Miss Crawford And Mr. Strowd Married In Orange Chapel

Orange Chapel Methodist was the scene of the wedding at 7 p.m. Christmas Day of Miss Ann Crawford of Chapel Hill and John Wayne Strowd of Pittsboro. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Crawford of Route 1, Chapel Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sidwell of Route 1, Pittsboro.

MRS. JOHN WAYNE STROWD

The church was decorated with ferns and palms, white floor baskets and white wrought iron candelabra ribbons and flowers in the family pews.

The bride wore a gown of nylon lace made with a fitted high neck and long sleeves ending in calla lilies at the wrists. The full tulle featured a lace extending in a full court veil of silk illusion fell of matching lace. She carried a white orchid corsage with white ribbons and roses. She wore white earrings, a gift of the bride.

Miss Sara Ann Hatley of Pittsboro and Clarence Oakley of Chapel Hill were united in marriage on December 23 at 7 p.m. in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church with the Rev. R. N. Robertson, pastor of the bride, officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of C. L. Hatley of Pittsboro and the late Mrs. Hatley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hubert Oakley of Chapel Hill and the late Mr. Oakley.

The church was decorated with burning tapers in branched candelabra and arrangements of chrysanthemums, snapdragons and greenery. Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was given by Nathaniel Sparrow, organist. Given in marriage by her father,

Dicks-Connelly Vows Are Heard

Miss Jane Dozier Dicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peel Dicks, Rockingham, and John Waldo Connelly, Jr., son of Mrs. John W. Connelly of Alexandria, Virginia, and the late Mr. Connelly, were married at the Church of the Messiah, Rockingham, at noon yesterday with the Nuptial Eucharist. The Rev. C. E. B. Robinson performed the ceremony. A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore ivory brocade satin, matching hat, and carried lilies of the valley. Miss Lydia Lee Blanton, Shelby, and Miss Nora Dicks Hutton, Raleigh, nieces of the bride were her only attendants. They were dressed in imported white embroidered organdy with pale pink sashes and matching bandeaux and carried nosegays of sweetheart roses.

Vaughan Bradford Connelly of Alexandria, Virginia and Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, served as his brother's best man. The groomsmen included the bride's four brothers-in-law, Richard D. Muldowney, New York City; George Blanton, Jr., Shelby; James H. Clark, Jr., Elizabethtown; and J. Laurence Hutton, Jr. Raleigh.

Following a trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Connelly will establish residence at Hunting Towers West, Alexandria, Virginia. They will leave early in February for the Far East where Mr. Connelly will be engaged in establishing a Legal Research Center in Seoul, Korea and other countries in the Orient for the study of comparative law.

Both the bride and groom have traveled and lived in the Far East for a number of years, Mr. Connelly having served as Minister of Justice to the Military Government of the United States in Korea, 1945-48.

On Tuesday evening, prior to the wedding day, her sisters and brothers-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Muldowney entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a dinner at the Pinehurst County Club, Pinehurst.

Mrs. Clyde Coble of Burlington and Mrs. T. H. Lingerfelt.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will make their home in Pittsboro. Until February, they will live with the parents of the bride.

A graduate of Chapel Hill High School and Kennedy's Commercial School, the bride was employed at Hospital Saving Association prior to her marriage. The bridegroom is a graduate of Pittsboro High School.

Sara Hatley, Clarence Oakley Are Married On December 23

Miss Sara Ann Hatley of Pittsboro and Clarence Oakley of Chapel Hill were united in marriage on December 23 at 7 p.m. in the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church with the Rev. R. N. Robertson, pastor of the bride, officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of C. L. Hatley of Pittsboro and the late Mrs. Hatley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Hubert Oakley of Chapel Hill and the late Mr. Oakley.

The church was decorated with burning tapers in branched candelabra and arrangements of chrysanthemums, snapdragons and greenery. Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was given by Nathaniel Sparrow, organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta, made with fitted bodice, wrist-length sleeves and v-neck edged with folds of nylon tulle. The full skirt was designed with a wide insert of lace below the hip-line. Her two-tiered veil of illusion was attached to a scalloped queen's crown sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Jean Hackney, her cousin's only attendant, wore a ballerina length dress of ice blue taffeta and tulle and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and mums.

The bridegroom had as his best man his brother, John Oakley.

For travel the bride changed to a brown woolen dress with which she wore brown reptile shoes and bag and a brown hat. The couple will make their home in Carrboro upon their return.

The bride, who is employed at the Hospital Saving Association office in Chapel Hill, is a graduate of Pittsboro High School.

Mr. Oakley, a graduate of Bells High School, is employed at Leggett-Myers Tobacco Company in Durham.

In August the 50,000th herd sire in North Carolina was proved through analysis of Dairy Herd Improvement Association records.

*Chevrolet's

With its frisky "Turbo-Fire V8," this Chevrolet is pure dynamite. But it's beautifully mannered, too—quiet, instantly obedient to your slightest signal!

Nudge the accelerator and you're aware of the split-second chain reaction of your toe to the "Turbo-Fire"! There's your dynamite—with horsepower ranging up to a high of 205. The car is built for its power, too—with a low, low center of gravity, well distributed weight and wide-apart rear springs. There's your stability, and safer handling! All doors have safety latches—and instrument panel padding and seat belts are available at extra cost. Directional signals are standard. Come in and try a new Chevrolet!
