

Noah, Mr. Jones Wed In Baptist Church

MRS. HARRY HARLEY JONES

Photo by Lavergne

Miss Patricia Ann Noah became the bride of Harry Harley Jones in a ceremony at the Chapel Hill Baptist Church on Saturday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David P. Henry of Chapel Hill. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jones Jr. of Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Samuel Tilden Habel officiated in the nuptials of the couple, with Miss May Marshbanks, organist, and John H. Crabtree Jr., soloist, presenting a program of sacred wedding music.

A large pyramid arrangement of chrysanthemums centered the wedding scene, and was flanked on each side with cathedral candles against a background of evergreens.

Given in marriage by Mr. Henry, her stepfather, the bride wore a formal gown of bridal satin with fitted bodice fashioned with lace yoke re-embroidered in sequins and seed pearls and long fitted sleeves. Her full skirt was designed with a scalloped yoke. A two-tiered veil of illusion was attached to a half hat of lace and plicated tulle embroidered with sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Starlight roses and stephanotis.

Attending her cousin as maid of honor was Miss Carol Louise Yeager of Chapel Hill. Miss Lee Elizabeth Henry, the bride's sister, and Miss Carol Ann Jones of Washington, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

The father of the bridegroom was best man for his son. Ushers were Robert Sibley of Mount Rainier, Md.; David Patterson Henry, Jr., brother of the bride; Philip Mast, Washington, D. C.; and Philip Ransdell, Fuquay Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry were hosts at a reception at the Alpha Gamma Delta house after the wedding. Assisting the hosts were Mrs. L. C. Pate, Mrs. G. O. Doak, Mrs. Thomas Sibley, Mrs. Billy Maready, Mrs. Joseph Carpenter, Misses Barbara Cline, Carolyn Shepard, Lucia Johnson and Trudy Lefler.

For traveling, the bride wore a flannel suit in cotton blue designed with fitted jacket, cape collar and empire waistline. She wore matching blue accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

The bride attended Salem College and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Jones was also graduated from Carolina. He is associated with the Pioneer Laundry of Washington where the couple will make their home.

Cradle Call

Margaret Catherine Caldwell

A daughter, Margaret Catherine Caldwell, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Caldwell of Copenhagen, Denmark, on Nov. 8. Mr. Caldwell, son of Prof. and Mrs. Wallace E. Caldwell of Chapel Hill, is Second Secretary of the American Embassy in Denmark. They have two other children, Wallace Franklin, age nine, and George Marvin, age five.

Jean Ione Linker

A daughter, Jean Ione, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Markham (Ned) Linker of Martinsville, Va., on Nov. 11 in Martinsville. The Linkers have another son, Edward M. Jr., age two and one-half. Their latest child is named for her mother and her paternal grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Linker of Chapel Hill. Mr. Linker is an engineer with DuPont in Martinsville.

Susan Moye Maxwell

A daughter, Susan Moye, was born to Lt. and Mrs. Richard Maxwell of Charleston, S. C., on Nov. 10 and the Charleston Navy Base hospital. She is the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Padgett of Chapel Hill. Mrs. Maxwell is the former Joe Padgett. Lt. Maxwell is stationed at the Charleston Air Force Base. Their daughter's middle name is for Mrs. William Padgett's maiden name.

Candace Booth Gutierrez

A daughter, Candace Booth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew N. Gutierrez of Chapel Hill on Nov. 10 at Memorial Hospital.

Miss Richardson, Dr. Liverant Are Married Here On Nov. 10

The wedding of Miss Marianne Richardson, of 48 Hayes Road, to Dr. Shepard Liverant also of Chapel Hill took place here on Nov. 10. The Rev. Charles M. Jones performed the single-ring ceremony in the chapel of the University Methodist Church. The informal wedding was attended by the immediate families of the couple and a few close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mark Richardson of Memphis, Tenn., while Dr. Liverant is the son of Mrs. David Grossman and the late Jacob Liverant of Bridgeport, Conn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Frances Maynard of Winston-Salem. Dr. Milton Rosenbaum of Chapel Hill was best man. A reception for the couple was given following the wedding at the home here of Dr. Lucie Jess-Richardson, of 48 Hayes Road, to Dr. and Mrs. Harold J. Harris and Dr. and Mrs. E. Earl Baugman of Chapel Hill and Dr. and Mrs. Weston LeBarre of Durham—all friends of the couple.

