the Ship who have gone through a basic training period in order to form the nucleus of the Ship's crew. "The interest in this group has been keen," he said. "Without the cooperation of a fine group of boys it would not have been possible to succeed with an organization like this in a small community."

TASTE THRILL—The newest taste thrill in America today is tangy, tasteful pizza. Jerry Colonna suggests it as a Christmas party treat for a family meal, hors d'oeuvres for cocktail parties, or a tempting snack for holiday get-togethers. In the new pizza package mixes everything needed is handy. Just mix, fix, and bake!

How Would You Answer This Question?
Do You Have The Family Security You THINK You Have?
Too many of us buy life insurance and then proceed to forget about it. This is very unwise. Each new change in our living standard, each new responsibility calls for a review of your life insurance. YOU don't stand still... your life insurance shouldn't either. Let the experience and skill of a Northwestern Mutual agent help you.