Out-of-town guests present for the occasion included the bride's parents and her brother, Marvin Richardson Jr.

The bride attended Vassar College, from which she received the A.B. Degree and the Simmons College School of Social Work, where she received the M. S. Degree.

Dr. Liverant attended the Universities of New Mexico and Colorado and holds the Ph.D. degree in psychology. He is assistant professor in the Departments of Psychology and Psychiatry at the University and Acting Director of Psychological Services at Memorial Hospital.

Funeral services were held this afternoon from the chapel of the Chapel of the Cross for Mrs. George W. Lay, 86, who died Saturday afternoon in Pinehurst following a lengthy illness.

The Rev. David W. Yates, Church rector, officiated at the services which were followed by interment in Chapel Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were Collier Cobb III, Henry W. Cheney, and Roland Giduz of Chapel Hill, Alvin Ward Peacock of Fayetteville; Charles Cheek of Durham; and William A. Johnson of Lillington.

A member of the Chapel of the Cross and the widow of the late Rev. Mr. Lay, she had lived in Chapel Hill since 1927. The Rev. Mr. Lay died here in 1932.

Surviving are a son, Henry C. Lay of Tulsa, Okla.; four daughters, Mrs. Paul Green of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Harold Hodgkinson of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Charles A. White of Greenville; and Mrs. James E. Hawkins of Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; 22 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Born in Washington, D. C., in 1870, she was the daughter of Rear Adm. and Mrs. George Beall and spent her early life in

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Tuesday, November 20
J. Vernon Lacey, J. Maryon Saunders, R. S. Burdick, Miles Fitch, Hank Harlburt.
Wednesday, November 21
James Niedermeyer, Raymond Prime, Robert Strowd.
Thursday, November 22
Dr. M. E. Newton, Mrs. James Emitherman, H. N. Shore, James Young, Mrs. Paul Guhl, Mrs. J. T. Mullins.
(As Compiled by Huggins Hardware Birthday Calendar)

STUDENT WIVES CLUB
There will be a meeting of the Student Wives Club on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Victory Village Nursery. A film, "Jimmie Beats Rheumatic Fever," will be shown, sponsored by the North Carolina Heart Association. All Student Wives are invited to attend and are reminded to bring gifts for the Thanksgiving basket.

Sophisticated and Lovey
IMPRINTED
CHRISTMAS CARDS
Order Yours Today!
THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP
205 E. Franklin St.
Open Till 10 P.M.

Give Your High School or University Student a new Remington Portable for Christmas Only $1 A WEEK No down payment and nothing to pay until Feb. 1st. Ledbetter Packard

The Beauty Box Staff Is Happy To Announce That Mrs. Jessie Mae Boyd Has transferred to our shop, and we cordially invite her friends to visit us. MARY ANN McDADE HAZEL GUNTER MARGARET CRAIGE OLLIE WOOTEN Phone 2131 OPP. BUS STATION 312 W. Franklin St. Chapel Hill

Personal Mention

44 For Contributions To This Column)
News, who has been visiting in Charlotte, returned home and Edwin Lanier paid a visit to the Northampton County Courthouse at the weekend.

A seventh grade pupil at the Asheboro school, returned a visit to Chapel Hill at the express invitation of the Army Department to which his teacher, Miss Nancy Murrin, written a letter saying the lad was a "rock hound". Wheeler showed him around.

Richard L. Beard and family left Saturday for a week's visit, during which time Prof. Beard will give a talk here, and they will visit in Lakeland.

Hettie drove to Charleston, S. C., today to pick up Mrs. ... who has been there since shortly before the arrival of their first grand child, born on Nov. 10, to Lt. and Mrs. ...

William Wells and David will spend the Thanksgiving with the mountains with their son, Bill, who is at Christ ...

Thomas D. Rose are on a vacation trip in Kingsport, ... their son, Thomas D. Rose, Jr., and his family.

Abornes spent Thursday visiting his family in Ahsokie. ... one, professor of economics at Sweet Briar College, and guests of the Paul Guthries. Mrs. Guthrie will go ... D. C., tomorrow, to meet her two sons who will ... holidays here with them.

Thomas Carroll visited the Arthur Whitechills here last ... Carroll, former Dean of the School of Business Administration Vice-President of the Ford Foundation.

... of Cincinnati, was a recent guest of her daughter, ... Miller.

... Jr. represented the University Chapter of Phi Delta ... convention of southern university chapters of Phi ... at the University of Mississippi at Oxford, Miss. last ...

... able, Dean of the University School of Nursing attending ... of the National Nursing Advisory Committee of the ... national Red Cross in Washington today.

... on and David G. Basile of the University Department ... and Geography, are attending the annual meeting of ... tern division, Association of American Geographers, ... Tenn.

... ay of the Department of Pediatrics, spoke before the ... ademy of General Practice in Salisbury Sunday.

... mbers of the Department of Pediatrics at the Uni ... of Medicine attended a meeting of the N. C. Pedi ... y in Greensboro at the weekend. They were Dr. Ed ... men, Harrie Chamberlin, Nelson K. Ordway, Judson J ... d Robert Winters.

Smith To Tell AAUW About Books As Gifts

Paul Smith, Chapel Hill book dealer, will be the guest speaker at the AAUW meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Wilson Library Assembly Room.

He will discuss recently published books, particularly those suitable for Christmas gifts, with emphasis on children's books.

Mr. Smith, in the book business for almost 25 years, opened his first shop in Provincetown, Mass. in 1932. Since 1950 he has owned and operated the Intimate Book Shop in Chapel Hill.

CLERGYMEN TO "STAR"

More than 5,750 clergymen in North Carolina have been invited to attend a special showing of "Star of Bethlehem" at the Morehead Planetarium here next Monday at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Cleaveland To Be Helper For Red Cross

Mrs. Frederic Cleaveland will become a part-time assistant to Chapel Hill Red Cross Chapter Secretary Mrs. Mabel Brittain in the downtown office of the local agency.

Her nomination to this position was unanimously approved at Friday evening's meeting of the board of directors of the Chapter. J. T. Gobbel, Chapter President, said he had received approval from the Southeastern Red Cross headquarters office of the local budget objective for 1957-58.

Sonny O'Neal, representing the Junior Red Cross, told the group of his experiences at the Junior Red Cross Summer Camp at Tuxedo, and said that Junior members at Chapel Hill High were contributing gifts for children abroad.

First Aid Chairman E. A. Brecht said that two first aid stations have been usefully maintained at the Carolina home football games this year. Courses in first aid have been held for the Highway Patrol, Wildlife Commission workers, and pharmacy students, he said, adding that he hoped local residents would take a course to be offered after Christmas.

Mrs. Thomas Murray, Volunteer Service Groups Chairman, said that a home nursing course was recently completed in Hillsboro, and that 13 women were enrolled in a new Gray Ladies training class. A group of volunteers attended the Halloween carnival at the Veterans Hospital in Durham, to which they contributed 500 doughnuts, she reported.

A prescription is always worth more than you pay for it... SUTTON'S DRUG STORE Telephone 9-8781

LONG MEADOW EGG NOG In convenient, quart-size Pure-Pak paper cartons. For A Happy THANGSGIVING! For your Thanksgiving parties, dinners and get-togethers, be sure you include the traditional holiday drink—Long Meadow Egg Nog. Long Meadow Egg Nog is made with country-fresh milk and cream and finest ingredients. It's a treat the entire family will enjoy. GET SOME TODAY! Call Long Meadow For Home Delivery Your Favorite Holiday Drink ... without fuss or bother!

This is another in the series of advertisements published by this newspaper, a member of the North Carolina Press Association, as a public service in the interest of the State's industrial development.

New and Dynamic

The Research Triangle

YOU ARE ALREADY FEELING ITS IMPACT

The clothes you wear, the food you eat, the jobs you do, the money you earn and the taxes you pay will be increasingly affected by this modern miracle.

The Research Triangle is the heart of North Carolina's dynamic new approach to industrial development, higher per capita income, greater opportunity for its youth.

It reaches out to every part of the State. It is another North Carolina FIRST.

Governor Luther H. Hodges, who heads North Carolina's development program, invites you to write for the new booklet telling about the RESEARCH TRIANGLE. It's free.

DEPT. OF CONSERVATION & DEVELOPMENT Box 2719, Raleigh, North Carolina Please reserve for me one of the first copies of RESEARCH TRIANGLE, and send it free as soon as it comes off the press. NAME ADDRESS